CELEBRATION MUSIC

Under the leadership of Carl local bands, the committees that are planning the big celebration including several community have seen that nothing is lacking floats. in the line of music.

Syncopation for dancing is to be furnished by a special orchestra including the best musical talent on the coast.

Band music will be furnished by the very best concert bands obtainable in Southern Oregon. The local High School Band, the Ashland Concert Band, the Medford City Band and the Grants Pass City Band will all take part in the festivities and furnish music for every occasion.

For those wishing to dance, a special pavilion with an excellent floor has been constructed in the heart of Lithia Park. Members of the orchestra are, George Wheeler, San Francisco, who plays the Marimba, Trombone and drums, Carl Loveland, who stars on the Saxophone and Clarinet, Herb Launspech of Medford well known pianist, Charley Robertson of Ashland, star drummer Dom Provost, whose reputation with the banjo is established, and J. M. Loveland, Jr., a brother of Carl, who plays trumpet. A large crowd attended the dance by this orchestra Saturday night, and reported the music excellent.

In order to not overwork the bands, they will divide the playing for the two days, the Medford City and Ashland High ball besides the cover. Weisen-Fourth.
