Thanksgiving Day

OUT of the red carnage of war, through the bewildering maze of economic and industrial reconstruction, the sun of a new and better day for our country is dawning.

May we, on this Thanksgiving Day, acknowledge our blessings with humble and grateful hearts. May we realize that from them to whom much is given, much also is due. In fairness of mind and spirit, with fearless, industrious hearts, may we re-dedicate ourselves to the work that is still before us:

That this country, our country, shall not fail, but shall, through the centuries, express in national life, all that is finest and truest and best.
