COLORADO MORE ANCIENT THAN KING TUT IS CLAIM

DENVER, Colo., July 24.—King Tut's been "out-tutted" in Colorado. The Egyptian sphinxes and pyramids that he worshipped were erected on land that did not appear above ocean waters until waves had beaten for ages against the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, according to scientists in recent reports.

In the people's playgrounds of the West, particularly the Denver Mountain Peaks, there is the light and dark colored banding of rocks dating back to the Archaean period, close to the creation. It is easily seen from the automobile driveways. Then there is the discovery of the Pagosa Springs region of racial culture in seven stages of habitation dating from the mound builders to the Indian cliff dwellers in Mesa Verde National Park.

Portland shipped 24,371,640 bushels wheat during past year. Roseburg has bumper fruit crop.

RELIGIOUS ORDERS APPROVE OF LEGION

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Pledging their support to the ideals of the American Legion, representatives of a number of religious and fraternal organizations at a recent meeting in Washington adopted a resolution approving the preamble to the legion's constitution in which the purpose of the veterans' organizations are outlined.

The conference was called by Father William P. O'Connor, of Cincinnati, legion national chaplain, to unify action of the various denominations and creeds toward a common goal of patriotism and higher citizenship. It was addressed by Alvin Owsley, legion national commander. The resolution was presented by Conrad V. Dykeman, of Brooklyn, imperial potentate of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. It was adopted by representatives of the Knights of Columbus, Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Salvation Army, American Red Cross, National Catholic Welfare Council and Young Men's Christian Association.

"MINNOW" SAYS DOCTOR OF NINE POUND RAINBOW TROUT

A week end party at Diamond Lake made up of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Harrison and Dr. and Mrs. Crandall was greatly enjoyed by the party according to Dr. Crandall, who mentioned incidentally that he succeeded in snagging and bringing to hand a nine-pound Rainbow trout while fishing in the lake. He added that this fish was a mere minnow to some of those taken from the lake though this year as one weighing 21 pounds net was caught earlier in the season. The roads to the lake are good the Doctor said, and a fine new hotel is being built there for the accommodation of visitors.

THAT DULL ACHING

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. J. W. Wilcox, 152 Helman St., Ashland, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully and I gladly recommend them to others. My kidneys troubled me a lot and I suffered with dull, nagging backaches, and such pains over my kidneys I could hardly keep going. I was hardly ever free from dizziness or headaches and my kidneys didn't set right. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon rid me of the complaint."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilcox had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. No. 30

CHAPTER X AGAINST TIME

A short time later, at the home of Colonel Watson, we see the old Southerner signing over the Central Building Certificates to Deering. "You are a courageous gentleman," the old man was saying, "and I owe you a debt of gratitude for putting Jandus behind the bars. With this stock goes my warmest thanks."

As Jude Deering came out of the house, he saw Pearl Travers approaching on foot. "If I remember correctly, you made a wager I wouldn't get these," he sneered, showing her the stock. "Ten shares of your own on the side, if I remember it. I'll collect back in New York." And with a smile of satisfaction on his face, Deering walked toward his house.

After Deering left, a great feeling of loneliness came over the girl. She felt very much alone in a game against great odds, and she was also very much in love—a bad combination.

But Jude Deering was already carrying out his threat to see "Mr. Jones." As he was walking toward an impressive looking brownstone house in the Seventies, he saw a mud-colored car pull up and three mysterious looking men step out. Deering hastily concealed himself and watched them take a large, blanket-covered bundle from the car and carry it into the house.

It is reported to me that you have betrayed your trust—that you no longer seek for me that treasure which rightfully belongs in our family. It is reported that you now seek it for a certain girl whose beauty has turned your head and made naught of your honor. This I do not believe, but if it is so, the three honored servants I have sent will take the quest from your hands and proceed to recover that which you have lost. You may partly redeem yourself in my eyes by giving them whatever assistance they seek.

Your father, Island of Malata, September 10th.

The Dalles—Service Creek section of John Day highway completed at cost of $157,000.

Daily Fashion Hint

FOR GIRLS AND JUNIORS It does not take much figuring to estimate the smart simplicity of this youthful frock. For its development wool Canton, Jersey, kasha, ratiné, gingham or linen may be used. The closing is at the back and the two-piece gathered skirt is attached to a waist which is itself gathered at the lower edge to a stay. The sash of striped satin ribbon is a big feature with girls of any age. Medium size requires 3 yards 36-inch material. "Picture Review Dress No. 1247. Size 6 to 17 years. Price 30 cents.

to the Lowest Bidder? THE printer has lost much in the past because of his mistakes in business judgment, but his customers have lost far more in failure to turn his skill to their advantage. Business men can get vastly more out of a printer than a low bid, and it is reasonably certain that they can get less from the lowest bidder than even the low price calls for; because while he may find it necessary to sell his product at a low price, his dilemma forces him to strike as hard a bargain in delivery as his customer does in buying. Choose a good printer; he can help you build a better business if you will let him. TIDINGS PRESS Ashland, Oregon.
