

STORY OF RUTH TOLD BY PRICE TUESDAY NIGHT

RECORD ATTENDANCE MARKS DIVINE HEALING SERVICE AT TABERNACLE

CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE ON SUNDAY EVENING

Meetings Continue to Attract Many From Different Parts of Southern Oregon; Male Chorus Provides Special Music for Congregation.

The gift of the Holy Spirit—that which makes possible prayer so efficacious that one result is the healing of the sick—will be the subject of Dr. Charles S. Price's sermon at the Chautauqua tabernacle this evening. Deep interest is felt in this message, as it will contain the latest information regarding that phase of Christianity which is now attracting the most attention in religious circles.

The story of Ruth and Naomi was told last evening to the largest congregation which has yet gathered in the tabernacle, which it is predicted will be too small to hold the crowd that will assemble Sunday evening at the last meeting of the campaign. This final meeting will be a healing service, and those who desire to become subjects of divine power are reminded that they must attend one or more preparatory meetings before they will be given a card of admission to the healing line. Mrs. Price is holding these preparatory meetings each morning at 10 o'clock in Pioneer hall. The one yesterday morning was the largest yet, 70 cards being issued to seekers for relief from physical ills.

The healing service last evening was the most successful yet held in Ashland. Between 40 and 50 patients were annointed and prayed for, and nearly all were divinely healed. About two dozen more had to be turned away. Dr. Price's faith and strength being unable to stand a greater strain and secure best results. Half his time, when alone, is spent in thanking God and renewing his faith and spiritual strength.

Dr. Price took occasion to correct some misstatements which had been made regarding himself and his work, saying that under no circumstances would he accept money for praying for the sick. A $5 bill which was sent him in an unmarked envelope was forwarded to a missionary.

"Next to those who administer to the spiritual welfare of the people are the physicians who heal sick bodies," declared the evangelist. "God bless the doctors. They are accomplishing similar results to that which are sometimes obtained through prayer. There is plenty of work for all of us in this sinful and suffering world. Physicians are using some of the means which God has given us to relieve sickness and suffering, and therefore deserve our hearty support and co-operation. Many of them, including some Ashland physicians, pray for their patients."

In addition to the choir singing last evening, there was a number by a male chorus composed of Messrs. Tilton, Yeo, Barnhill, Stratton, Gilmore, Oldfield and Butterfield.

People from all parts of the Rogue River valley are attending the meetings, quite a number being present last evening from Grants Pass, including the pastor of the Baptist church, who was divinely healed, and has been praying for the success of the Ashland meetings. Others are coming from northern California and one patient was brought here from Roseburg.

A list is being compiled of all those who have been healed or helped during the meetings. Copies of this will be furnished to all the pastors of the city and one copy deposited in an Ashland bank for safe keeping and reference. The names of those who have been healed are not published without permission, but in Thursday's Tidings a number of instances will be given of Ashland people who have received divine relief from pain and disease.

Bend has prospects of another large mill.

COAL SHORTAGE BRINGS JOY TO CANADIAN FARMERS

RICHMOND, Quebec, Sept. 20.—Farmers having wood lots are enjoying unexpected prosperity these days, due to the coal shortage caused by the long coal strike in the American anthracite and bituminous fields. Prices of cord wood, cut to four-foot lengths, have gone up $3 per cord, and farmers are finding trouble getting sufficient help to supply the demand. The old price was $8 per cord, which, according to many producers, showed a fair profit.

Residents of Montreal and other Canadian cities, fearing inability to get coal to keep warm during the severe Canadian winter, are laying in large supplies.

ROBERT P. NEIL PIONEER OF CITY CALLED BY DEATH

Robert Procter Neil died near the midnight hour last night as the result of glandular trouble. He was 71 years old.

10-YEAR OLD GIRL IS RECUER OF ARMY MAN

NEWPORT, Or., Sept. 20.—Lieutenant S. Dahl, of Newport, owes his life to the bravery of Dorothy White, 10-year-old daughter of Adjutant General George A. White.

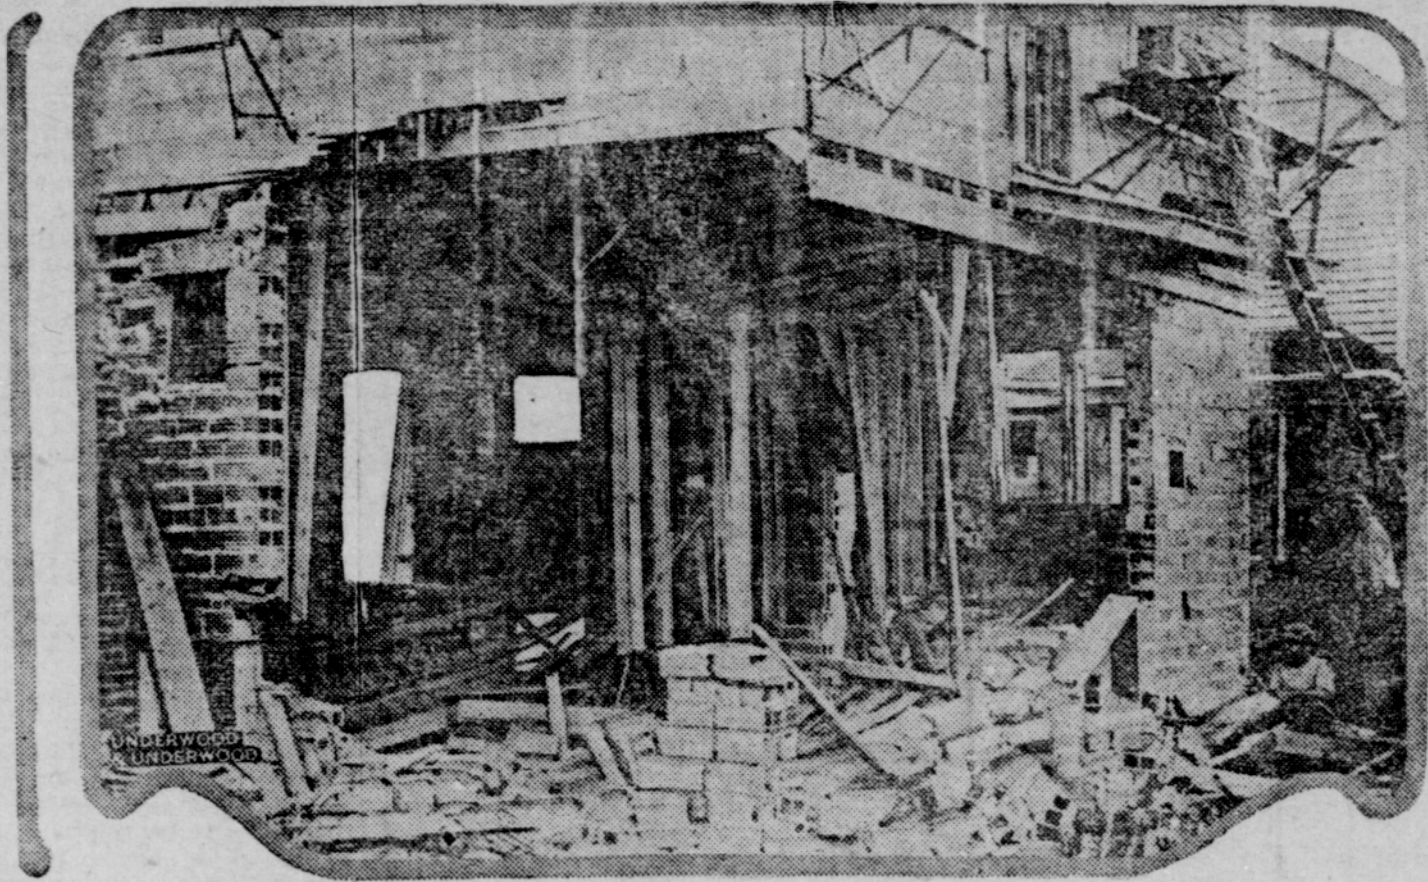

While General White and his family, accompanied by Lieutenant Dahl, were fishing on the Siletz river, Dorothy separated some distance down stream from the rest of the family, saw a man floating in the river. His head was under water and he was being carried along in the rap'd current. She called frantically for assistance, but receiving no response, she plunged waist deep into the swift running stream. Reaching the drowning man, she succeeded, after a desperate struggle in dragging him far enough ashore to get his head out of the water, just as General White reached the scene.

HARDING'S VETO IS HURDLED BY HOUSE OF REP.

PASSES SOLDIERS' BONUS BY MAJORITY VOTE OF 258 TO 54

ENEMIES IN SENATE WILL KILL MEASURE

No Hope Sustained Regarding Fate of Bill; Business Will Be Completed This Week; Congress to Return in November.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—By a vote of 44 to 28, the senate sustained President Harding's veto, killing the bonus bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Undeterred by President Harding's vigorous disapproval, as expressed in his veto message, the house of representatives passed the soldiers' bonus bill over the president's veto by a vote of 258 to 54.

The action of the house, however, is regarded as constituting little more than an empty hope, as the bill now goes to the senate, where the enemies of the bonus are stronger, and where Harding's veto will be sustained, undoubtedly—thus effectually killing the bill so far as the present session of congress is concerned.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—While congressional leaders are preparing to wind up legislation business of the present session, preparatory for adjournment before the end of the week, a tentative agreement was reached at the White House between President Harding and Representative Mondell and other house republican leaders, to have congress back in Washington by the middle of November to take up the administration's ship subsidy bill.

AIR BASE IS LEASED FOR $1 EACH YEAR

EUGENE, Sept. 20.—At a special meeting of the city council, Mayor C. O. Peterson and Recorder Alta King were authorized to lease to the government the municipal aviation field at a yearly rental of one dollar. This action will make the field a permanent base for the army airplane forest patrol.

While the lease will be only for a year, it is understood that the army is to have the privilege of renewal each season.

The lease of the land provides that the government may make such improvements as may be needed in conducting the forest fire patrol and the city reserves the right of permitting the use of the field for commercial airplanes and other local activities. The original document provided that the city shall keep the grounds in shape for aviation purposes but as this would entail considerable work and use of the city street equipment, and as the equipment is kept busy on the streets, it was voted to strike out this clause.

BOY INJURED WHEN HIT BY MACHINE

Raymond Hayes, small son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hayes, of this city, was hit by an auto late Tuesday evening when he stepped from behind another car parked at the curb and d'rectly in the path of a car being driven by a doctor of Hill, Calif.

The boy was knocked down and witnesses said that the wheels of the car passed over his lower limbs, although neither of them were broken. His head hit the pavement when he was knocked down, and he is suffering from this more than from the badly scratched and bruised hip, knee and ankle.

The accident was apparently one of the unavoidable type, as Officer Wertz investigated and found the doctor was not at fault.

Hood River.—$50.00 being spent improving the curves on the Columbia River highway.

BODIES OF NINE OF MINE'S DEAD STILL UNNAMED

JEWELRY AND PIPE AID IN ESTABLISHING VICTIM'S IDENTITY

FOREMAN ASSISTS IN WORK OF RECOGNITION

Tags Are Placed on Sacks Containing Remains of Each Dead Miner; District Attorney to Attend Coroner's Jury Today.

JACKSON, Calif., Sept. 24.—All but nine bodies which thus far have been removed from the Argonaut mine, out of a total of 47 lives snuffed out, have been identified.

Some were identified by jewelry. One identity was established by a pipe which was found in the remaining sack containing clothing.

The work of identifying the bodies was speeded with gruesome quickness. As each body was raised up in the skip in its canvas by a dozen men, the canvas was quickly opened to expose the face. The skip foreman looked at it and gave the name. A tag was placed on the canvas sack and the canvas quickly tied up and the body removed.

JACKSON, Calif., Sept. 20.—District Attorney T. G. Magrath, announced yesterday that he would attend personally the coroner's jury inquest over the bodies of the 47 miners gassed in the Argonaut mine for the purpose of making an investigation.

The coroner's jury is meeting today in the Jackson court house.

ASHLAND HIGH TO PLAY FIRST GAME FRIDAY, SEPT. 29

The first game of the season for the high school football team comes off Friday afternoon, September 29, when they meet the alumni in what promises to be a real contest.

Although Ashland held the state championship last year by virtue of wins over all teams in southern Oregon, and by the 38 to 7 walloping they handed Lebanon, the squad this year is but a shadow of the powerful aggregation that won last year's victories, as only three letter men are back.

Captain Rush, the big star of the team last year, is back and with Carleton and Hobson, form the nucleus around which Coach Hughes hopes to build another championship eleven. Although there are very few experienced men coming out, the turnout of new men is a feature of the season, as nearly 30 men have reported for practice so far, and will battle it out for regular berths.

The alumni contest is scheduled rather early in the season, but Coach Hughes says it is for practice purposes only, in order to find out how the new men stand up under real work.

The members of the alumni here are taking the game seriously, and say they are going to try to beat the high school men, as it has not been accomplished very often. Some of the football men of former Ashland teams who intend to get out are Delsman, Bryant, Guthrie, Anderson, Heer, Ross, Gregg, Fraser, Ramsey, Young, Dewes and many others, so the contest promises to be a real affair.

Probably two full alumni teams will be needed before the game is over, as the men are not in condition, and are usually good for about one half. The members of the alumni claim they have enough men for two teams though, and are doping out some "slicker" plays by which they will be able to slip something over.

The high school team is also confident of victory and is predicting a win, although they have been working together but a short time, because of the fact that they will have better team work and will be in better condition than the alumni.

The game is to be free to all spectators and will give the people a chance of seeing just what they have in the way of a football team this season.

WAR AVERTED, SAYS REPORT FROM PARIS

Allied Representatives Plan New Peace Conference; Turkish Envoy Declares Protectorate for Constantinople Not Acceptable.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The British foreign office has formally made it known that the British empire will not allow Mustapha Kemal Pasha, Turkish nationalist leader, to occupy Thrace, which is in Europe. It was also learned in official quarters, that General Harrington, commander of the British forces in the Near East, had received official instructions to defend the neutral zone along the Turkish straits.

Lord Curzon, British foreign secretary, who is here, is reported to have been instructed to arrange for an allied occupation of the Gallipoli peninsula, and for the withdrawal of allied troops from the Asiatic shores of the Turkish straits. This would be a concession to the Turks.

The Neil creek project was taken up and it was voted to have an engineer run the lines and see if it was feasible to bring the water from that creek into Ashland creek and to report the results as soon as possible.
