Lived With Coffin Twenty-Five Years. When Mrs. Eliza Bass became ill at Lumberton, N. C., 25 years ago she sent for a carpenter to have him make her a coffin to order. He turned Everything good to eat at Detrick out a nice box of hard pine, varnished black, and at the old woman's request placed it under her bed. She grew better immediately. During subsequent illnesses she has had the coffin brought out from under the bed, and every time has got well. Meanwhile. living by herself in her lonely little house on the edge of the village, says Mrs. Pollock.-Grants Pass Courier, has been as safe from chicken thieves and other marauders as if she had a pack of flerce bulldogs to protect her. The negro population of the surrounding country had a deadly fear of the old woman's house and would never go near it after dark. Now the coffin has been put to its original use. Death Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Skein, of has claimed its owner at the ripe age Montague, Calif., were visitors in of ninety-four, and her friends and neighbors have laid her away.
