Hay Stack Burns

There was quite a blaze east of town Saturday night, when a hay stack belonging to Butler Walker caught fire and burned up. The fire was watched until morning to keep it from spreading to the barns and other buildings nearby. It was seen from town about 11 o'clock and a number of cars went out to give assistance if needed.

Dad, Mother, Ironized Yeast for Rheumatism

Do You Realize What Ironized Yeast-Vitamines Will Do for Rheumatism and Lumbago?

Do you know that vitamins and iron are part of your very life? Do you know that the tissue-and-blood factory in your body needs these two materials, and needs them badly? Do you know that if your body furnaces does not get enough of these, that queer poisons, joint poisons, mucus poisons, acid poisons are formed instead of the healthy flesh and the rich blood you used to have in days gone by? If you hobble in your gait, if pains distort your body, if bending over is an unpeakable agony, if dull pains make you breathe heavily and moan, do not grumble at the roughness of the way—smile sweetly, there is a rainbow ahead. Things are different now than they used to be, in the days of liniments, salves, complicated drugs, and all that—remember? The happy secret today is ironized yeast, one of the greatest body-and-blood builders of all time. Begin taking Ironized Yeast today. Beware of imitations and substitutes, because Ironized Yeast is not a mere combination of yeast and iron, but is yeast ironized, which is a substance all by itself. There is only one Ironized Yeast in all the world. Sold at all drug stores at $1.00 a package and containing 60 tablets, each tablet sealed. They never lose their power. Mfd only by Ironized Yeast Co., Atlanta, Ga. Say goodbye to rheumatism from now on!

"Whoop! Rheumatism Pains and Aches All Gone. Ironized Yeast is Surely Wonderful!"

Flapper Cakes For Cake Eaters

There is little doubt that the cake eater is a man of intelligence when he eats cake like this, nor that the flapper is a wise young woman when she serves this three layered enticement to her suitors.

This was served by a dietetic expert to give the greatest variety of satisfactions—palatability, digestibility, novelty, sweetness and lightness and prettiness. The top and the bottom layer are plain. The middle layer is spiced. The icing is snow white delight.

RECIPE LAYER CAKE

2 cupsful of sugar
1 cupful of vegetable shortening
1 teaspoonful of salt
1 teaspoonful of lemon extract
Yolk of 5 eggs
1 cupful of milk
4 cupsful of flour
2 teaspoonfuls of baking powder
Cream the vegetable shortening, then add sugar slowly and beat to a cream. Add the salt and extract and the beaten yolks of the eggs. Mix thoroughly, then add the milk. Sift the baking powder and flour together, then add to the other mixture, beat only enough to mix smoothly. Divide the mixture into three parts, making two layers of the plain, add to the third part 1/2 teaspoonful of cloves, 1/4 teaspoonful of cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoonful of allspice, 1/4 cup of chopped raisins.

Put together when cold with the following icing:
White of an egg
1 1/4 tablespoonfuls of cream
1/4 teaspoonful of lemon extract
2 cupsful of confectioner sugar
Put the egg white, cream and extract in bowl. Stir together with a spoon then slowly add the sugar, beating until smooth. This recipe makes a very large cake.

1925 Exposition For Entire State Says Mayor Baker

Portland asks the voters of the other sections of Oregon to give it permission to tax itself for the financing of the 1925 exposition. This appeal is to be made in every section of the state, emphasizing the fact that the tax is to rest on Portland alone, and all that is asked is that the voters elsewhere support the proposed constitutional amendment that will permit Oregon's metropolis to go ahead and provide the money for the great exposition.

"Oregon needs a comprehensive program to attract people from all parts of the United States," says Mayor George L. Baker, of Portland, who heads the exposition committee.

"We are certain that the 1925 exposition will bring to this state thousands of persons who are seeking new homes or new lines of investment and we are certain that every part of the state will benefit. The state of Oregon is less advertised than either California or Washington, yet we have abundant resources and opportunities for business men, farmers, orchardists, stockmen, investors, etc. We must set forth these advantages if we are to reap the benefit of increased population in keeping with the general growth of the Pacific coast and to develop our state as it should be developed in the next few years."

"The 1925 exposition is not a Portland fair; it is for the entire state, although Portland will stand the expense. All Portland asks is that the other sections of the state sanction its plans to tax itself so that the exposition may proceed. Oregon is developing too slowly; we must advertise to the world our resources and opportunities. The 1925 exposition offers the way on a large scale. We must 'sell' the state to thousands of newcomers, and that will be the objective of the great exposition."

The campaign for support of the constitutional amendment is now on full tilt, and will be prosecuted with vigor until election day, November 6, in all parts of the state.

WORN NERVES
Nervous troubles, with headache, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect edy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor, Mrs. Sarah Boots, 338 B. St., Ashland, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done me more good than any remedy I have ever used. I was in a bad condition with kidney and bladder trouble and become so weak and run down I could hardly walk a block. My back ached constantly and my kidneys acted too frequently. My limbs and feet were swollen and I had dizzy headaches and nervous spells. I used different remedies but didn't get any better until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon helped me and I felt like a different person."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Boots had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MYRTLE CREEK HAS NEW WATER SYSTEM
MYRTLE CREEK, Or., Sept. 12.—The water from Harrison Young creek was turned into the main pipeline of the new water system of the town of Myrtle Creek last week, and the inhabitants of this town are now enjoying over abundance of pure mountain water. This supply of water is delivered at the old reservoir within the town from the Harrison Young creek through a six inch concrete pipe, 11,648 feet in length.

The pipeline has nine inverted syphons and crosses eight ridges. The intake is 240 feet higher than the outlet at the reservoir, the greatest head being 200 feet at Dead Horse syphon. A pressure release valve is placed in the pipeline at this point. Clean-out valves are provided at all the syphons and air valves at all high places—23 in all. There are 12 places where creeks cross the pipeline during the rainy season.

HOARDING OF GOLD IS TERMED A DISEASE
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 12.—Present industrial disturbances, such as the shopmen's strike, is giving the nation a disease similar to that which happens to an individual when the flow of blood is checked by a clot. A. E. Reinman, president of the Central Savings and Trust company here, asserts.

"Banks and business generally were getting to a place where they were breathing easier," Mr. Reinman said. "We could see prosperity just ahead when the coal and rail strikes came. A sure sign that the mental attitude of the people had changed—a most important factor in prosperity—was the amount of gold that was hoarded in through bank windows by all kinds of people. In times of depression there is always a hoarding of gold."

"However, right after the first of the year, it again made its appearance. Gradually the flow increased. One of our customers deposited $600 in gold he had kept hidden away since the first hard times of 1920. Then came the strikes and threats of other industrial troubles, and now gold is once more being hoarded. It's the 'blood clot' in the industrial system of the nation."

FAIR FORTUNE TELLER NIPS TRUSTING CLIENT
CHELSEA, Mass., Sept. 12.—Police of this city are searching for a fair young fortune teller who fleeced Konstante Telone of $1900—the savings of his entire life.

The victim said the fortune teller offered to make a money belt for him, and advised him to keep all his money in it. This he did, he said, withdrawing his $1900 from the bank and putting it in the belt. At another appointment with the fortune teller, she took the belt to examine it and then gave it back. When Telone appeared for his third appointment she had disappeared. He then examined his money belt and found the money had disappeared.

PARK DEDICATION TO BE POSTPONED

association is in session the earlier date, and many who would attend one could not attend the other. Invitations to all parts of the state to attend this big event are being sent out by Secretary O'Connor and the committees in charge.

ESCAPES CENSOR

If Nazimova's appearance as Salome were distinctive for no other reason, it still would be for this: that it gives no cause for censorship.

The great Russian star's portrayal on the screen of the daughter of Herodias has been pronounced by dramatic critics and the National Board of Review alike the first "Salome" to be utterly free from objectionable scenes and actions, and yet be fully dramatic and emotionally telling.

Said the New York Review of Nazimova's "Salome": "The National Board of Review is unanimous in its approval, unanimously passed the picture after having witnessed it in New York."

"The verdict of the review board is regarded as highly significant, since it will remove all possible prejudice that might exist in the minds of some exhibitors and some picture patrons who know only of the unsavory reputation of the Strauss opera of the same name which has been barred from presentation in Chicago, and those other staged and film versions of the Salome story which deal primarily with its salacious possibilities."

This photoplay, a Nazimova production, was directed by Charles Bryant. The scenario by Peter M. Winters, follows closely the poet's drama by Oscar Wilde; and no less so do the settings, by Natscha Rambova, the drawings by Aubrey Beardsley. The photographs by Charles Van Enger. The picture will be released generally in the fall, it is understood.
