Fight now Narrows to Olcott and Pierce, the Latter Indorsed by Independent Candidate

GOVERNOR EXCEPT HIMSELF before the people of Oregon." ITICAL HONORS.

PORTLAND, Sept. 22.—Governor Olcott and Walter M. Pierce will fight it out between themselves in order to determine who will be the next governor of Oregon

Charles Hall, who was defeated by Olcott in the republican primaries and who recently filed as an independent candidate, withdrew today.

He has issued a statement which is a virtual endorsement of Pierce. Hall stated that "until the past week there was no candidate for governor other than myself who openly and boldly espoused the principles which originally caused me to IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES MARK John H. NEED FOR CONTINUANCE OF RE-VIVAL CAMPAIGN FELT STRONGLY

LOCAL WRITER PENS BRIDAL CALL REPORT

Extract of Meetings Here Are Given; Aimee Semple McPherson May Visit City in January; Few Sinners Found in Ashland.

The Price revival campaign will continue another week in Ashland, it was decided yesterday as a result of the strong demand for a prolongation of the meetings. A similar campaign is to be started at Watsonville, Calif., about October 10. Tentative plans have been made to have Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson and Dr. Price conduct a series of meetings at Seattle in January, stopping for a few days en route in

So many insistent requests have been received for similar meetings in various parts of the state that Dr. Price feels that Dregon is calling COMMANDER IN NEAR EAST IS him, although the work here is much more difficult than in California, and the visible results far less encouraging.
