THE WEARY WAY

Daily Becoming Less Wearisome to Many in Ashland

With a back that aches all day, with rest disturbed at night, annoying urinary disorders, 'tis a weary way, indeed.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney trouble.

Are endorsed by Ashland citizens. Mrs. A. Sherard, 881 East Main street, Ashland, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills from experience for I know they do all that is claimed for them. I had a lame, aching back that kept me feeling miserable all the time. My work tired me easily and I had frequent headaches. My kidneys acted too frequently, too. Doan's Kidney Pills bought at Poley & Elhart's drug store, helped me wonderfully by relieving the backaches and regulating my kidneys."

Price, 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sherard had. Foster Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 33

Blind Boy Wins Big Honor for Work at Island University

HONOLULU, H. T., Aug. 29.—Scholastic leadership at the University of Hawaii for the college year which has just closed, goes to a blind boy, Henry Bindt, a third year student, in the college of arts and sciences.

Besides attaining an average grade of 93 in all his subjects during the year, thus leading the entire student body in scholarship, Bindt took an active part in college activities, being elected president of the student body for the ensuing year, as well as president of the literary club and president of his class. He was also one of the few students to be chosen as charter members of the newly organized student honor society.

Bindt does his studying by the aid of readers and a dictaphone, using also text books printed in the American Braille system of raised letter writing. He takes no lecture notes, depending entirely on his memory, which his instructors say is remarkably developed.

The honor system was adopted at the University of Hawaii during the last year largely as a result of Bindt's efforts in lecturing to students and faculty on the advantages of the system. The blind boy received his early schooling in the California school for the blind at Berkeley, Calif.

MOVIE STARS DO THE TANGO

Gloria Swanson and Rudolph Valentino Are Partners

The pleasure seekers at Catalina Island, famous Pacific coast resort, were the recipients of a terpsichorean treat one evening during the filming of "Beyond the Rocks," the Paramount picture starring Gloria Swanson and showing at the Vining theatre today, tomorrow and Thursday.

WILL HAYS MEETS "FRECKLES" BARRY

Motion Picture Producers Are Not so Much Interested in the Millions of Dollars Invested in the Industry, as They Are in Morals and Education of Children, Says Hays.

In an eloquent and forceful appeal to the public to have faith in motion pictures, Will Hays, head of the Motion Picture Producers' and Distributors' Association, as the guest of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce at their weekly luncheon at the Alexandria Hotel, said that the evils, if any, now existing in Hollywood shall be eliminated. He declared that the one bad influence in the film colony is talk.

"For the life of me, I cannot see the horrors of Hollywood," said Mr. Hays. "We must remove the lies about the industry. Ours is a duty to youth. We are not so much interested in the millions of dollars invested in the industry, as we are in the millions of children whose morals and education are invested in it.

"I earnestly ask and hope to receive the advice and cooperation of the public. One way for the public to help us make good pictures is very easy, and that is to support good pictures."

During Mr. Hays' tour of the Hollywood colony, he visited the Warner Brothers studios. Here he met Freckle-faced Wesley Barry, who stopped work on his latest Harry Rapt production, "Rags to Riches," to shake hands with the Judge Landis of the screen.

can treat one evening during the filming of "Beyond the Rocks," the Paramount picture starring Gloria Swanson and showing at the Vining theatre today, tomorrow and Thursday.

The company, under the direction of Sam Wood, had gone to the Island to film ocean scenes for this picture, adapted from the novel by Elinor Glyn.

A ball was given at one of Avalon's most palatial hotels, and the members of the staff and cast of the picture, after a strenuous day's work, joined the pleasure seekers for an evening's relaxation.

The feature of the evening was the perfect dancing of Gloria Swanson, the star, and Rudolph Valentino, her leading man in this picture. Miss Swanson is a charming dancer, and Mr. Valentino has made dancing one of the foremost of his accomplishments. His rendition of the tango will be recalled in "The Four Horseman of the Apocalypse."

Watch the Man With the Advertising Idea

---he may be the coming brains of your business

Look over the young executives who direct the retail and the manufacturing businesses of New York.

A surprisingly large percentage of them have reached their goals by advocating advertising, by directing the advertising and by making the advertising work.

If yours is a business which doesn't advertise, don't close your ears to the story of your young men. Help them to think it out—listen to their plans and their hopes. Add the counsel of years of experience to the minds of the men who are planning the future of your business.

Did you ever expect that iron could be advertised profitably? Few advertising men did. Did you ever expect to eat trade marked grapefruit? It is an accomplished fact at thousands of breakfasts this morning. Did you ever think the dairymen could profitably use the forces of publicity or that a barber-shop could grow to twenty-five, largely by the power of the written word and an ideal of service.

The coming executives realize that a business exists, in the last analysis, in the minds of its customers, rather than in four walls and a roof, and, perhaps, that is why they are the coming executives.
