LOOMIS ELECTED OVER BLAKE BY HUGE MAJORITY

1670 VOTES ARE CAST; DOCTOR IS BEATEN IN HIS OWN PRECINCT

PIERCE AND THOMAS FAVORITES OF VOTERS

One of the heaviest votes in the history of Ashland is recorded; Eubanks Wins by 79 Over Patterson for Treasurer.

Featured by an exceptionally heavy vote, the municipal election resulted in the landslide election of Charley Loomis, progressive candidate for mayor by a majority of 344 over his opponent, Dr. W. E. Blake, who failed to carry his own precinct by 14 votes. Loomis received 1007 and Blake 663. Approximately 1700 ballots were cast Tuesday, out of a registration of nearly 2000. An unusually large number of people were sworn in at the voting places.

With six to be selected for positions on the city council from a field of 12 candidates, great interest was shown regarding these offices, which resulted in the election of Dr. R. L. Burdick, 1049; S. A. Peters Sr., 987; M. C. Linsinger, 923; H. G. Wolcott, 865; C. H. Pierce, 846; Mrs. W. M. Barber, 779.

G. G. Eubanks carried by 79 votes over Sylvester Patterson for treasurer. Gertrude Biede received 1408 votes for city recorder. In a majority of cases where there was no opponent, the vote was light and is not given here.

Second to the city election in interest to the general public was the county candidates. C. M. Thomas received a majority of 888 over E. E. Kelly in seven precincts, in the race for circuit judge for Jackson and Josephine counties.

Other county officials voted upon in Ashland, and the outcome of the vote, are: George Dunn, 923; Newton W. Borden 431; John Riggs, 732; J. H. Carkin, 693; Ralph Cowgill, 578; Miss Alice Hanley, 473.

Some opposition was met with by the proposed road bond issue of $100,000, to build a highway to connect with the Klamath county highway, thus opening a complete highway through to Klamath Falls from Ashland, and to construct a bridge on the Pacific highway near Gold Hill. The measure carried 817 to 531 in seven precincts.

The policy of opening up Ashland canyon and watershed to further extension of roads and scenic drives, with strict camping and picknicking prohibitions, was voted "no" by a majority of 257. A total of 1425 votes were cast.

Park commissioners will be W. H. McNair, 1357; A. C. Ninsinger, 826; Stella Case Wagner, 1257. G. S. Butler received 538.

Votes for constable were scattered between J. W. Hatcher, Webster Wertz and Roy Hale. Ruggler and Gowdy were mentioned. Hatcher received a substantial majority.

Results on other state officers were: Hoff leading Tou Velle for state treasurer by a large majority. Churchill went better than 2 to 1 for superintendent of public instruction over S. S. George. Gram had a big lead over Hansen for labor commissioner, with Campbell leading in his race for public service commissioner.

Measures 300 and 302, amendments permitting Linn and Benton counties to pay out standing warrants, carried. The single tax amendment lost 2 to 1. The 1927 exposition measure carried. The income tax amendment was snowed under.

Vote for mayor by precincts was as follows:

IRISH COLLEENS ARE LOSING BEAUTY, SAYS DUBLIN "SPECIALIST"

DUBLIN, Nov. 8.—Irish colleens are losing their beauty. This was the view expressed by a famous beauty specialist in Dublin.

"The girls of Dublin and other cities in Ireland are not nearly so pretty as they were eight or ten years ago," he told an International News correspondent in an interview. "Their eyes have not the same lustre, and their cheeks have lost that wonderful Irish complexion, and their carriage is not nearly so attractive as it used to be. However, the outline of the features is just as good as ever it was."

COUNTY CAPTURES SWEEPSTAKES FOR APPLES, PORTLAND

In competition with the best fruit raising districts of the northwest, including Hood River, Wenatchee, Yakima and other apple sections, Jackson county won the sweepstakes for a box of Spitz apples, and first prize on the same variety at the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland.

Contenders that southern Oregon is chiefly a pear raising section and cannot produce the best varieties of apples, where color is a material item in judging the fruit, are definitely refuted by the awards made.

Other awards were captured by Jackson county fruit, for in four other classes, the blue ribbon was pinned on local apples, while first premium was given on six classes of pears.

ASHLAND APPLES WIN AT MEDFORD

Ashland apples captured a fair portion of the awards at the Second Annual Rogue River Valley Apple show, held in Medford. Considering that there was only a one-third crop of the fruit this year, the number of contenders was under those of last year, though the quality of the fruit exhibited was very high.

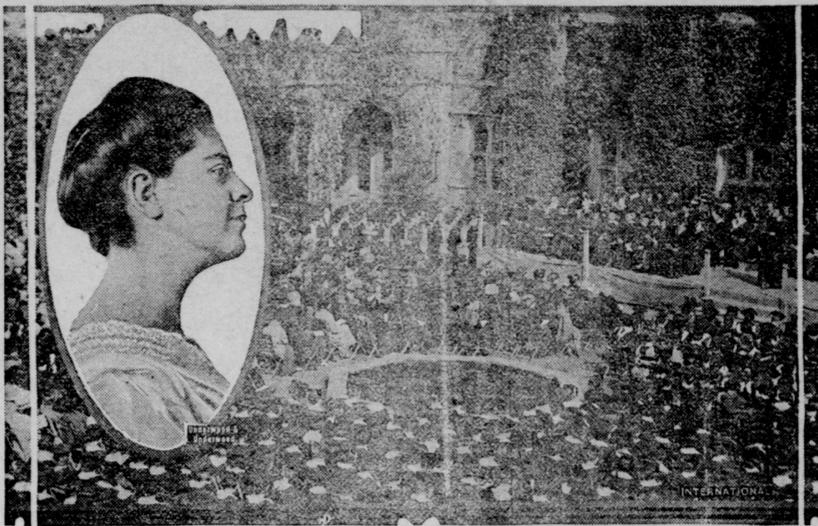

Local people whose fruit took prizes are: Boxes, Spitzbergers, Mrs. R. A. McCollister, first and fourth; T. S. Wiley, fifth. Newtowns—T. S. Wiley, second. Delicious—T. S. Wiley, first and second. Three-box entries—T. S. Wiley, second. Prize entries, Delicious—T. S. Wiley, second.

The fruit awarded first prize, grown by Mrs. McCollister, was entered by Court Hall, Medford.

Student Authors At "Oregon" Have Works Published

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Four students who were enrolled in the short story course at the University of Oregon, conducted by Prof. W. F. G. Thatcher, wrote stories during the past summer that were accepted by fiction magazines of national circulation.

"Standing By," written by Lillian Auld, Eugene, was published in a recent issue of Leslies. In the story the principal characters are involved in a court action, and the author of the story obtained material from the fictional account from court records on file in Benton county.

Mary Lou Burton, a senior in the school of journalism, is the author of "Others' Brothers," which appeared in the Youth's Companion for September 21, last. Another of Miss Burton's stories, "Cheerful," was published in the Black Cat for May.

Ernest J. Haycox, Portland, a senior in the school of journalism, sold two stories, "The Corporal's Story" and "Three Wise Men" to the Overland, and "The Trap Lifters," "Over the Straits," "The Storm Raider," and "Leeward of Storm Isle" to Sea Stories. Sydney Thornbury, Portland, wrote a story in his freshman year, which he sold to the Black Cat. It was called "The Gold Fish."

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS WILL SEE ALL GAMES

Interscholastic track meets and basketball games were granted O. A. C. and the University of Oregon at the last meeting of the Pacific coast conference.

These events are to alternate between the two institutions in such a manner that the track meet will be at Oregon one year and O. A. C. the next. Inasmuch that Oregon was granted special permission by the conference last year to hold the track meet, it was decided to give it to O. A. C., the present year. Oregon will hold the basketball games.

High school students, who otherwise would not have an opportunity to see the institutions may in this way see just what the schools have to offer in the courses given, according to members of the student body, who are interested in this work.

EARLY RETURNS SURPRISES IN SEVERAL CASES

JOHNSON AND RICHARDSON WIN IN CALIFORNIA BY LARGE MAJORITY

NEVADA AND ARIZONA VOTE STRAIGHT TICKET

Democratic Party Getting Stronger; Lodge in Massachusetts, Reed in Missouri, Dill in Washington, All Lead Opponents in Election.

Returns from the state give Walter M. Pierce, of La Grande, a substantial majority over Ben W. Olcott in the gubernatorial contest, while there is no doubt of the success of the compulsory school bill.

From various portions of the nation, political landslides are reported, an exceptionally heavy majority vote being cast in the state to the south. Two other western states took the democratic ticket straight, Nevada and Arizona.

Following are some of the earliest returns:

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Johnson defeated Pearson by a 300,000 majority for senator. Richardson defeated Woolwine for governor by 200,000.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Lodge is re-elected over Gaston by 1800 majority.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 8.—The entire democratic ticket is elected.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 8.—The entire democratic ticket is elected.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—Early returns indicate that Senator Reed will be re-elected by a plurality of 50,000.

SEATTLE, Nov. 8.—Dill is leading Poindexter in the race for United States senator by a 3500 majority.

ENGINE CREW DEAD IN G. N. DERAILING

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 8.—Engineer Brown and Fireman Johnson were killed when a Great Northern fast mail, westbound, was derailed two miles east of Gold Bar. Engineer Maynott and the fireman of the helper engine were injured.

CHANNEL ISLANDERS WRATHY: OBJECT TO PLANS OF NEW LORD

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Inhabitants of two tiny Channel islands, Herm, area 320 acres, and Jethou, area 44 acres—are up in arms against the conduct of their new laird—Compton Mackenzie, famous novelist.

They have been believing that he intends to close the islands to their ordinary summer visitors and instead erect a casino for his own friends.

The inhabitants of the little channel islands still regard themselves as independent of Great Britain. They still have their own governor, laws and curious language.

DEMOCRATS HIT G.O.P. RANKS AN AWFUL WALLOP

PRESENT MAJORITY IN SENATE MAY BE DECREASED 50 PER CENT

REPUBLICAN PARTY MAY KEEP CONTROL

Eleven States Send Returns Indicating 70 New Faces Will Appear in House; Scattering States May Increase This Number.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—On the basis of returns at noon today it is fairly certain that the republican majority in the senate will be reduced to 12 and possibly 10, as compared with the present majority of 24.

Republican senatorial defeats were suffered in New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, Indiana and probably North Dakota. Democrats lost only two sitting senators, Hitchcock of Nebraska and Pomerene of Ohio.

In the house, the present overwhelming republican majority of 169 is cut almost to the vanishing point and may conceivably be controlled by either party. The belief prevailed however that in the final tabulations, the republicans will maintain control by a small margin.

The magnitude of the democratic gains can be judged by returns from centers which went overwhelmingly republican two years ago. On the face of the returns, democrats gained 15 seats in New York, 7 in New Jersey, 8 in Pennsylvania, 12 in Missouri, 2 in Kansas, 3 in Tennessee, 4 in West Virginia, 8 in Ohio, 5 in Indiana, 4 in Oklahoma, 2 in Nebraska, and a scattering in other states.

PORTLAND TO SPEED UP MAIL ORDER WORK

PORTLAND, Nov. 8.—In order to prepare a bulletin containing the best suggestions for the expeditious handling of mail in business houses and factories, Hubert M. Work, postmaster general, has issued a request to all such firms asking for a description of their mail room facilities and practices. He is interested in learning all short cuts to speedy preparation of material for the mails.

What is done to keep posted on mail schedules, to insure early mailing and proper connections, filing of indemnity claims, methods of preparing valuable or fragile matter, correct addressing checks, are some of the questions he asked.

He urged all mail order houses to secure instructions from the local postmaster for proper packing, wrapping and addressing parcels.

Answers are to be studied and the best suggestions incorporated into a practical bulletin for general use.

MOVIE COLONY GOES TO UTAH FOR WORK

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—If you want to see the movies made, don't come to Hollywood, go to Utah.

They won't let you in Hollywood studios without special permission, because visitors interfere with work. But up in Utah at Camp Cruz, where visitors are the scarcest thing in the world, you would be welcomed by a party of the picture folk "out on location."

The film company is taking scenes for the western epic, "The Covered Wagon," by Emerson Hough, and includes such film celebrities as Lois Wilson, J. Warren Kerrigan, Alan Hale, Charles Ogle, Edith Wales and Tully Marshall.

The camp is near the town of Milford, and is now a regular studio. Sunday is official visitors' day at Camp Cruz.

INDICTMENTS ARE EXPECTED IN HALL MURDER CASE SOON

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 8.—

Mrs. Frances N. Hall, widow of Rev. Edward W. Hall, who was murdered with Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills nearly eight weeks ago, expects to be indicted by the Somerset county grand jury late this week on a charge of first degree murder, it was said at her home today.

Two men were expected to be indicted with Mrs. Hall. One, according to present indications, will be indicted as an accessory after the fact, charged with withholding evidence which would in all probability have simplified the solving of the double murder. Henry Stevens, a brother of Mrs. Hall, plans to force authorities to "show their hand," shortly by leaving on a tour around the world, his wife announced yesterday.

GAME AT MEDFORD AROUSES INTEREST

With the biggest game of the season three days in the future, every energy is being bent to the utmost by members of the Ashland high school football team to get into the best possible condition for the Armistice day game with Medford.

Many of the alumni, former stars on the local gridiron, are out at night lending whatever assistance they can to Walter Hughes, coach. Practically every high school man that is able to, has donned mole-skins and offered his services to provide material for scrimmages.

Ashland's prospects are brighter today for a victory than they have been in the past. Neither of the two teams that will meet Saturday have been defeated this year. Comparative scores seem to give a slight edge to Medford, though the local aggregation run up a larger score on Grants Pass than did Medford.

In order to stimulate interest, a huge rally is being planned for the night previous to the game. Practically all the student body, in addition to a great many city people, are making arrangements to see the game Saturday.
