G. P. MAN SPENDS LITTLE

Total expenditure of $7132.25 was made by Jesse Winburn during the In competition with 23 school recent campaign, according to the judging teams, under the guidance expense account filed with the secretary of state by Bert Moses. Of this amount, $5000 was contributed to the campaign of Walter M. Pierce, and the remainder spent in opposing the compulsory school measure. Included in the account filed by Mr. Moses was $2138.02, contributed by Frank J. Streibig Jr., in support of Mr. Pierce.

One of the lowest expense accounts filed was that of Theodore P. Cramer Jr., of Grants Pass, republican candidate for representative, first district.
