"Organized labor will do everything in its power to get the people of Oregon to indorse the constitutional amendment which will permit Portaind to levy a special tax for the 1927 exposition, and organized labor will do all it possibly can to get the people of Portland to pass the tax measure."

This is the declaration of Otto Hartwig, president of the Oregon State Federation of Labor, and under his direction, a large committee has been formed to conduct an active campaign. These activities have been undertaken by organized labor, says Mr. Hartwig, because it feels short story writer, who is a familiar that general state development and figure to the people in the southern prosperity means continued employ- part of the state, is the author of ment of men in all lines of industry "The Snowshoe Trail" which is comand helps maintain good working ing to the Vining theatre. conditions, and that the 1927 expo- Marshall was formerly a student sition will be the means of bringing at the University of Oregon, and a Oregon's resources and advantages story is told of him by one of his and opportunities before the people professors, that he wasted so much of the United States in a forcible time during school that the professor HOUSANDS of people are learning that they cannot drink coffee or tea at supper time and get a good night's sleep.

Experience has taught these men and women to recognize that the caffeine in both coffee and tea is often responsible for a wakeful, restless night, and a nervous "next day."

If you have reason to believe that coffee or tea is causing your headaches, insomnia or nervousness, why not drink rich, refreshing Postum instead.

Postum is the delicious golden-brown cereal beverage that many former coffee-drinkers prefer for its satisfying flavor alone.

Ask your grocer today for Postum and begin serving this delicious beverage at meal times-and see how well you like it. Postum comes in two forms:-Instant Postum (in tins) prepared in-
