

GREAT BRITAIN MODIFIES TONE TOWARD TURKEY

CONFERENCE SUGGESTED AND EXTENSION OF EVACUATION TIME GRANTED

KING CONSTANTINE IS SUCCEEDED BY PRINCE

Athens in Hands of Revolutionary Element Which Has Seized All Public Buildings; Betting Odds Favor Return of Peace.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 28.—General Harrington, British commander, acting upon instructions from London, has adopted a more conciliatory attitude towards the Turkish nationalists, and indications are that a clash in the Near East will be averted.

Harrington sent a note to Mustafa Kemal suggesting a conference, and extending the time in which the Turks are to evacuate the neutral zone. The British commander told the press he would not attack unless the Turks made some overt war move against the British.

So far, the Turks have contented themselves in occupying towns in the neutral zone where there are no British troops. They have undertaken no offensive against British soldiers. The city is calm, but much tension is in the atmosphere.

British officials admit the allies could not hope to save Constantinople if the Turks advanced upon the city and an uprising occurred here simultaneously.

ATHENS, Sept. 28.—Revolutionary troops have occupied Athens, and various government buildings have been seized. Soldiers and sailors are patrolling the streets. Prince George of Greece has accepted the Hellenic throne in succession of his father, former King Constantine, who abdicated as a result of the revolution.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—Official odds of seven to six have been laid by Lloyd's that there will be no war in the Near East.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 28.—The Turkish cavalry is reported to have advanced from Erenkeui towards Asmalitepe, apparently in an attempt to cut off the British advance post at Kepez. A British column, supported with artillery, has set out from Chanak and it is believed they are going to meet the Turks.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—The French cabinet has decided it would insist upon the transfer of Thrace to Turkey, despite the overthrow of the anti-French government at Athens. Thrace originally was awarded to Greece through the influence of the British.

REQUEST FLOWERS BE BROUGHT EARLY FRIDAY

Greens of any kind, and nothing but red flowers are wanted. These ladies deserve great credit for decorations heretofore, as the building platform has certainly been a bower of beauty. The color scheme this time is to be entirely of red and green.

X-RAY USED TO TELL AGE OF BOY PRISONER

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 28.—The X-ray was used Wednesday for the first time in the police annals of Cincinnati to determine the age of a prisoner, Allen Harris, a negro, who was arrested last week following the attempted robbery of a local jewelry store. He insisted that he was only 17 years old, though he had the appearance of being much older. So the juvenile court authorities ordered X-ray plates made of the prisoner's hands and other parts of the body, and, after comparing these with similar photographs of various ages, reported that Harris was no more than 17, and possibly no older than 16.

The uniform consists of low-heel black shoes, black stockings, dark blue or black skirts, and white middie.

This is the first time the high school has had a standard uniform for girls. Although this rule went into effect last spring, the uniform was not standardized, because of the lateness of the school year.

American Built Monorail Is a Success

A monorail system that is proving fully as practical as the celebrated foreign ones has been devised by the American Magnesium company to run between its mine in southern California and the nearest railroad, 32 miles away. Using a single track, mounted high on a wooden framework, and with balancing rollers on either side, the monorail track can be laid at trifling expense over any sort of country. In tests, the little engine carried as many as twenty people without a balk.

ALUMNI ARE READY FOR CONTEST WITH HI SCHOOL FRIDAY

The return to school of Clem Clark and Ellis Beeson greatly strengthens the high school chances of defeating the Alumni Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the first football game of the season for the local high school eleven. Clem Clark is a well-known star of the two past seasons, while Beeson was out last year.

The Alumni is also massing for the coming contest, and such men as "Clix" Delsman, "Deak" Bryant, Bill McMillan, Clyde Young, Al Guthrie, "Shy" Heer, Ray Clary, Ed. win Fraser, and many others have signified their intentions of going out in an attempt to beat the high schoolers.

Bill McMillan, who claims to be a cousin of "Bo" McMillan, of Central college fame, is one of the best punters ever seen in action in the valley and has often sent them out for 65 yards. "Deak" Bryant is well known as a quarterback, so the Alumni promises to have a strong aggregation.

The high school men, under the direction of Coach Hughes are rapidly rounding into shape, and scrimmages are being indulged in nightly now. The local school held the interscholastic state title in football last season, and bids fair to duplicate the stunt again this year.

The backfield seems to be especially strong, and unless unforeseen injuries lay out some of the men, will be the strongest seen in action in Ashland for several years. With Rush, Clark, Hobson, Beeson and others trying out, it is going to be a real job to make the team.

The line is also quite heavy for a high school team and should average 160 pounds if the men turn out and make the team. With Chapman and Leach as tackles, Dix and Carlon as guards, and Prescott or Moffit as center, the line promises well, while the ends will be picked from Wild, Woods, Robison and Wentner.

Practically all these men will be tried out against the Alumni in the game Saturday, as this game is more for the purpose of getting the new men used to a real game, than to see which team can make the most points. Both teams are out to win, however, and will spare no effort to put a winning aggregation on the field.

ASHLAND WEATHER PROSTY WITH THERMOMETER AT 32 1/2

Ashland experienced its coldest morning this fall today, with the thermometer showing a temperature of 32 1/2 degrees, and the lower parts of the city report a light frost, but it is thought it was not heavy enough to do any serious damage to tender vegetables.

While the sun was shining brightly in Ashland, reports from Medford say that the noon hour arrived without a sight of the heat-producer, as a heavy fog was in evidence from early morning, and had not entirely cleared away at 12 o'clock.

The pavement on the south side of the mountain will be completed in about 20 days, and an extra effort is being made to complete the work before the fall rains begin.

PRICE RETAINS STRENGTH FOR HEALING SICK

REMARKABLE POWER OF ENDURANCE EXHIBITED BY EVANGELIST

SPECIAL SERVICE HELD FOR ELDERLY PERSONS

Majority in Healing Line of 60 Not Affiliated with Any Denomination; Revivalist to Stop in Phoenix and Talent Today.

The services at the Chautauqua tabernacle yesterday were largely attended, as it was a healing convocation. And as a prelude, a piano solo by Prof. Andrews, the andante finale from Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor," left hand only, by Leschtzky, which was rendered in the same artistic technical manner displayed in his performance of the "Trinity Chimes," and other selections on different occasions of this campaign.

After prayer, led by Rev. McShane of the Nazarene church, Prof. Andrews sang a solo, "Follow Me," the choir joining between each verse in the chorus of "Where He leads me I will follow," in a very impressive manner.

The text for the afternoon was taken from Phillipians third chapter and 13th and 14th verses. Subject, "Three Secrets of a Christian Life." The first, "This one thing I do." The second, "Forgetting the things which are behind"; and third, "Pressing toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." The thought predominated that God does not save you in your sins, but from your sins.

The healing services were the most impressive of any yet held, from the fact that it was especially for the old people who could not get out at night, and out of the number of over 60 people in that healing line, over two-thirds of them did not belong to any church denomination anywhere.

As Dr. Price has said, over and over again, in this campaign, people have come to him to be prayed for, in every place he has been, just for a selfish motive, so they could better serve the devil. No one should think of coming to be healed for any purpose whatsoever, except as a living testimony for Jesus and His divine power.

The large audience that greeted Dr. Price at the evening services, were well repaid for their presence. "By request," the choir sang, the audience joining in, "I Know the Lord Laid His Hand on Me," with Dr. Price at one piano, Prof. Andrews at the other, and Russell Rothgeb as director, accompanied by the orchestra and bass drum. Dr. Price says he thinks this "by request" is a put-up job, as it is now a regular occurrence as soon as he enters the building.

The subject for the discourse of the evening was, "Come for All Things Are Now Ready," taken from Luke 14 and 16 to 19 included. In this case, each one invited to the great supper, had some excuse; and as Dr. Price relates the story, he impressed upon the great assembly, that we have no plausible excuse whatever for not being a Christian and coming to the Lord's table, which is loaded with bread from heaven, water of life, love of God, peace, joy, happiness and countless other blessings. Dr. Price likened the people of this world to a field with a high rail fence in the middle; the fat, well-fed sheep living on clover and the best in the land, being God's people, on one side; and on the other, the lean, half-starved for the word of God, catching glimpses through the fence, the rails of which are, figuratively speaking, worldliness, selfishness, sin, etc., which must be surmounted before they can reach the other side. Come and dine.

The healing service was so full of divine power that it was impossible to pray for all. Dr. Price announced that he had a hard day before him on the morrow at Medford, as he was to stop at Talent and Phoenix and conduct services on the way. He stated that in all his ministry he never had tried to hold more than one service of healing in one day, as he did yesterday; and only near the closing of campaigns had
