Guests at Mowat's—Vera Day from Honolulu, who is a student at Berkeley, is a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mowat, on Beach avenue.

Miss Day is a sister of Mrs. Jan Mowat, and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Kenneth Day, nee Frances Hamlin, whose visits in Ashland on their wedding trips will be so pleasantly recalled. * * *

Lynn and Edwin Mowat made a brief visit with home folks Sunday. They had, with a party of fourteen, just climbed Mt. Shasta. The party were all representatives of chambers of commerce of various cities.

Mr. W. H. Mowat with Lynn and Edwin Mowat, Col. C. A. and Mrs. Simmons and Mr. George Everson, of San Francisco guests at the Mowat home, Sunday, made up a party who have gone to Diamond Lake to spend a week at that popular resort. Col. Simmons is secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco. * * *

C. E. Picnic—Friday evening of last week the C. E. of the Presbyterian church had a combined business meeting and picnic supper at Wagner Springs.

There were four autos filled with happy young folks, who drove out the latter part of the afternoon.

A bon fire supper at which the "wetters" were roasted in campfire style, added the true out-of-doors touch to the affair. Loads of other good things had been provided to appease picnic appetites.

Games were played and jollity held sway till around the campfire all gathered for the business meeting.

As a happy ending to a happy evening young voices were joined in a song fest, before faces were turned homeward and another pleasant experience added to those in the memories of these young people. Mrs. Hulet, Miss Evelyn Hulet and Miss Usher were special guests of the C. E. * * *

A Delightful Party—One of the happiest afternoons imaginable was spent at Helman's Saturday, when Mrs. F. F. Whittle planned a swimming party and picnic at Helman's Baths for a party of young girls.

It was given in compliment to Miss Lucy Picken who so soon leaves with her parents for her home in the south, and for her guest, Miss Lorraine Usher, who used to live here and who is so pleasantly remembered by her

HOW A RIP-ROARING RADICAL WAS TAMED

By JOHN OAKWOOD

The best story of the taming of a radical I have ever read is told by A. B. Farquhar in his book "The First Million the Hardest." It throws more light on the meaning of capitalism and the futility of socialism than a library full of books on sociology, economics and politics. Here it is as Farquhar tells it: "The best antidote for acute economic insanity is ownership of property. My favorite example is Otto Steininger. He was one of my first employees and was a rip-roaring anarchist. He insisted that all wealth came from the workers and therefore should go back to the workers. He was particularly bitter against his landlord, and hardly a week went by that he did not announce that he would like to shoot the landlord the next time he came around for the rent. Finally I asked him smilingly after one of these outbursts:

"Buy, Don't Shoot "Why don't you buy your own house instead of shooting your landlord? Then you would not have to pay any rent. If you do shoot him you may get into trouble."

"He did not think much of the idea apparently, but in a day or two he asked me how he could buy the house. I answered: 'That house can be bought for $800. You are getting good wages. I will buy that house for you, take $4 a week out of your wages, and in less than four years you will have it paid for.' "He went off again. The next time he came back it was with his wife. He said: 'We are going to buy that house, but since we have no children you can take $10 instead of $4 a week out of my pay envelope.'

"I bought the house, and then Otto's chief concern was to get it paid for, which he did in a little more than a year. There was another house next door to him. In a short while after he had paid for his first house he sidled up to me and said:

"I can buy that house next door for a thousand dollars. Now that we have no rent to pay we are going along good. What would you think about me buying that?" "He bought that house and joined young friends. The swimming party, part of the afternoon's gaiety, came first, and was brimful of fun and frolic.

When appetites had been stimulated to the Nth degree, tables were spread on the lawn and the bountiful supper daintily arranged, awaited those who were so entirely ready for it. The lovely lunch disappeared to the accompaniment of gay laughter and happy voices.

Goodnights and goodbyes were most regretfully spoken. Those who had been so pleasantly entertained were the:

Misses, Mabel Trott, Gertrude Brown, Virginia Jones, Violet Wilton, Nellie Hake, Joyce and Beth Johnson, Carolyn Tilton, Bernice Yeo, Margaret Johnson, Margaret McCoy, Virginia Whittle and the honor guests, the Misses Lucy Picken and Lorraine Usher. Mrs. Picken assisted Mrs. Whittle.

RELIEVED HER TROUBLES

"I took treatment from two doctors. One said I had kidney trouble and the other said it was my bladder. Neither did any good. I took six bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and am now well. Foley Kidney Pills did me all the good and stopped my bad habit at night," writes Mrs. A. Faust, Knoxville, Miss. Use Foley Kidney Pills for quick relief from Backache, Rheumatic Pains, Dull Headaches, Tired Feeling and Kidney and Bladder trouble. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foley's.

PORT ARTHUR, Ontario.

Contract for dredging in Port Arthur and Fort William harbors this summer has been let to a Midland, Ont., contractor. The contract with the Department of Public Works calls for an expenditure on dredging of over $300,000. Considerable work is to be done around the elevator wharves and new slips are to be dredged out for the Stewart and Bawlf elevators.

GYPSY BLOOD -gratified!

You needn't be "raggle-taggle gypsies" to think of life being under open skies, beside a brook with the scent of mountain-pine all about. Better still pack off in your motor—have the summer of your life—traveling comfortably and enjoyably—with the new "Red Crown" in your tank. If you have gypsy blood, gratify it! And remember—for long, economical mileage, and for powerful work in the mountains and elsewhere—it's "Red Crown" for the experienced motorist.

the hated landlord class. Some years later when it was reported that a band of strikers were advancing to shut all the factories Otto rushed into my office at the head of an excited group of men from the shop, yelling: "Get us a lot of shotguns and we'll keep those fellows out of here! Those fools expect a man to work and save and then walk in here and take what he has got without paying for it!" "And that," Farquhar concludes, "I think, is always the way to develop a conservative."

GROWING RECOGNITION OF ADVERTISING'S USE

Advertising first established its place as an economic factor as a sales aid, but as understanding and use of it have increased its possibilities in other fields have developed until today we find it employed in many forms of service hitherto unthought of. Advertising has long been hampered in its use by precedent, tradition, conventions and prejudices, which, under analysis and experience, find little to warrant their existence. Gradually the falsity of their claims is being proved.

We were told for many years that it was undignified for a bank or fiduciary institution to advertise, and this edict, born of some superstition of the past, was accepted without question until finally it was intelligently challenged and it was discovered under analysis that there was no sufficient reason for its support. The inevitable conclusion of logic is that whatever is of genuine use to human beings, whether it be goods or services, can, with truth and dignity, be advertised and sold and that it is just as proper to merchandise forms of service as various kinds of commodities.

In the logical development of this new understanding of the power of advertising during the last decade we have seen many of our banking, fiduciary and investment institutions actively employing the sales value of advertising in the marketing of their services. In this intelligent use of publicity they are not only increasing their own immediate business return, but they are also helping to spread a better understanding of financial service and economic fact and theory upon which solid business relations can be built.—Francis H. Sisson, Journal of the American Bankers Association.

THE WEARY WAY

Daily Becoming Less Wearisome to Many in Ashland

With a back that aches all day. With rest disturbed at night. Annoying urinary disorders. "This a weary way, indeed. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney trouble. Are endorsed by Ashland citizens. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. A. Sherard, 881 E. Main street, Ashland, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills from experience, for I know they do all that is claimed for them. I had a lame, aching back that kept me feeling miserable all the time and my work tired me easily. I had frequent headaches, and my kidneys acted too frequently. Doan's Kidney Pills bought at McNair Bros. Drug Store, helped me wonderfully by relieving the back aches and regulating my kidneys."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sherard had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
