18 YEAR GIRL IS FATALLY SHOT BY LOCAL YOUTH

RUBY DOLLAR KILLED BY EARL BARNARD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

CORONER IN SESSION ENTIRE AFTERNOON

Investigation Being Made Into Affair by County Authorities; Report Will Exonerate or Implicate Boy That Was Responsible.

Ruby Dollar, an 18-year-old high school girl, was shot and almost instantly killed about 4 o'clock Friday afternoon by a revolver in the hands of Earl Barnard, the shooting taking place on the sidewalk in front of the Barnard residence, 1114 Iowa street.

According to the police, who were called to the scene a few minutes following the accident, young Barnard and the girl were playing in front of the house. He had in his possession a .32 calibre revolver, while she had an old model .38 calibre. In some manner Barnard pointed the gun in the direction of the girl and pulled the trigger. The bullet struck Miss Dollar in the center of her chest, causing death in a few minutes after she was carried into the house. The gun contained but one bullet.

Presumably the affair was an accident, though no particulars could be learned pending the report of the coroner's jury, that body being in session the entire afternoon today. What the two young people were doing with the revolvers, or where they obtained them, will not be known until the inquest is completed. An investigation of the shooting is being conducted by Rawles Moore, county prosecuting attorney, and John A. Perl, county coroner, both of Medford. All principles in the case, and others who might possibly shed any light upon the killing, were being questioned closely by the authorities.

Immediately after the shooting, word was sent to Miss Dollar's mother, who was at Tolo at the time. Miss Dollar was boarding at the Barnard residence while attending the Ashland high school. She has an aunt, Mrs. A. A. Rowley, in the city.

That Barnard accidentally shot and killed Ruby Dollar during a scuffle over the gun was the opinion of the coroner, after talking with the principals in the case for nearly four hours.

According to the story told by Barnard this afternoon, he was in a car and was busy cleaning the two guns when Miss Dollar and his brother came by. They stopped, and in the playful struggles, the girl was accidentally killed.

Following the dismissal of those most vitally interested, Coroner Perl and District Attorney Moore left for the scene of the accident, and stated that they desired to question several more who might be of assistance in the investigation.

Remarkable Afghan Hounds Owned by Englishman

This photo, just received from England, was taken in that country's only kennel of pure-bred Afghan hounds—that of Major G. Bell-Murray at Kirkpatrick. The Afghan hound is famous for its scent as well as for its speed. Although it is a "coursing" dog, like the equally-speedy greyhound, it does not depend on keenness of vision, as does that English breed, but follows a scent like a foxhound or a beagle. And it has greater strength and endurance than the greyhound and stands the cold better. It is probably the only dog that keeps its own breed pure.

WAR PLANS ARE CONTINUED BY ENGLISH GOVT.

EVANGELIST TO END CAMPAIGN SUNDAY NIGHT

THREE BIG SERVICES SCHEDULED FOR CLOSING REVIVAL MEETINGS

ALTER CALL OBEYED AT MEETING FRIDAY

Many Are Saved at Tabernacle Last Night; Several Visiting Pastors Occupy Chairs on Platform; Final Healing Service Tomorrow.

The services at the Chautauqua tabernacle, both yesterday afternoon and evening, were attended by a large concourse of people, many being present from out of town. The afternoon meeting was opened with song and testimony; dozens standing at the same moment waiting for an opportunity to speak. After this, Rev. Chaney, of the Methodist church, led in prayer.

Dr. Price spoke of the wonderful services conducted in Medford the day before, and the miraculous healings taking place before their eyes. He told of one lady who brought a child not right in its mind to be prayed for; and after praying for the second time, as against a stone wall, he turned to the lady and said, "Sister, there is something wrong here." On looking at her card, he found she was a spiritualist, and after he and his wife talked to her for a few minutes, the power struck both mother and child simultaneously, and the child was instantly healed. The mother realized for the first time that it takes the blood of Christ, applied, to forgive sins.

The text for the afternoon was taken from the fifth chapter of II Kings. The discourse was on Naaman, who was captain of the host of the king of Syria, but he was a leper. Through the influence of the little bondmaid of his wife, whom they had taken captive out of the land of Israel (which, by the way, teaches us that no one is too small or too insignificant to do service for the Lord). The king of Syria sent a letter to the king of Israel, and told him how he would send Naaman to be healed of his leprosy; and when the king of Israel received the letter, he rent his clothes and said "Am I God, to kill and make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy?" And when Elisha, the prophet, heard him, he sent to the king and said, "Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel." And when Naaman had come he sent a messenger and told him to "Go, wash in Jordan seven times." And Naaman was wroth, and said, "Why, could he not wash in the two rivers of Damascus; that their waters were better than all Israel." And he went away in a rage, but his servants prevailed upon him to try, saying that if Elisha had asked him some great thing to do, he would have done it, but not so simple a thing as to dip in the muddy waters of the river Jordan. So he went and dipped seven times, and his flesh became as a little child. So we are to do the simple things God wants us to do. Dr. Price says, "There is no dry cleaning in God's saving process."

The services closed with an altar call, to which so many responded that the altar around the platform was crowded with seekers, and the front seats besides.

The evening service was opened by singing, and the opening prayer was led by Rev. J. Angell, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Phoenix.

There were more ministers on the platform last night than any time during the campaign. Among which were E. P. Lawrence, J. R. Sasnett, J. King, all of Medford; Dr. Nichol, X-ray specialist of Dow hospital at Medford, and Joseph Angell of Phoenix, and J. S. Chaney, of Klamath Falls, who is now established here as pastor of the local Methodist church. "Steal Away" was sung as a solo by Miss Carvell and Prof. Andrews, alternating the verses, the choir joining in on the chorus, and was received with great applause, being rendered in a very touching and impressive manner.

Dr. Price prefaced his discourse without a text. Telling the story of a darky preacher, who, in speaking
