Cowboy Regalia Is Being Worn By Pendleton

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 14.—Pendleton is in Round-Up dress. Her citizens have discarded the sober attire of the hum-drum business world and are gay in the fancy vests, loud shirts and broad-brimmed sombreros of the cowboy. Local business houses are showing cards proclaiming that their employes are dressed "100 per cent for the Round-Up."

Nor is the "biggest little city in the world" lacking in gala attire. Street decorations are being put in place and vari-colored banners and pennants are floating in the clear air of September.

At the Round-Up grounds the shining coated racers are daily being put through their paces. They have won honors on tracks throughout the United States and give the promise of some breathless races at this year's show. Mexican steers a-plenty are ready, and buckers as well.

There is a coyness in the eyes of Winnemucca and Hotfoot, two of the wildest buckers, that presages ill for would-be riders. Both are acclaimed by the cowboys as "a couple wild uns," and have already spilled a score of horsemen in the try-outs.

Besides the usual world championship bucking contest, there will be this year a Northwest championship as well. In this, only residents of Oregon, Washington and Idaho may compete, and no one who has ever been in the semi-finals at the Round-Up will be eligible.

An innovation this year will be the "cowboys' milking contest." For this, each cowboy is allowed a helper and must robe a cow, milk into a bottle enough milk so that the fluid can be poured from it, and ride with the bottle to the judges' stand. The cows are not to be "busted," but roped by horns, half-head or neck.

OPPOSITION GROWS TO RENAMING SISSON

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 14.—Unsolicited support in the campaign started by Mrs. J. H. Hoerl, of 3265 Tenth avenue, grand-daughter of Justin Hinkley Sisson, who founded the town of Sisson, to petition the Postmaster General not to change the name of the town to Mount Shasta, as recently voted by residents of the town, is coming to her from many people in California.

These letters are all in support of her contention, first contained in a published letter to Postmaster General Hubert D. Works, that the historic name is Sisson is too well-known and too valuable to be lost.

Word from Washington has not been received as yet, indicating what the decision of Postmaster General Works will be in this matter.

Well well! Mary— your cooking gets better every day!

—and Mary explains that she's been reading up—new schools of cookery advise baking powder with a combination of leavening units that produce good results if doors do slam, oven isn't "doing" just right, or phone rings at most critical time. So she is using Crescent Baking Powder.

"YOUNG TEDDY" TALKS

Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, or "Young Teddy," as he is so generally called by ex-President Roosevelt's friends, is evidently taking up his father's policy of being sure about things, for he was here caught on the White House steps telling Secretary Weeks just how the situation stood.

327 ANIMAL PESTS KILLED DURING AUGUST

A total of 327 predatory animals were killed by government hunters in Oregon during August, according to Stanley G. Jewett, predatory animal inspector for the United States biological survey. This included 35 bobcats, 291 coyotes and one bear. In addition, 40 badgers, 197 porcupines, 20 skunks and eight racoons were taken. Of the 21 hunters employed, W. C. Snyder, of Princeton, made the best record. In Harney county in 31 days he killed 10 bobcats, 70 coyotes, four badgers and 84 porcupines.

FIREMEN SEE FIGHT WHEN ALARM IS SENT

REDDING, Calif., Sept. 14.—A fire alarm at 2 o'clock in the morning was due to a fight in California street, not to a fire.

Two men were having a lively encounter in a California street resort, when a bystander telephoned to central to ring up the police and send them to the scene.

The operator mistook the call for a fire alarm and called out the firemen. The fire department and big big fire engine responded promptly. The firemen saw the finish of the fight.

TWICE MARRIED, DIVORCED COUPLE WEDS AGAIN

YREKA, Calif., Sept. 14.—After having been married twice before, and divorced both times, George W. Nance and Eunice Haverall Nance, of Roseburg, Oregon, came to Yreka and procuring a license, appeared before Judge C. J. Luttrell, where they pledged their faiths anew.

"Third time ought to be the charm time," said the groom. "If it isn't we'll try it all over again, I guess."

The bride is 37, and the groom 51. They are the parents of two children, a boy, 9, and a girl of 6.

PRUNES AND PEACHES ARE GROWN ON SAME TREE

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 14.—A tree bearing prunes and peaches is a curious sight at the farm home of Dennis B. Meyer and his brother, Harry B. Meyer.

On a small prune tree three several years ago, they grafted a peach scion, and it grew. The prune section, of course, has regular prune leaves on it. The grafted part has peach leaves. This year the tree bore heavily of prunes and peaches.

WOULD-BE KILLER IS PAROLED IN CALIFORNIA

SHASTA, Calif., Sept. 14.—Sheriff James L. Richardson brings word back from San Quentin that Robert W. Shaw has been released on parole and gone east with a brother.

On Christmas day, 1916, Shaw shot and blinded T. L. Cockrum near this place. Shaw was sentenced in May 1918, to prison for ten years. He is now 76 years old. Cockrum is with a brother in Arkansas.
