FAMOUS CHICAGO OPERA STAR GIVES HER SECRET RECIPE FOR HER FAVORITE DISH— SPAGHETTI

"It is very simple to cook spaghetti," declares the prima donna, "but to make from it a dish so luscious, so completely satisfying that one would readily forego all the other courses of the meal—including dessert—for another portion of it—that is truly an art. Here is the secret I shall give you!"
"One cooks one quart of spaghetti in boiling salted water, until it is quite tender. To the cheerful accompaniment of the boiling, one gets ready the ingredients for the sauce—the two tablespoonfuls of vegetable fat—two tablespoonfuls of flour—the salt and paprika (never too much for my taste)—the 1/2 cup brown stock and 1/2 cup tomato pulp, which should be quite thick from long cooking.
