

WERTZ IS FIRED FROM FORCE BY MAYOR LAMKIN

OFFICER STATES NO REASONS FOR RELEASE HAVE BEEN GIVEN

RESIGNATION ASKED ONE WEEK AGO TODAY

Ousted Night Policeman in Quandry As to Nature of the Complaints Which Caused His Removal; Lamkin Out of Town.

One of the most puzzled and hurt men in the city today is Webster Wertz, night police officer, who was released from the police force through orders of Mayor C. B. Lamkin Monday night.

In a statement made this morning, Wertz denied any knowledge of the accusations which caused his removal from office. He declared that he had tried to learn from Mayor Lamkin the nature of the complaints but that he met with no success.

"I was informed a week ago," said Wertz, "that my resignation from the force would be acceptable. This I declined to sign, as I had no reason for so doing. I went to Mayor Lamkin and asked him the reasons for the resignation. He told me that pressure had been brought to bear from outside sources, and that he had become tired of receiving the continued complaints. As to my work Mayor Lamkin stated that it was in no way criticized and that as far as he knew there were no complaints against the manner in which I had performed my duties as night officer. I am entirely at a loss to understand the order. I could not get any satisfaction from the mayor."

Wertz has been a member of the police force for more than a year, and from all accounts has performed his duties in a very satisfactory manner. Men who have occasion to be out long after a majority of citizens have retired for the night, have always seen Wertz on duty. Railroad men, those who return from various dances, and hunters leaving the city at an early hour, have all noticed this, and have commented at various times upon his presence.

Every effort was made today to reach Mayor Lamkin in order that, in all justice, a statement might be made by both sides, but the mayor was out of the city during the morning, and did not return to Ashland until late this afternoon. Mr. Lamkin will be interviewed Wednesday, and his side of the question learned.

LADIES' ART CLUB GIVES PARTY MONDAY EVENING

The Ladies' Art club had a very enjoyable time at Pioneer hall Monday evening, a large number of the members coming dressed in Halloween costumes.

The prize costume of the evening was "Maggie" with Mrs. E. H. Bush playing the character to perfection. The clown costume worn by Mrs. Brown and the witch costume of Mrs. Barron were worthy of special mention, as was the dress of the '90s worn by Mrs. Gray and the special costumes of Mrs. Kinz and Mrs. Thornton were good. Several others appeared in various costumes of greater or less degree and many laughs were enjoyed as the result of the characters represented.

A two-course luncheon was served during the evening, the first course being grapes and the second course was taffy, the members being compelled to pull it themselves.

Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Jarvis left a few days ago for California, where they will spend the next two weeks on a vacation trip. They expect to return home about November 6.

"Last night (Oct. 19) we picked up a radio broadcasting station of your city about 9 o'clock, with a radio set owned by a neighbor."

"The reason of my writing is that I am a former Ashland boy, having left there in 1916, but as all Ashlandites, am still a strong booster. My father was Charley S. Johnson, now deceased. You probably remember him."
