STATE OF OREGON) ss. County of Jackson) We, the undersigned, County Budget Committee for Jackson County, Oregon, do hereby certify that the above is a true, fair and complete estimate of the probable expenses of said county for the ensuing year and probable receipts from sources other than direct taxation upon real and personal property in its jurisdiction during the ensuing year.

We further certify that the estimate of expenses of the various institutions of the County, of the amount required for public enterprises, roads, bridges, etc., and of all other expenses of the county as therein set out, is just and is based upon a careful study of the expenses of the county during the past 3 years, and a thorough examination of its probable needs during the year for which such estimate is made. That each and every item therein is believed to be necessary for the proper transaction of the business of the county, the protection of its property and interests and to be for the public welfare. That every expense estimated is in accordance with law and is a legitimate charge against the county. Dated at Jacksonville, Oregon, October 31st, 1922.

Largest Book in the World. In the British Museum may be seen an Atlas which is probably the largest book in the world. It measures 5 feet 10 inches in height, 3 feet 2 inches in width, and to lift it is considered a four-man job—with a foreman to stand by and say, "Gently, now!" It is bound in leather, and eight distinct skins were used. On it are diamond-shaped spaces showing alternately the rose, thistle and harp. Three gilt clasps hold it together. This heavy tome was presented to the nation by George IV, in January, 1823.
