

Ashland Tidings
 Established 1876
 Published Every Evening Except Sunday
THE ASHLAND PRINTING CO.
 OFFICIAL CITY AND COUNTY PAPER
 TELEPHONE 39
 C. K. LOGAN, Editor

Entered at the Ashland, Oregon Postoffice as Second-class Mail Matter.

Subscription Price Delivered in City:
 One month $.65
 Three months 1.95
 Six months 3.75
 One year 7.50

Mail and Rural Routes
 One month $.65
 Three months 1.95
 Six months 3.50
 One year 6.50

ADVERTISING RATES
 Display Advertising
 Single Insertion, each inch 30c
 YEARLY CONTRACTS
 Display Advertising

One time a week 27 1/2c
 Two times a week 25 c
 Every other day 25 c

Local Readers
 Each line, each time 10c
 To run every other day for one month, each line, each time 7c

To run every issue for one month or more, each line, each time 5c

Classified Column
 One cent the word each time.
 To run every issue for one month or more, 1/2c the word each time.

Legal Rate
 First time, per 8-point line 10c
 Each subsequent time, per 8-point line 5c

Card of thanks $1.00
 Obituaries, the line 2 1/2c

Funeral Orders and Societies
 Advertising for fraternal orders or societies charging a regular initiation fee and dues, no discount. Religious and benevolent orders will be charged the regular rate for all advertising when an admission or other charge is made.

What Constitutes Advertising
 In order to allay a misunderstanding among some as to what constitutes news and what advertising, we print this very simple rule, which is used by newspapers to differentiate between them: "ALL future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection is taken IS ADVERTISING." This applies to organizations and societies of every kind as well as to individuals.

All reports of such activities after they have occurred is news.

All coming social or organization meetings of societies where no money contribution is solicited, initiation charged, or collection taken IS NEWS.

FIRE PREVENTION
 Many startling facts are given by Governor Olcott in his official proclamation designating the period from October 7 to 14 as Fire Prevention Week. According to the document issued, the national destruction of life and property has been mounting year by year, until the enormous sum of $485,000,000 is lost annually. In addition to the destruction of 48 lives daily, this is a wiping out of needed resources to the extent of $1,370,000 every 24 hours.

Losses from fire in Oregon during the five year period ending with 1920 totaled $10,395,286. In addition to these figures there have occurred a startling number of fires throughout the state this past season. Several towns have suffered from devastating conflagrations. Astoria, a short time ago, was the scene of a blaze that destroyed a sawmill at an estimated loss of one million of dollars.

In order that future occurrences such as these may not be visited upon the state, and in accordance to a national policy, the governor has issued the following:

"I, Ben W. Olcott, governor of the state of Oregon, by the authority in me vested, do designate and proclaim the period from October 7 to 14, 1922, as Fire Prevention Week, and I earnestly request that the proper city departments, co-operation with chambers of commerce and other civic organizations, shall arrange interesting and educational exercises, that will impress the importance of the occasion upon the public mind. I hope that every resident of the state will actively take part in the observance and that they will remove rubbish and litter and other hazards about their homes and places of business; that they will inaugurate the personal habit of carefulness. I ask that our churches by means of sermons and addresses, and the newspapers, by editorial mention, shall help to spread the doctrine of carefulness; that our schools shall adopt systematic instruction in fire prevention to the end that our state may be made a safer and better place in which to live.

"Only by arousing the public to the appalling situation created by our excessive fire waste can the evil be corrected."

Medford almost has the question of the county fair settled at last. Almost. While in Portland, S. S. Smith, newspaper man of Medford, states that "The Medford and southern Oregon fair, recently held, was so good that only the state fair will have a chance to surpass it." The state fair people are a little more

Smart men are slow about giving advice.

People you do the most for will eventually "do" you.

No one hears the word "damn" so often as the telephone girl.

Some men acquire fame by everlastingly discovering things that are not so.

When you distribute your confidence around too freely, you not only weaken it, but lose it, too.

Too much perfume on a girl leads to the suspicion that she is giving absent treatment to the bath-tub.

HEZ HECK SAYS:
 "No one succeeded yet in goin' clear through life hittin' on high."

honest. They give the first prize to Jackson county, and not Medford.

"Coffee Weak in Turkey" heralds a market report. Those poor mortals who are forced to look to restaurants for sustenance, know it is not necessary to travel that far to find the beverage in a similar condition.

It appears that the European situation is somewhat of a duplicate of Thanksgiving, when the Turk gets into Greece.

CARELESS HUNTER IS FINED AND COMMITTED TO JAIL
 KLAMATH FALLS, Sept. 28.—A fine of $500 and four months in jail was the penalty imposed in the justice court on J. Harry Hesse, 20, charged with hunting after sundown. Hesse shot and killed his companion, Emerson Fish, near the Kesterson Lumber company camp in the vicinity of Dorris, Sunday night, in the darkness mistaking him for a deer. Fish was 48 paces distant when Hesse fired the fatal shot, according to Marion Barnes, deputy game warden.

At the coroner's inquest, the verdict was that Fish met death "by means of a gunshot wound," and that Hesse was "guilty of negligence." Whether other charges will be preferred against Hesse was not made public.

Hesse pled guilty to the charge of night shooting and said he would not retain an attorney.

Wanted, women to work in fruit at Talent cannery. For particulars, phone 364-J1. 1tf

Our modern equipment enables us to clean and dye any article. Ashland Cleaning and Dyeing Works. Phone 63. 22tf

HOTEL PERSONAL MAY IDENTIFY BROTHER-IN-LAW

A hotel personal in a Portland paper may be responsible for the uniting of family ties severed several years ago.

Mrs. L. B. Minard, of this city, noticed the item telling of the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minard, of Marshfield, at a Portland hotel.

Fred Minard, it is the belief of Mrs. Minard, is the brother of her husband, now deceased, and from whom she has had no word for a great many years.

Several years ago Fred Minard left for Mexico, later returning to New Mexico, where all traces of him vanished. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Minard later moved to Canada, returning to the United States a few years ago. All attempts to locate the brother met with failure, as when he closed out his business affairs he left no forwarding address. Though having no reasons, Mrs. Minard has believed her brother-in-law dead, thinking it probable that he had enlisted during the world war.

She has written to Fred Minard at Marshfield, hoping to establish his identity, and telling him of the death of his brother.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

JACK HOLT AT THE VINING
 Born in Farquhar county, Virginia, the son of an Episcopal rector. His mother was a great great granddaughter of John Marshall, first chief justice of the United States. Studied in a military academy, then traveled extensively. Entered motion pictures in 1916, and has appeared in numerous Paramount productions. His recent star successes are "The Call of the North" and "North of the Rio Grande," in the latter of which he co-starred with Bebe Daniels. "The Man Unconquerable" is his second starring picture, which begins a three days run at the Vining tomorrow.

Do You Feel Tired After Eating?
 A tired, nervous feeling may be a sign of poisons in your system which prevent proper digestion. Food turns into more poison and gas, making you nervous and weak. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, expels poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowel. Removes old matter you never thought was in your system, which poisoned stomach and made you tired and nervous. Adlerika is EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. T. K. Bolton, Druggist. —3

Polk county was awarded second place, with a score of 984. Tillamook county third, with a score of 967, and Benton fourth, with 943.

Our modern equipment enables us to clean and dye any article. Ashland Cleaning and Dyeing Works. Phone 63. 22tf

SAYS CHRIST SAVED HIM

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to be shot in the Place Royale as a spy; but as the German officer was starting to blindfold his eyes, Christ—Doctor Benson says—suddenly stood between them, miraculously saving his life. He was expelled from the country by the Germans before sundown.

Dr. Samuel G. Benson, who is now at the Y. M. C. A. in Brussels for the purpose of holding a votive healing mission, and is organizing a world movement for the healing of sickness by prayer. He is the author of a war book entitled "Back From Hell," the result of his experiences as a relief worker in Belgium. Having resigned his parish in the United States, Doctor Benson went to Belgium as a relief worker in 1915. He was seized by the Germans because of his assistance to Belgian refugees. On Easter Wednesday, 1915, at 11:15 a. m., he was to