

LACK OF THOUGHT IN AVERAGE MAN TOLD BY NAGLEY

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR SAYS THINKING POWERS ARE NOT DEVELOPED

FORTUNES ARE MADE BY APPLICATION OF IDEAS

Money Should Be Reward and Not Aim of Industry Declares Speaker; Naval Man Also Talks; Social Hour Follows.

That the average man is not 50 per cent efficient in thinking was the statement made by Professor F. A. Nagley, of the business administration department of the University of Oregon, at the meeting last night of the chamber of commerce at the Civic club building. Prof. Nagley talked upon the subject of "Making Money from Ideas." Several instances were cited telling how large fortunes had been accumulated through the application of hard work to an idea.

"Money should not be the aim of industry, but the reward," declared the speaker. "Men do not come into prominence suddenly, but only after years of laborious effort and hard work. The housewife, in performing her routine duties could, through proper application, in many instances, be able to devise some simple articles that might yield great returns."

Prof. Nagley also pointed out the unlimited possibilities that await the discoverer. Thirty years ago there was not a single automobile in the United States, and now there are more than four million, he declared, in driving home his argument.

Speaking in the interest of the United States navy, Lieutenant R. E. Kerr, of the naval recruiting service, told about foreign relations and the after-results of the world war. He also discussed the present policy of the administration, lauding Secretary of State Hughes for his work. Present policies are being worked out as rapidly as possible, he stated.

After the regular meeting of the chamber of commerce, a social hour followed, during which ladies of the organization served cake and coffee.

CIVIC CLUB PRAISES MR. DORAN'S LECTURE

The Civic club had a rare treat in Mr. Doran's illustrated lecture on southern Oregon Tuesday evening at the club house. The club thinks of Mr. Doran as the genial superintendent of the camp grounds, and are proud that tourists should find such a man in charge. It was a happy surprise to find him a professional lecturer with a charm of personality, fluent expression and a choice of words that added to the beauty of pictures which every nature lover should see. In appreciation for Mr. Doran's courtesy in giving this lecture, the club house committee has offered him the auditorium Friday evening for his lecture, "Man in the Making," free of charge. There will be no admittance fee, but a silver offering will be taken.

MISSING AIR PILOT IS FOUND AT LONELY RANCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—A radio message to the United States air mail service headquarters here today announced that Air Mail Pilot H. G. Boonstra, missing since Friday, had been found safe and well at an isolated ranch, where he had been cared for since his plane was forced to land east of Porcupine Ridge in Utah by a snowstorm. Boonstra's plane was found yesterday and searching parties today located him at a point far removed from civilization.

MUCH ICE FLOATING IN COLUMBIA RIVER

ST. HELENS, Or., Dec. 20.—There is much ice floating in the river opposite St. Helens and between here and Kalama, and two of the wooden steam schooners, which left, took the precaution to have the bow sheathed with lumber before starting down river. Rivermen reported that the ice is well broken up and soft, but thick enough to do damage to wooden hulls.

STARVATION THREATENS TZARITZIN RESIDENTS; NO RELIEF IS PLANNED

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Two hundred and fifty thousand people are already approaching starvation in Tzaritzin, and the local soviet authorities have as yet made no plans for their relief. This statement was made here recently by Dorsey Stephens of Los Angeles, Calif., former supervisor of the American relief administration in that gubernia, who has just reached London on his way home. This year's crop in Tzaritzin amounts to between 19,000,000 and 20,000,000 poods. Mr. Stephens said, of which five million are being collected as a grain tax. Compared with the normal crop of 60 million, this makes a poor showing.

LEGAL BATTLE OVER LAND TITLE BEGINS AT KLAMATH FALLS

KLAMATH FALLS, Dec. 20.—Trial of the suit brought by the state of Oregon against Alva C. Marsters, Roseburg banker; Ida F. Marsters, his wife, and the Fort Klamath Meadows company, for recovery of title to about 8000 acres of land bordering Upper Klamath lake, near Fort Klamath, has begun.

The state alleges that in 1903 Marsters acquired title to the lands in question by means of dummy locators, advancing to them all necessary fees and costs in connection with applications. In 1920, title to the lands was transferred to the Fort Klamath Meadows company and suit was brought by the state in 1921.

With purchase of the lands, the Fort Klamath Meadows company inaugurated plans for extensive improvements, including drainage and diking, with views to disposing of the lands in tracts to purchasers of proven ability who would become permanent residents of the county. After the expenditure of a considerable sum of money, however, improvements were halted when suit was brought by the state.

HERRIN TRIAL NOW IN FULL SESSION

MARION, Ill., Dec. 20.—Horror upon horror was piled before the jury here trying five men indicted for the murder of Howard Hoffman during the Herrin mine riot of June 22.

This culminated when Patrick Joseph O'Rourke, a mine guard, exhibited livid scars of knife wounds on his neck, and told of having his throat slashed and getting seven bullets pumped into him. He has yet to endure operations to regain the full use of his limbs and jaw.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ANNOUNCE STORES WILL BE OPEN LATE

Beginning tomorrow evening, merchants in general in the city will keep their places of business open in the evenings, in order to accommodate the Christmas shoppers, many of whom are unable to get down town during the day.

That business is good this year is the opinion of several of the leading merchants of the city, who state that people are spending considerable money for presents this year. A majority of these are of a practical nature, and not the useless gifts so common a few years ago.

Yuletide decorations in many of the local establishments have been made, giving many of the stores an excellent appearance. Suggestions of the holiday season are not confined to windows alone, but to the interior of the stores as well.

French "Tiger" Can't Sleep; Auto-graphed Photograph of Popular Actress Brings Greater Sum Than That of Famous Old Statesman.

HAVRE, France, Dec. 20.—The "Tiger of France" returned to his native land in a surly mood. Newspaper men were met by snarling statements.

"The interview was false," he snapped when quizzed about statements he was quoted as making favoring Harding's intervention in the reparations program and declaring France should ratify the Washington treaties. When asked if he had opposed Harding's intervention, he answered, "I have nothing to say."

Andre Tardieu, long one of the "Tiger's" strongest supporters, was pleased when he denied the interview. "I said only fear of another war will come if the Ruhr is occupied." He had a rough trip and cannot sleep.

It was learned that Clemenceau's autographed photo sold for 650 francs on board ship, while Cecil Soril, an actress sold hers for 2000 francs at a charity exhibition.

WIFE SUES PASTOR: NAMES 122 WOMEN

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 20.—Providence society was thrown into a panic Tuesday when counsel for Mrs. Minnie Engleheart, who is suing her husband, Rev. Dr. Adolph H. Engleheart, for divorce, filed a bill of particulars naming 122 women.

Mrs. Engleheart claims her husband, "pastor" of the Church of the Divine Science, has a strong hypnotic power which he uses over the women who come to him for "divine healing." The church is said to be of a spiritualistic leaning.

Mrs. Engleheart bases her suit on charges of extreme cruelty and her husband's association "with other women."

WHITE HOUSE TO HAVE QUIET DAY ON CHRISTMAS

MRS. HARDING NOT YET STRONG FRIENDS ARE DOING HER SHOPPING

BELIEVED COMMITTEE WILL CLEAR DAUGHERTY

Complete Exoneration by House Committee is Indicated and Hearing Thought to End Today; Woodruff, Michigan, Renews Charges.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—While Mrs. Harding continues to show a rapid recovery from her recent serious illness, she is not sufficiently recovered to regain strength to participate in an elaborate Christmas celebration.

Christmas will be strictly informal at the White House, and only a few personal friends of President and Mrs. Harding will call. Friends are making Mrs. Harding's purchases in place of the annual tour she generally makes. Gifts will be taken to the White House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Every indication is that Attorney General Daugherty will be exonerated by the house judiciary committee, which is likely to complete its hearing today.

Representative Woodruff, Michigan, republican, renewed his charges that secret agents shadowed congressional members who criticized Daugherty.

DR. CHARLES PRICE WILL CONDUCT TWO SERVICES ON THURS.

Dr. Charles S. Price, the evangelist from Lodi, Calif., who recently conducted a great series of healing and religious meetings in the Chautauqua building, will again be with Ashland people, as he has been scheduled to speak twice Thursday, at the Armory. The first meeting will be in the afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, and the second meeting in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The evangelist has just completed a series of meetings in Eugene and at Albany. During the Albany meetings, people came from all portions of the Willamette valley and filled the Albany armory, larger than that here, until thousands were turned away, unable to find a seat. Special seats were held during the meetings there for business people, as many came early in the day and brought their lunches in order to be sure of having a seat for the services.

N. Y. COUNTY HANGS ONE MAN IN ENTIRE HISTORY

WATERLOO, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Seneca county historians, delving into records of the county, have dug up a record for other counties of the various states to shoot at. In the history of Seneca county, just one man has been hanged for murder. He was Charles Johnson, who went to his death on a scaffold erected in the jail yard here in 1887. Johnson was convicted of the murder of a jail turnkey. He had been incarcerated for a petty crime.

GEORGIA SOLON'S SHOES STOLEN BY THIEF WHO RIFLED PULLMAN TRAIN

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 20.—Herbert Milner, representative elect of Dodge county and candidate for speaker of the state house of representatives, entered Atlanta in a "soleless" state, and the prospects of facing the wintry winds that swept the streets of the city in sock feet did not strike his sense of humor, as perhaps it did the thief who made away with his shoes and those of three other passengers aboard a Pullman car. "Even at that," he remarked good-naturedly, "we were better off than the preacher—the thief took everything he had except his beevendees."

EARLY HOUR BLAZE RAZES PARK STORE AT CAMP GROUND

Fire which was discovered shortly past midnight last night destroyed the Park grocery store, the property of Tom Hill, located near the tourist camp grounds in the upper end of Lithia park, at a loss of nearly $3000. With the exception of goods in the basement, the entire stock was badly damaged, and though some articles can be salvaged, the greater portion were destroyed.

The fire was first seen about 12:30 o'clock by Mrs. Hill, who lives across the street from the store. At that time the flames were already shooting through the roof and high into the air. Within a few seconds the department responded to the alarm, and though Mr. Hill told them they could not reduce the flames, no time was lost in making the attempt. Mr. Hill was high in his praise for the local department today.

An investigation was made today to determine the cause of the conflagration. There was no stove in the building, though Mr. Hill had a small oil stove in the front of the building. This was out before he locked up for the night, and in view that the fire started in a rear room of the building, it is not believed the stove was responsible. Defective wiring or incendiaryism are considered the probable causes.

Insurance on the stock amounted to approximately $1800 and was carried by Harry Yeo, and $250 on the building. The building was also protected by $500 carried by Mrs. S. L. Allen. It is estimated that loss to the building would reach about $1200.

WASHINGTON APPLE CROP SAID ROTTING

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 20.—One-third of the apple crop of the state of Washington is going to ruin due to a lack of transportation facilities and exorbitant freight rates, John Quincy Adams, president of the Washington state farmers' union stated here today. He estimates the loss at a $1,500,000 on a $6,000,000 crop.

The apples are rotting and are being dumped in rivers, he says. Adams says that Washington farmers favor a tribunal to prevent railroad strikes and to force the railroads to move the crops.

ASTORIA WILL LICENSE ITINERANT MERCHANTS

ASTORIA, Or., Dec. 20.—The problem of preventing itinerant merchants from crowding the city with stocks of goods before the local dealers who were burned out have an opportunity to establish new locations, and at the same time make room for any legitimate enterprises, faces the city council. As a means of solving it an ordinance is now in force requiring every person or firm desiring to engage in business to obtain a license from the city.

The question of who shall get licenses is to be determined by a special license committee appointed by the council acting in conjunction with a similar committee appointed by the business interests.

HAYS PERMITS ARBUCKLE BACK INTO FILMDOM

MOVIE HEAD ACTS AS SANTA CLAUS TOWARDS FAT COMEDIAN

ACTION IS DECLARED NOT "REINSTATEMENT"

American Public to Decide if Roscoe Arbuckle in Pictures; Life Since Tragedy Said to be Prosaic; Fatty Is Elated.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—Will Hays, head of the motion picture industry, today made a Christmas present to "Fatty" Arbuckle, giving him a chance to "come back" before the American public. This is not in the strictest sense of the word a "reinstatement." His pictures made prior to the ban will not be released, according to the Hays ruling.

Hays' action followed an inquiry and the subsequent conviction that Arbuckle has been living a prosaic life since the San Francisco tragedy.

"We must try to live and help live—live and let live is not enough," Hays says. Arbuckle will work for Joseph Schenck, and is very much elated.

REGULAR SESSION OF COUNCIL HELD LAST NIGHT

The regular meeting of the city council was held last evening in the city hall. Bills were allowed and other routine business transacted.

The new dairy ordinance was brought up and quite a number of dairymen were present to express their opinion on the new law. After nearly two hours of discussion, it was decided to make the license fee a graduating one. A fee of 50 cents is to be charged distributors of milk and cream who do not dispense more than two quarts daily, and this graduates up to a $5 fee for the larger producers. The ordinance provides that all cows shall be inspected at certain intervals for tuberculosis and that a city official shall inspect all dairies to see that they are kept in a clean and sanitary condition. This inspection is to be made at the discretion of the city officers and as often as they may see fit.

The only other matter of interest that came up during the evening was when the council voted to call in $15,000 of the electric light bonds.
