Fourth and A Streets,
Ashland, Oregon.

Dear Sir:
We have your letter of the 20th ordering some coupons and before entering this order, we thought it best to write you with reference to the strike that goes into effect on October 1. This was brought about by the workmen because the manufacturers refused to give them an advance in wages. The strike will close all of the potteries in this country and, of course, no one knows just how long these conditions may exist. However, just as soon as any changes are made we will be pleased to take this matter up with you. We regret very much indeed these conditions of affairs, but it seems that it could not be avoided.
Yours very truly,
THE FRENCH CHINA CO.

strangers in Language.
All men are strangers. There are no two men on earth who speak the same language. Each places his own individual meaning in his words. With the self-same words men talk of quite different things. And I cannot be certain how my words will be interpreted by him to whom they are addressed. That is the reason all aged people talk to themselves, it is the habit of a lifelong experience.—Mabel Johnson Leland's Translation of Arne Garborg's "The Lost Father."
