"Stumbling Steps," New Broadway Step, Boon to Awkward

On the revolutionary but welcome theory that he who stumbles most dances best, Donald Kerr and Effie Weston, well-known Broadway pacesetters have built "Stumbling Steps," a new dance, which they offer as a panacea to that long-suffering specimen of human flora, the wallflower.

Famous Film Stars' Favorite Coiffures

LOIS WILSON Lois Wilson likes a conservative coiffure. Although young she is of the demure type and generally portrays wife or home girls types in Paramount pictures. The hair-dress shown in the photograph above, in addition to its becoming qualities, accentuates this type. There is no set wave in it, the natural wave of the hair being sufficient. It is simplicity in the extreme but very attractive for one who desires to get away from the flapper styles.

The car's usefulness is admirably in keeping with its innate goodness.

In summer it protects you from heat; in winter it protects you from cold. Day in and day out it insures you against expensive upkeep and repair costs.
