What Constitutes Advertising
 In order to allay a misunderstanding among some as to what constitutes news and what advertising, we print this very simple rule, which is used by newspapers to differentiate between them: "ALL future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection is taken IS ADVERTISING." This applies to organizations and societies of every kind as well as to individuals.

All reports of such activities after they have occurred is news.
 All coming social or organization meetings of societies where no money contribution is solicited, initiation charged, or collection taken IS NEWS.

 FEAR NOT—The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.—Nahum 1: 7.

WHO IS THE "COMPANY"?
 Several citizens lately have asked us to state who the "Company" is in the Briggs, Lamkin & Company political combination. To convey a full understanding of just what the political cabal is, who constitute it and its principal objects, as well as the relative importance of each of its members, we are glad to here catalog the main ones.
 Everybody understands that Briggs is the cunning political organizer—first in the limelight as political director of the Blake campaign. Now, Briggs stands more in the position, just as he did in the recent recall campaign, of a political manipulator and advocate in the Blake cause, but he is representative as well as personal in his advocacy. Towering over and above Briggs is E. V. Carter and J. W. McCoy, directing the game in order to perpetuate themselves as political dictators of the administrative policies of the Blake ticket, if they succeed in electing it. Briggs, so to speak, will turn the hand organ and Blake is expected to dance. The pieces to be played on the phonograph will be composed by Carter and McCoy, but played by Briggs.
 Lamkin is next in importance as a side light or satellite, so to speak. He is principally important for his cunning in lining up both the W. C. T. U. and the pool hall element, all for the same ticket. He is considered an adept at that. When it comes to being all things to all men in politics, he is considered the king bee, therefore the importance of his position in the cabal.
 Next comes Banta. Now when Banta hates, he hates to beat the deuce. When he wants he wants mighty bad. There are some fellows here who Banta dislikes very grievously. He is utterly against anything they stand for. Some of them are almost afraid to love the Lord for fear Banta will find it out and quit Him, and they feel that Banta needs a lot of saving grace. In the wanting line, many think Banta would like to be the next water commissioner, and we understand he has a good chance. At least, those who favor more meters and less water could conscientiously support him for such place.

 The next in line of importance is Mr. Finley. He is a candidate for the council on the Blake ticket and is now serving the unexpired term of Mr. Shinn. It is a mooted question, to some, as to why he was picked out for the place. By some it is thought that his liberal donations to public enterprises, in the past, qualifies him, while others declare that if his name has ever appeared as a contributor to anything they have never been able to find it; that if he practices as fine economy on the council as he does in his private affairs that it is questionable whether even the city salary list will ever get by the council, except, of course, the pittance paid to councilmen. Some think that if he is elected he should be put at the head of the finance committee because, although they cannot find where he has ever made any money, he has proven a bear for keeping it, and if Banta shows too much anxiety for meters to put on the small producers, he will see to it that he does not pay the exorbitant price necessary to get them through a local dealer, but will see that he takes advantage of the glittering savings offered by Sears & Sawbuck, who, by the way, pay most of the Ashland taxes and contribute so generously to our public enterprises.
 There are a few others, of course, but they are the lesser lights—the followers, so to speak—who grow enthusiastic over anything their heroes advocate, without ever stopping to give it the once over.

THE JESSE WINBURN DINNER
 The dinner tendered Jesse Winburn by his Ashland friends Saturday night was a success from every angle. We wish every member of the Women's Civic club could have been present, as well as many other friends of the guest, but the limit of comfortable accommodations prevented that.
 It was fitting that the ladies of the Civic club tender the building for the purpose. Jesse Winburn made it possible for them to complete one of the finest women's club houses in the state and thus they indicated their gratitude for his splendid gifts. And it was likewise fitting that the first function to be given in the club house should be a tribute to the man who was its best patron and through whose generous and unselfish spirit the work was permitted to go forward.
 It is the hope of the Tidings that, after the building has been entirely finished and furnished, and after it has been formally dedicated for its public purposes, the Civic club, as a body, will tender a dinner to Mr. Winburn, at which every member will be present to felicitate with him as they will all wish to do, on the splendid accomplishment.

LOOMIS PLATFORM
 Being a candidate for mayor of Ashland, I make the following statement of the policies I stand for, and the position I take on the issues of the campaign:
 The first consideration of a city should be the health of its people, I am, therefore, in favor of taking every precaution to protect the water of Ashland creek from pollution. It must be kept pure.
 I believe in the enforcement of the laws, particularly those against gambling and bootlegging.
 I am opposed to factions in Ashland, and promise, if elected, to be the mayor for all the people, rather than for a part of them. My slogan is this: "The way to get action is to unite every faction."
 I am in favor of the new hotel project. We have the scenery, the climate, the soil and the people—everything here except a modern hotel to attract newcomers. Let's get that hotel!

I am proud of Ashland's fine reputation everywhere in the matter of schools and education, and I favor any suitable action looking towards the re-opening of the normal school.
 I am in favor of having all offices and all positions on the city's payroll filled by citizens and taxpayers of Ashland itself. No outside place-holders!

I believe that when the people vote in favor of anything they should get it, and I am opposed to all forms of trickery, particularly the so-called "jokers" that are often used to deceive the voters. I believe that being on the level is the highest form of American citizenship.
 The present water supply for Ashland is inadequate, and I favor taking immediate steps toward increasing the supply through such measures as the people may adopt.
 I believe the mayor and city council should give their moral influence and support to all practical projects for profitably utilizing the fruits and vegetables of this community. At present, thousands of dollars worth of local products go to waste for lack of canning and preserving facilities.
 On these principles I ask to be judged.
 (Signed) CHARLES L. LOOMIS.

HALLOWEEN
 'Tis Halloween, 'tis Halloween,
 The night that Goblins reign supreme;
 When Witches croon, and Fairies dance,
 And black cats prowl, with looks askance.

'Tis Halloween, 'tis Halloween,
 All lights are out, or dimly seen
 Through pumpkin faces large and weird,
 Or lamps well blacked or much be-smear'd.

'Tis Halloween, 'tis Halloween,
 When "Ghosts" stalk 'round with awful mien,
 Frightening people half to death,
 Folks run from them 'till out of breath.

'Tis Halloween, 'tis Halloween,
 Youth walks abroad with tricks so mean,
 Yet, on this night of noise and fun,
 Few punish them for mischief done.

'Tis Halloween, 'tis Halloween,
 When grown-ups play, and dance and scream
 At childish pranks, with laughter gay
 They while, the merry hours away.

'Tis Halloween, 'tis Halloween,
 Right merry be, and let us dream
 Of fairies dancing 'neath the moon;
 Let's wish, let's play, the night's o'er soon.

NATURE TELLS YOU
 As Many An Ashland Reader Knows Too Well
 When the kidneys are weak, Nature tells you about it. The urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passages.
 Other disorders suggest kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys.
 Ashland people testify to their worth.
 E. Carlon, 159 Helman street, Ashland, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills for attacks of kidney trouble. My back was so weak and lame I could hardly stoop or lift anything and I felt dull and run down. The action of my kidneys was irregular too, but Doan's Kidney Pills soon fixed me up in good shape. The aches and pains left and I felt better in every way."

CLINGS TO HIS THRONE

It has been reported that the Turkish nationalists wish Sultan Mohammed VI to abdicate in favor of his cousin, Abdul Madjid Effendi. In a letter to an intimate friend, the sultan has just declared: "I shall continue to discharge my holy duties to the end. When the nationalists enter Constantinople I shall have something to say to them."

A Gentleman.
 "He's a gentleman of the old school."
 "That so?"
 "Yes; whenever he calls for you in his car he doesn't sit at the wheel and honk his horn, but gets out and comes to the door and rings the bell."

Modified Sentiment.
 "Do you believe that to the victors belong the spoils?"
 "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum; always allowing for the possibility that I may hit an off year; in which event I am strong for civil service protection."

Fill with "RED CROWN" and nothing else

Motorists who follow this rule in their gasoline buying find that they not only save money—because "Red Crown" yields more per gallon mileage—but improve the power and stamina of the motor.

"Red Crown" enables your car to develop the maximum of power that its makers built into it. It vaporizes rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor, and is consumed completely in the cylinders. Uniform wherever and whenever you buy it—hence you don't have to bother with carburetor adjustments.

Fill at the Red Crown sign—at Service Stations, garages, and other dealers.

JUDGE CALKINS WILL SUPPORT KELLY

The Independent American Voters League is composed of men and women, some of whom are lifelong Republicans and Democrats. They have realized that one of the most important issues in this campaign is the election of a Circuit Judge. They feel that the Judge of the Circuit Court and those lawyers practicing in that Court are qualified to know who should be elected Judge in this campaign. There is certainly no clearer, abler, better Judge than Judge Calkins. This League is in receipt of his written statement to you as to his position upon this matter and it is also in possession of the indorsement of the majority of the Bar of both Jackson and Josephine Counties. It therefore submits to you these two separate indorsements as follows:

"FRANK M. CALKINS
 "Circuit Judge
 "Medford, Oregon, October 30, 1922.

"To the Voters:
 "In response to the request of a majority of the practicing attorneys of this district that I state my views, will say that, in accord with my best judgment, I intend to vote for E. E. Kelly for Circuit Judge."
 "F. M. CALKINS."

"As lawyers practicing at the Jackson and Josephine County Bar, we indorse E. E. Kelly for Circuit Judge, having the utmost confidence in his honesty, integrity, ability and fitness. We believe the office should be non-partisan, and we urge those having confidence in our judgment on this question to do what they can in his behalf.

Jackson County
 "PORTER J. NEFF. "MAHLON PURDIN. "GUS NEWBURY.
 "A. E. REAMES. "F. J. NEWMAN. "N. DICKEY.
 "WM. M. COLVIG. "LINCOLN McCORMACK "E. F. LINDAS.
 "G. M. ROBERTS. "DON R. NEBURY.
 "CHAS. W. REAMES. "RAWLES MOORE.

Josephine County
 "NIEL R. ALLEN. "JAMES T. CHINNOCK. "H. D. NORTON.
 "O. S. BLANCHARD. "C. A. SIDLER. "J. N. JOHNSTON.
 "G. W. COLVIG. "GEORGE H. DURHAM. "EDWARD VAN DYKE.
 "A. C. HOUGH. "C. E. RUSK.

It likewise urges upon you the necessity of electing Alice E. Hanley as Representative instead of Ralph Cowgill. Miss Hanley is a farmer, has during all of her life made a business success of her farm, is determined to do what she can on the side of economy and to lower taxes, and to uphold constitutional government. We submit that she is entitled to your enthusiastic support.

This League likewise has indorsed George W. Dunn for State Senator, because of his worth and sterling qualities and his superior qualifications over those of his opponent.
 And this League has likewise indorsed Governor Olcott for re-election. And the League pledges the voters that in its councils made up of all parties it has carefully considered the making of these recommendations, and it asks the support of the public without regard to politics. And it asks this in the name of clean, respectable and effective government and administration of all laws.

Respectfully submitted,
INDEPENDENT AMERICAN VOTERS LEAGUE.
