R. D. Shearer Gains 35 Pounds by Taking Tanlac

Robert D. Shearer, well known retired hotel man, 319 South Second street, Walla Walla, Wash., is another enthusiastic friend of Tanlac.

"That I am enjoying such good health at the age of seventy-one" recently said Mr. Shearer. "I can attribute to nothing but the help I have received from Tanlac. My stomach and kidneys had caused me great suffering and worry for ten or twelve years and I had about given up hope of ever getting well.

"When I started taking Tanlac I only weighed one hundred and twenty-five pounds, could neither eat or sleep to do much good, and my whole system seemed out of order.

"Tanlac not only relieved my troubles, but it built me up to one hundred and sixty pounds, a gain of thirty-five pounds, and you may know I was a happy man. The medicine just seems to have given me a new lease on life. I have taken it several times since then and it always

OBSERVATIONS

I recently observed That the interior of the Plaza has been retinted and repainted That the fellow who has been pleading for warmer weather has been answered— That B. D. Miller is still plugging for the celebration— That Californians seek the cool weather of Oregon during summer months— That the auto camp ground at Lithia Park will require enlarging in the near future— That the society reporter receives all the out-to-dinner invitations— That everyone in Ashland is not patronizing Ashland firms to a one hundred per cent degree— That Dr. Phetteplace has as strenuous a time conducting the queen campaign as the president of China has in retaining his seat— That sugar is on the decline— That Mayor Loomis always has a cheerful word for the stranger— That the hotel shine stand has a new sun shade— That "Patsy" Coleman's Ford shies every time it sees a fire cracker— That the courtesy of the man who trucks freight at the S. P. freight house is an asset to the company and to Ashland— That Jack Peebler has been busier than the proverbial old hen with so many chickens— That being a Grants Pass cave man is a warm job— That Rose Bros., makers of the famous Rose Bud ice cream, are anticipating a busy Fourth. That some outing suits are not at all particular— That Henry Enders, Jr., realizes that staging a better celebration is a big task— That Ashland's two day celebration will be the best ever staged in Southern Oregon. That the celebration is only a few hours away, yet many business houses have no decorations. That as a result of the sale of the O. H. Johnson home Ashland will have another modern residence. That Millard Grubb, obliging and courteous employee of the post office, can use a stub pen upside down. That the All-star orchestra is true to the name. That people still have a hankering for a big slice of onion with a hamburger sandwich. That Oser's service station is busy in all that the word implies. That the Tiding's circulation is growing daily. That the ladies of Bellview district are going to enter a beautiful float in the grand parade July 4th. That the queen contest closes this evening. That if you are going to vote you will have to hurry. That some of the stands in Lithia Park have the colors reversed.
