HARDING LEADS FIGHT FOR SHIP SUBSIDY BILL

PERSONAL CONTACT DEPENDED UPON TO WIN APPROVAL OF CONGRESS

SUCCESS OF MEASURE INDICATED FROM POLL

Supporters Not Pleased with Scant Majority; Mrs. Felton, First Woman Senator, Makes Maing Speech; Senator George Is Sworn In.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—President Harding today launched his hardest battle, to jam the ship subsidy bill through a congress which is none too willing, although not downright hostile. The president assumed personal command of the fight. He will seek to win wavering congressmen by personal contact.

The cold dollar and cents arguments are believed to have gained votes for the bill, advisers say. A poll indicates that the bill will pass the house by a majority of 30. Supporters are not entirely pleased with the slim majority.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Felton, the first woman senator, spoke to the senate today. There was profound silence as the little woman called herself "a remnant of the old south."

Her voice was firm as she finished her speech, which was warmly applauded. Senator George, of Georgia, was sworn in to fill the vacancy of the late Senator Watson.

IRRIGATION BONDS WILL BE VOTED BY BEND, DEC. 23

BEND, Or., Nov. 22.—Issuance of $40,000 in bonds by the Snow Creek irrigation district will be voted on at an election set for December 23. Enlarging and rebuilding parts of the system, including repairs and additions to the dam to increase the water supply, are planned.

YOUTHFUL BANDITS ARE UNDER ARREST

Two of the lads when captured had an automobile which they had stolen from William Luoma and taken for a joy ride. They were intoxicated at the time and informed the officers they procured the liquor from George Mice, who has also been arrested.

YALE GRADUATE IS GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY PRISONS

PORTLAND, Nov. 22.—E. Lenehan, a Yale graduate, has secured his long sought chance to study pathology in a federal prison. He was sentenced today to 18 months in Leavenworth for stealing an automobile.

He asked the court to send him to prison rather than to the county jail so that he can better study prison pathology. He graduated from Yale in 1916, and obtained an M. D. degree at Middlesex in 1921.

COUNCIL MEETING TUESDAY EVENING PROVES VERY TAME

The regular session of the city council was held last evening at the city hall, with only sufficient members present to make a quorum, as Councilman Findley was in Portland and Mr. Frost is on the sick list.

Regular routine work was taken up and disposed of during the evening, among which was the following: Various matters in regard to paving were taken up, as was the bill of Frank Jordan for doing certain paving work for the city. The work of Mr. Jordan had been examined previously, and a motion to allow the bills as presented was passed.

Superintendent of Water Hoeler turned in requisitions for water mains and other supplies for the water department to the amount of $507.33, which was ordered by the unanimous vote of the council.

City Attorney Briggs presented a bill for $50 for representing the city in the circuit court in the case of the City of Ashland vs. Jesse Winburn. The amount was ordered paid.

The ladies of the Civic Improvement club in a petition signed by about 20 ladies of the organization, asked that the new club house be given free water and electricity by the city, and upon consideration, it was decided to allow the request, but upon further investigation and after having asked Mr. Easterling, of the electric department, for a statement in regard to the probable amount of current that would be used and being told that with the wiring that had been installed and the amount of electrical equipment that could be installed, the amount might run as high as $180 per month, if an effort was made to heat the building with electricity, the members of the council immediately decided that a different course would have to be pursued. Other plans were discussed, but the one finally decided upon was to give free water and free lights during the months when the minimum amount of electricity as supplied by the California Oregon Power company was not used, and to give the electricity during the other months at the cost at the sub-station, which is very generous of the city, considering the fact that the light department has run several thousand dollars behind during the past five years.

The Army also asked for free lights on account of the company having such hard times, and in consideration of the fact that the company is now badly in need of help, it was given the same concessions as the club house, which will be considerable help to the company.

The city attorney was instructed to draw up a new ordinance and to make certain changes in regard to the limits of the fire zone in regard to Fourth street, taking out of the zone that portion of Fourth street beginning at the first alley south of B street and on the west side of Fourth street, and running south to C street. This section is all residential and under the past existing circumstances it has been impossible for the properties to be repaired as buildings inside the fire zone cannot be constructed or repaired with wood. This will release these citizens of this portion of the street from the restriction and it is hoped will result in some needed improvements.

Mayor Lamkin stated that Jesse Winburn had asked permission to build a barn at the hospital, and on motion, the matter was referred to the sanitary committee to investigate.

The city recorder was directed to

IVORY TUSK FOUND IN PILE OF WOOD

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 22.—A peculiar "stick" discovered by Curran Turbance, of Corvallis, in his basement woodpile has been identified as part of the tusk of a prehistoric elephant by Dr. John B. Horner, director of Oregon historical research in Oregon Agricultural college.

The stick is round, 3 1/2 inches in thickness, 13 inches long, and had been sawed off at both ends, indicating that there are at least two more pieces of the same kind. It was at first mistaken for petrified wood.

When examined by college authorities, the substance was found to be neither wood nor stone. Upon being exposed to heat, it emitted an odor which clearly proved that it was not of vegetable origin, but was composed of animal matter—a fine piece of well-preserved ivory.

Bond, superintendent of the Oregon, California and Eastern railroad, of Klamath Falls, Tuesday let a contract to Seattle people for the grading and extension of the railroad from its present terminus at Hildebrand to Sprague river. Under a contract with the city of Klamath Falls, the project must be completed as far as Sprague river by May 29. The contractors are planning on putting on a crew of nearly 300 men and rush the work. The contract for this section of the railroad calls for an expenditure of $175,000.

CORRECT ADDRESS URGED BY KAISER

The organization of the national postal service for the handling of the Christmas holiday rush is going steadily along between the departments and the various agencies involved, according to Postmaster E. J. Kaiser.

"The patrons of the Ashland post office can help matters greatly if each will look over the mail addressed to them and make a note if these correspondents and firms are addressing them completely and properly," declared Postmaster Kaiser today. "Then locate those that provide either wrong or incomplete address and impress upon them the necessity of addressing accordingly. Remind them that Ashland is not a small town where everybody knows all about everybody's else affairs, but that it is a town and vicinity of 6000 residents, with a continuous transient population that runs into the thousands, not counting the thousands of tourists during the summer motor season."

"There never was a time in the history of Ashland that complete addressing of mail was more necessary in order to make sure of prompt delivery than at present. There is no good reason for failure in prompt service in the case of correct and completely addressed mail. Make certain that your correspondent addresses you as to street and house number, post office lock box, rural delivery route and box number, or general delivery, as the case may be.

HIGHWAY COMMISSION WILL SPEND $150,000 ON ROADS

PORTLAND, Nov. 22.—Proposals were received yesterday by the state highway commission on highway work, the estimated cost of which is approximately $150,000. The principal project on which bids were opened was the grading of a one mile section of the Pacific highway between Oregon City and Canemah. This is a very heavy piece of construction, involving the cutting down of the bluff. The cost is estimated in the neighborhood of $100,000.

Klamath county said it was ready to co-operate on the last link of The Dalles-California highway in the vicinity of Fort Klamath, and on the gap of the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway between Keno and the Jackson county boundary.

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU GIVEN EXTRA POLICE PROTECTION BY NEW YORK

Every City in Country Anxious to Hear War Leader; Senator Borah of Idaho Denounces Context of Speech As Intolerable.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Georges Clemenceau is deluged with telegraphic invitations to visit nearly all the big cities and towns in America following his speech last night in the Metropolitan opera house. Stacks of invitations go unanswered, but he replies to all the large cities that he cannot.

He was up at 5 o'clock this morning and translated his speech into his native tongue for French newspapers. He declared in his speech that the German military faction is already planning another war—a coup against the democratic government there.

A death threat was sent through the mails to Clemenceau, signed "A World War Veteran." It said, "Don't you dare say too much about our country and Germany. If you don't heed our warning, you will hear bullets flying around your head."

Extra police protection was immediately given him.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The "Tiger's" remarks that it was the duty of America to come to the aid of Europe, was resented by irascible senators who fought the league of nations. Senator Borah, of Idaho, said it was "intolerable that the bloodthirsty Frenchman, who has done more than anyone else to plunge Europe in misery, should make such a speech here."

VENTURA, Calif., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Mattie Barrows, who died from grief over the murder of her son Buell, will be buried beside her boy. She was not told until several days afterwards that her son had been murdered on the beach while with his sweetheart, Hazel Middleton.

RECALL RUMORS ARE RIFE OVER KLAMATH COURT HOUSE

KLAMATH FALLS, Nov. 22.—An appeal to the supreme court will be made in the case of Frank Ward, a taxpayer, against Klamath county, in which Judge Skipworth of Eugene, Saturday ruled that the Main street structure is the lawful one of Klamath's three court houses. This is according to Asa Fordyce, a member of the county court, an advocate of the Hot Springs structure.

There are rumors of a recall of the county court to end the long controversy over the final selection of the court house.

The Dougan, or Main street, building was declared the legal court house in a decree handed down by Judge Skipworth of Eugene last week.

The decree enjoined the county court from expending any further sums for completion of the Hot Springs building, which was 40 per cent completed at a cost of $150,000, and orders that the $150,000 item included in the last tax levy be used for completion of a jail in the virtually completed Main street, in stead of the Hot Springs building, as was proposed by the defendants.

BEDROOM SLAYING FOLLOWS QUARRELS OF SEVERAL YEARS

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 22.—William Pammant killed his wife with an axe and then shot himself to death at Quilcene, near Olympia. He entered his wife's bedroom early this morning and asked if he should "end it all." She said, "I don't care."

Two young daughters are reported to have leaped from the window, then neighbors were told. The couple are said to have quarreled for several years.

CIVIC CLUB WOMEN COMPLETING PLANS TO FORMAL OPENING

The regular meeting of the Civic club was held in the library Tuesday afternoon. Twenty-five ladies were present at the business meeting. The program is under way for the opening of the club house on Saturday, December 2. All women are invited for the afternoon program. Mrs. Callahan, state president, will make the principal address. There will be other speakers and guests from all clubs in southern Oregon.

Opportunity will be given to join the Civic club at this time. The dues, which are $1, should now be paid. At the annual May meeting a vote will be taken as to the advisability of raising dues to $2 a year. The dollar paid now insures membership until May. Chairmen of several committees were voted upon, and are as follows:

Membership—Mrs. Lamkin.
Social—Mrs. Swendenburg, Mrs. Greer.
Program—Mrs. McConnell.
Flowers—Mrs. Piel, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Marsh Wagner.
Club House—Mrs. Wilshire. Other members for this largest and most important committee will be appointed later. Mrs. Wilshire will give her services free, as part of her gift to the club, until arrangements are made to pay a caretaker.

Two new members on the executive board were appointed, Mrs. E. D. Briggs and Mrs. Charles Pierce. Several departments in the Civic club which will be open to members after December 2 are:

Music: Vocal—Mrs. Shorridge, chairman. Instrumental—Miss Ward, chairman.
Education: Literature—Mrs. Provost, chairman. Physical. Art—Mrs. Oeder, chairman. Mrs. Oeder was formerly an interior decorator in New York City. Mrs. Provost will secure the services of a professional to teach aesthetic and interpretative dancing, and will be assisted by Miss Zipora Blumenfeld, who is at the head of physical education in the schools. Miss Ward is a well-known teacher of piano and a pupil of Madam Tracy-Young. Mrs. Shorridge is one of the sweetest singers, and the Civic club is most appreciative of her addition to club programs. She will be assisted by Miss Leona Marsters, who is interested in community singing, and hopes to start an evening class for the pleasure of getting together and singing really good music.

No scale of prices for renting the building has been determined. The committee is planning to make rentals balance expenses. Any club that wish to use the building regularly, may pay rent, or by joining the Civic club have free use of the building for their club meetings, and at the same time enjoy the attractions provided by the Civic. This arrangement will enable the committee to know just what income the club itself brings, and rentals can be planned to cover expenses. The Study club is the first to take advantage of this arrangement, thus adding its support to the upkeep of Ashland's beautiful club house of which every woman is justly proud.

A petition was signed and sent to the city council for free water and electricity for the Civic club building. The council granted generous concessions, which are appreciated by every club woman, and because of this courtesy and the grant of land on which the club house stands, the Civic club will give a luncheon to the mayor and city council sometime before January 1.
