HOLIDAY BLAZE DESTROYS GIFTS TO PORTLANDERS

LILLIAN APARTMENTS GUTTED BY EARLY MORNING FIRE TODAY

CHICAGO AND JUAREZ HAVE CONFLAGRATIONS

Livestock Traders Lose Offices While Many Thirsty Souls in El Paso Mount Loss of $150,000 Worth of Christmas Booze.

PORTLAND, Dec. 26.—Over 100 persons were forced to flee from the Lillian apartments here early this morning when fire swept the apartment house. They faced death and serious injury when the flames and smoke belched through the building. A woman and her daughter jumped from the second story into the arms of pedestrians. They were uninjured. A score or more were carried to safety.

The fire started in the basement, and it is believed to have been caused by defective wiring. The occupants lost all of their personal belongings including Christmas gifts. The loss is about $60,000.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Forty livestock commission firms lost their offices when fire destroyed the third floor of the Livestock building in the heart of the Chicago stockyards. The damage was estimated at $75,000.

JUAREZ, Mexico, Dec. 26.—The night before Christmas was a sad time in Juarez. It was also sad in El Paso, which is dependent on Juarez for its holiday booze. Nearly $150,000 worth of liquor was lost in a $500,000 fire here Sunday, which destroyed an entire block of saloons and other dispensaries.

UNIVERSITY GETS FINE XMAS PRESENT

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 26.—(Special).—Ten thousand dollars in cash was the Christmas gift made to the University of Oregon by a friend of the institution who lives 3000 miles from Eugene. The donor is Mrs. Alice W. Wrisley, of Asbury, N. J. She has requested that her gift be used as a student loan fund.

The sum is the largest benefaction received by the university since alumni and others gave $28,000 in September to launch the endowment campaign of "Ten Million Dollars in Ten Years."

President P. L. Campbell of the university is the originator of a plan whereby the Wrisley gift of $10,000 may be used as a guarantee fund upon which to base loans ranging from an aggregate of $50,000 to $100,000. Thus the original gift, under the plan, may be made five to ten fold more effective than is usually the case with such gifts.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES HELD AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Ashland churches in general observed Christmas day with special services. Among those, that of the Congregational church was especially fine. The interior of the building was skillfully decorated under the supervision of Mrs. J. L. Smith. At the close of the services each child was given a gift of candy from the Sunday school.

The morning service was featured with a Christmas anthem, while Rev. W. Judson Oldfield based his sermon on the entry of the wise men who journeyed far to bring their richest gifts to their Savior and king. Evening services were merged into vesper service at 5 o'clock. A Christmas tree was the central motif for a collection of food and clothing which had been assembled as an offering to the needy in the community. Children gave their offerings for the Near East relief.

Here from Portland—Miss Glen Roberts, former Ashland girl, who is now working in Portland, is visiting with relatives and friends in the city.

England, France and Italy Asked to Join in Treaty; America Requested To Act in Intermediary Capacity; France Rejects Proposition.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The new German government, headed by Dr. Wilhelm Cuno, has formally proposed to the world powers a new peace pact, built out of the ashes of the world war and designed to maintain peace in Europe for the next 30 years by mutual agreement, it was learned authoritatively here.

Germany proposes that England, France, Italy and Germany enter a four-power pact to observe and preserve the European boundaries as they now exist for the next 30 years. Germany asks America for approval and is believed to have asked the American government to act in an intermediary capacity in presenting the proposition to foreign chancellors.

Premier Poincare is understood to have declined the proposals on the ground that the French constitution does not provide any such referendum.

ASHLAND COUPLE CELEBRATE DATE OF WEDDING IN 1860

Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Johnson quietly celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. G. O. Van Natta, on Chestnut street, on Christmas day. Though these grand old people spent the greater portion of their married life in Kansas, they have lived in Ashland for the past 18 years.

Though Mr. Johnson is now 81 years of age, he is spry as a man much his junior. Through his own efforts he has cleared several orchard tracts since coming to this vicinity and has won many prizes for the quality of his fruit. Among the many fairs at which he has exhibited are the Lewis and Clark exposition, Portland, 1904, where he received a gold medal for peaches. His fruit has won sweepstakes at local exhibitions and he has numerous gold and silver medals, and many varied-colored ribbons from fairs as far away as New Orleans and San Diego.

He was born September 27, 1841, later marrying Mary E. Davis. Among his ancestors are many famous and noted people, including Captain Edward Johnson, who came from England in the fleet with Governor Winthrop in 1630; Franklin Pierce, president of the United States; Frederick Law Olmstead, noted landscape architect, who planned the construction of Central Park in New York city, in 1856, and the capitol grounds at Washington, D. C.

Members of the family, who were present at the anniversary dinner, were Mrs. Jennie Gilbert and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Van Natta, Mrs. R. W. Conover and three children.

Steamship lines reported all vessels delayed but none missing. Belated ships are reporting by wireless. Rails and lifeboats of many steamers were reported smashed.

'MURDERED' GIRL SENDS MESSAGE TO PORTLAND POLICE

PORTLAND, Dec. 26.—New complexities are added to the alleged "houseboat murder mystery," when the supposed victim wrote a letter to Chief of Police Jenkins asserting that she is the 15-year-old girl who was in the houseboat at the time Mrs. Helen Leary asserts Cash Weir and his son Earl murdered her. The note was signed "Jane Doe," and she said she does not wish her name known due to the shame it would bring on the family.

The girl says Mrs. Leary's story is false, and that it is inspired by jealousy over Earl Weir. The letter says the Leary woman is jealous of her, and that she was paying attention to Earl. They fought and the unidentified girl fled.

If the girl can be located, police believe the mystery will be solved; if she is not found it remains more complex. The girl says she is unharmed. Chief Jenkins will protect her identity if she appears.

PUBLIC HEARING MER ROUGE SET FOR JANUARY 5

ONE ARREST MADE IN ALLEGED KLAN KIDNAPING CASE

SECRET SERVICE MEN WATCH ALL SUSPECTS

Any Move Will Result in Arrest; Funeral Services for Murdered Men Held with 1000 in Attendance—Troops Guard Bodies.

MER ROUGE, La., Dec. 26.—The state of Louisiana is so confident that its case of kidnapping and murder of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards is strong enough to convince anyone, even sympathizers with the person accused of the crime, that a change of venue will not be asked when the preliminary hearing begins January 5, it is stated here.

T. J. Burnett, the only man arrested so far, denies he is a klanman, and says he will have no difficulty in proving his innocence of the murder charge.

It is likely no more arrests will be made until a public hearing. Every suspect is being watched, and any suspicious move or attempt to get away would result in instant arrest by secret service men.

A thousand persons witnessed the burial services for Daniels and Richards. They were laid in graves, side by side, 12 miles north of this little hamlet. The funeral was a double one, with military honors being accorded Daniels, a world war veteran. Troopers of the state guard accompanied the bodies to the cemetery and there, facing the lowering sun, fired three shots that ever will resound in the ears of many friends who went to pay last respects to them.

FIVE GUESS WEIGHT OF PLAZA BIG STICK

Guesses as to the weight of the Plaza confectionery's big stick of candy were made by 512 people and varied from two pounds to 65. The correct weight of the large piece of candy was 14 pounds, 8 1/2 ounces.

Five people guessed the weight as 14 pounds and 8 ounces. In order to decide the winner, lots were resorted to. The lucky winner was O. G. Conwell, while Everett Van Dyke was given second prize, a large candy cane. Others guessing the same weight were Louise Ruger, M. E. Rowley and R. Freeman.

Two guesses of 65 pounds were made by Mrs. R. L. McConough and Eleanor Coombes, who received the "booby" prize, consisting of a 12-pound all-day sucker.

PORTLAND, Dec. 26.—Nearly 6000 forest fires were started on the national forests of the country in 1921, says Chief Forester W. B. Greeley in his annual report received by Forester George H. Cecil, in Portland. One-fourth of these fires were due to lightning and one-third directly attributable to the carelessness of campers. Brush burners, lumbermen, incendiaries and railroads were directly responsible for the bulk of the remaining fires.

More than 375,000 acres of national forest land were burned over with a damage loss of $200,000 during 1921 and the cost of fighting these fires amounted to $532,811.
