Golf Found to Be Country's Newest Interest

Percy Wenrich, Composer, Finds Everyone Golfs

New York City.—Percy Wenrich, world famous as the composer of "Your Old Gray Bonnet," has discovered the "something new" for which every writer of popular songs yearns. Percy has composed melodies on every subject under the sun from "silver stars" to "tulips," but recently he was stumped for an idea. What he asked himself, was the public interested in that every hit writer in Tin Pan Alley had not taken a crack at.

After buzzing around Broadway and the Middle West Percy decided that the new interest of the country was golf. This he found to be no longer a banker's game, but the every-day sport of the so-called "middle class" from Maine to Florida. So, in collaboration with Frank McIntyre of vaudeville fame he wrote "The 19th Hole" in honor of the most interesting play of golf. "The 19th Hole," Percy explains for the benefit of the few that are not golfers, is located in the clubhouse and is often the real reason the tired business man takes to golf.
