

Ashland Tidings

Established 1876
Published Every Evening Except Sunday
THE ASHLAND PRINTING CO.
OFFICIAL CITY AND COUNTY PAPER
TELEPHONE 39
C. K. LOGAN, Editor

Entered at the Ashland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-class Mail Matter.

Subscription Price Delivered in City:
One month $.65
Three months 1.95
Six months 3.75
One year 7.50

Mail and Rural Routes
One month $.65
Three months 1.95
Six months 3.50
One year 6.50

ADVERTISING RATES
Display Advertising
Single insertion, each inch 30c
Yearly Contract
Display Advertising
One time a week 27 1/2c
Two times a week 25c
Every other day 20c

Local Readers
Each line, each time 10c
To run every other day for one month, each line, each time 7c
To run every issue for one month or more, each line, each time 5c

Classified Column
One cent the word each time.
To run every issue for one month or more, 1/2c the word each time.

Legal Rate
First time, per 8-pcmt line 10c
Each subsequent time, per 8-point line 5c
Card of thanks $1.00
Obituaries, the line 2 1/2c

Fraternal Orders and Societies
Advertising for fraternal orders or societies charging a regular initiation fee and dues, no discount. Religious and benevolent orders will be charged the regular rate for all advertising when an admission or other charge is made.

What Constitutes Advertising
In order to allay a misunderstanding among some as to what constitutes news and what advertising, we print this very simple rule, which is used by newspapers to differentiate between them: "ALL future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection is taken IS ADVERTISING." This applies to organizations and societies of every kind as well as to individuals.

All reports of such activities after they have occurred is news.
All coming social or organization meetings of societies where no money contribution is solicited, initiation charged, or collection taken IS NEWS.

Those who believe the state institution at Corvallis, referred to by many people as the "Cow College," to be such, may be surprised to learn that the debate team from O. A. C. recently won a 2 to 1 decision over the debaters from the University of Oregon. All of the Corvallis students are not farmers.

ON CHRISTMAS MORNING
Oh, Christmas is a nuisance.
We sometimes think and say—
Such a lot of work and worry
Just for one short day!
Hard-earned money squandered,
Weary heads and feet—
Useless giving, senseless striving
In the struggle to compete!

Yet, on Christmas morning,
When we hear the children's cries,
Raiding little stockings
In raptures of surprise;
When we open parcels
That loving hands have wrapped,
Seems like springs of kindness
In our hearts are tapped.
Seems our thoughts grow gentler,
More tender is the smile!
Yes, on Christmas morning,
Christmas seems worth while.
—Zella Bissell Chatfield in Farm Life.

Man and the Flowers.
The fragrance of plants is not for man's pleasure; it is a means of attracting insects to fertilize them. The object of many present-day florists is to improve a flower in its coloring size and substance—in short to "paint the lily." They cannot improve the fragrance, which is perhaps the reason they seem to care so little for its disappearance under their hand.—Dr. Chagnac.

Always With Us.
Jack—Did you have much trouble learning to sing?
Kitty—Yes; especially with the neighbors.—Answers All.

Our candy prices are right, quality considered. Rose Bros. 74tf

Everything has two sides but the truth.
The only thing that prevents dishonesty from paying is being caught.

A neat housewife is one who constantly keeps the house mussed up cleaning it.

It takes a certain amount of ignorance to make you begin to see what the real truth is.

The man who invented money has caused as much woe in the world as the man who invented war.

While it is often essential to get others to say "Yes," it is just as often essential for you to say "No."

HEZ HECK SAYS:
"Fer every one thing that goes into a woman's ear, two come out o' her mouth."

AND SO IT GOES
Two brakemen sentenced to the penitentiary at Salem for terms of 11 years each for holding up hoboes on a freight train going over the Siskiyou, have been released after serving 18 months of the sentence—114 months off for good behavior.

And so it goes. The violator of the law does not fear its machinery, when he knows he will only be forced to serve a mere portion of his sentence, providing he is caught. In committing the deed, he stands the chance of being undetected and to remain at liberty. Until prison sentences are served, the law violator has little to fear from the law and has little respect for it.

Those who believe the state institution at Corvallis, referred to by many people as the "Cow College," to be such, may be surprised to learn that the debate team from O. A. C. recently won a 2 to 1 decision over the debaters from the University of Oregon. All of the Corvallis students are not farmers.

ON CHRISTMAS MORNING
Oh, Christmas is a nuisance.
We sometimes think and say—
Such a lot of work and worry
Just for one short day!
Hard-earned money squandered,
Weary heads and feet—
Useless giving, senseless striving
In the struggle to compete!

Yet, on Christmas morning,
When we hear the children's cries,
Raiding little stockings
In raptures of surprise;
When we open parcels
That loving hands have wrapped,
Seems like springs of kindness
In our hearts are tapped.
Seems our thoughts grow gentler,
More tender is the smile!
Yes, on Christmas morning,
Christmas seems worth while.
—Zella Bissell Chatfield in Farm Life.

Man and the Flowers.
The fragrance of plants is not for man's pleasure; it is a means of attracting insects to fertilize them. The object of many present-day florists is to improve a flower in its coloring size and substance—in short to "paint the lily." They cannot improve the fragrance, which is perhaps the reason they seem to care so little for its disappearance under their hand.—Dr. Chagnac.

Always With Us.
Jack—Did you have much trouble learning to sing?
Kitty—Yes; especially with the neighbors.—Answers All.

Ankle Skirts Jam Traffic; Life Exposed, if Not Limb

STREET car men of Philadelphia look with disfavor on the ankle length skirts which, in the case of style extremists, have replaced their exceedingly abbreviated equivalents of yester-year. "Some of these women are imperiling their own lives," said a conductor the other day, "whereas formerly they only imperilled the lives of the men. It is true that the knee-length skirts made traffic accidents among the males appalling. They stopped short in the midst of crowded streets, their eyes on some object of high visibility, without regard to the cussing of truck drivers, the clanging of car gongs, the shrill whistles of cops, and the general chaos of traffic. Now they meet no such temptations. They proceed alertly on their way, in comparative safety. But the women! Accidents to them are bound to increase. A crowd tries to get toward a street car all at once, as crowds invariably will, and eight persons in the rear of one of these new-fangled street-cleaning frocks step on one of those side streamers which now seems to be inevitable. There is a ripping and a tearing, and the worst has happened, if not more. "Personally I can't see why all the women can't get as sensible in regard to their clothes as most of them seem to be getting. From the standpoint of the street car conductor there is nothing like a medium-length skirt. These same medium-length skirts do not give the masculine pedestrians pause in the middle of the car tracks, and they do allow their wearers to board and unboard common carriers without endangering their lives and those of their immediate followers. And if the question of appearance and general value to the community were put up to me, I'd vote for 'em strong, petticoats and all. I like my women lady-like." Ding! Ding!

Bulging Brow no Criterion of Intellectuality Electric Brain Waves "Jazz Up" Dullards

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The "dunce cap" of the future may become the symbol of intellectual advancement rather than the crown of educational opprobrium. By the simple process of electrification, the headgear that once was an indication of stupidity or mental indolence may be transformed into an intellectual accelerator. It is the belief of Dr. Benard Hollander, eminent specialist, that the brains of backward students may be effectively "jazzed up" by the proper application of electric currents. "Brain waves" turned loose in a schoolroom, Dr. Hollander believes, will so stimulate the mental process of the dullards that they will soon be moving toward the head of the class instead of lagging along at the foot.

In a recent address before the congress of the British Phrenological society, Dr. Hollander described experiments which he declared had demonstrated the efficiency of electric currents in stimulating mental endeavor. He expressed the belief that galvanism applied to certain regions of the head has the effect of improving mental power. Experiments he had conducted, Dr. Hollander said, resulted in backward or indolent students succeeding in examinations in which they previously had failed. Discussing the subject of phrenology, Dr. Hollander asserted that leading anatomists have acknowledged that "the skull is moulded upon the brain and grows with it." The size and shape of the head, he contended, conform for all practical purposes to the size and shape of the brain. Size of the head, however, is not necessarily a measure of the intellect, according to Dr. Hollander. "Even a capacious forehead," he said, "does not signify superior intellectual attainments, for it may be merely an empty warehouse which had never been stocked with knowledge."

Gas From Food Presses on Heart

If food does not digest it turns into poisons which form gas. This often presses on heart and other organs, causing a nervous, restless feeling. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system, which caused gas and pressure on heart. Adlerika expels poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowel. EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. T. K. Bolton, Druggist.

Two lots, paved street, R. R. district, rentable building, $900, will earn 12 per cent net. Staples Realty Agency. 84tf

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS (Continued From Yesterday.)

County Attorney
Rawles Moore, district attorney office expense $ 50.00
Kilham Stationery Co., district attorney office expense 9.88
Rawles Moore, district attorney's expense 30.20
Total, $ 90.08
Prohibition Enforcement
S. B. Sandefer, prohibition enforcement expense $645.71
B. L. Moses, prohibition enforcement expense 64.00
J. H. Leggett, prohibition enforcement expense 48.00
Total, $757.71

ROAD FUND table with columns for Road Dist. No. 1-11 and various expenses like payroll, market, and general road expenses.

General Roads table listing various contractors and their expenses for road work, including Jack Thrasher, Marvin Abbott, and others.

County Library table listing salaries and expenses for librarians and library associations.

County Clerk table listing various expenses and salaries for county officials.

Bounty Report table listing names and amounts for bounty payments.

Advertisement for Kodak for Christmas, featuring an image of a camera and text about Eastman line products.

Advertisement for Christmas Specials at Plaza Market, listing various food items and their prices.

Advertisement for California winter outings, featuring an image of a woman and text about Southern Pacific Lines.