KLAMATH FALLS PASSES NEW PARKING ORDINANCE KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Aug. 23.—A new parking ordinance drafted because of continued protest against the present system, was presented to the city council last night. In place of parking parallel with the curb, cars on the main street will be parked head-on at an angle of 30 degrees. On these streets no car can be parked for more than two hours at one time. There has previously been no time limit.

On other streets parking parallel with the curb will continue. Trucks and other heavily loaded vehicles are barred from traveling on Main street except to unload, in which case they shall enter Main street at the intersection nearest the unloading point and leave in the same manner. The washing of vehicles on public streets or alleys is prohibited.

LIQUOR LAWS ARE TESTED BY DOCTOR

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The question whether states can legally punish druggists who fill prescriptions for medicinal liquor in quantities exceeding the limit of a local law will be determined by the United States Supreme Court when it convenes in October.

This problem came about on an appeal filed by Merlin E. Hixson, Los Angeles druggist, who was convicted of violating a local law while following provisions of the Volstead Act. By its decision the nation's highest court will decide whether Congress or state can limit the amount of "medicine" to be distributed by physicians.

A similar question is now being wrestled with in the courts of Montana and New York. The question involved there is that of restricting the quantity of liquor a physician may prescribe. In filing his appeal, Hixson said his position as a druggist was untenable with physicians offering prescriptions to be filled with the maximum amount of liquor allowed by Federal law and restraint being placed upon him by local law to dispense only half the amount a prescription legally called for.

RED BLUFF STARTS NEW SOCIAL CUSTOM

RED BLUFF, Calif., Aug. 22.—A wedding at 3 o'clock in the morning is the latest social innovation for Red Bluff. The couple to claim this distinction were Earl E. Moore, 26, and Guineh Myrine Johnson, 16, both of Magalia, Butte county, who came here late Saturday night. They were accompanied by the bride's mother, Mrs. Mae Johnson, who gave consent to the marriage.

They first attempted to rout out County Clerk H. G. Kuhn at his residence, but he was adamant to their appeals. They learned that Roy H. Holthe, deputy county clerk, was at a dance then in progress at Joyland Park, four miles north of Red Bluff. The trio drove there and Holthe declined to pry himself loose from the festivities.

"Wait 'till this is over and maybe I can help you out," he told the anxious bridegroom-to-be. At 2 o'clock all drove to town. The license was procured, Holthe thanked for his trouble and the nuptial party proceeded to the Baptist parsonage.

Rev. J. Brooks Frost, pastor of the church, was aroused from his slumbers. The ceremony was performed just as the clock struck 3 a. m.

KENNETT WOMAN WILL FIGHT DRY LAW CHARGE RED BLUFF, Cal., Aug. 23.—Mrs. Maddalena Carattini of Kennett, one of several alleged bootleggers from Shasta and Siskiyou Counties, whose cases were heard before United States Commissioner H. S. Gans here yesterday afternoon, was bound over to the federal court for trial. She is charged separately and jointly with E. Nardini of Kennett with the manufacture, possession and sale of liquor and of maintaining a nuisance. She and Nardini are at liberty on bonds. Nardini also was held to the United States court.

AREO ENTERTAINS RICH SPORTSMAN

SOUTH DARTMOUTH, Mass., Aug. 22.—After spending nearly a million dollars to build a magnificent mansion on the ancestral lands of "the Pilgrim Fathers", Col. Edward H. R. Green, the multi-millionaire son of Hetty Green, looked around for "new worlds to conquer" and hit upon radio, not as a mere pastime, but absorbing study. An aerial 100 feet high astnds out against the sky-line and neighbors for miles around listen nightly to his station, "The Voice from Way Down East."

This is one of a series of hobbies which began for the colonel as a boy when he started a chicken farm in Texas and ran the whole gamut from mules to fishing and politics to baseball. He introduced the first automobile, and the first airplane in that state and topped off his career there when he purchased the world's largest private yacht.

Few of his friends realize, however, that Col. Green was interested radio before he came to Massachusetts. He was an amateur in Texas, when radio was young, and began his experiments about the time that he became a member of the American Radio Relay League. He has since maintained active concern in the welfare of amateur radio.

His other hobbies, including a house-boat, a Texas railroad and a stamp collection, are now held secondary to radio and he spends a great deal of his time riding around his beautiful estate, dotted with artificial lakes, in his electric auto equipped with wireless.

The broadcast station, planned by Col. Green in conjunction with several leading engineers of the country, is a well furnished home itself with a reception room. His programs are of the best, since they are sent from New York by wire, and as the evening breeze blows in from the shore, hundreds listen to what they call the colonel's "jazz fog."

Happiness Through Thrift

Was Advice of Harding

By S. W. STRAUS, President American Society for Thrift

OF THE many cherished words which a grieving nation today is recounting as a valued heritage from our late President none perhaps are more typical of the man himself than his utterances urging the practices of thrift by his fellow countrymen.

President Harding was himself a man of thrift. He understood its values and practiced its virtues. His appreciation of the value of it to the individual was outlined in the following words:

"No habit is so easy to form, none so hard to break, as that of reckless spending. And on the other side, none is more certain to contribute to security and happiness than the habit of thrift, of savings, of careful management of all business concerns, of balancing budgets and living within incomes.

"If I could urge upon the American people a single rule applicable to every one of them as individuals, and to every political or corporate unit among men, it would be to learn to spend somewhat less than your income all the time."

It is one of the splendid truths of existence that good words and good deeds do not perish with those who were responsible for them. In the broader sense therefore President Harding still lives, and he will so continue to live for many generations to come. He will live in the imperishable truths he has uttered; in the many expressions of wholesome counsel he has given to those of us who have the honor to be his compatriots.

In these days when economic stabilization is so much needed everywhere and when a general appreciation of the necessity of settling down to a long era of working and saving is so urgent throughout the world, it is well that we have preserved for us the splendid words of him who so short a time ago went his way among us a living man.

(Continued from Page 2) mer. Mabel Trott, Edith Robison, Katherine Parsons, Nellie Hake, Margaret McCoy and Gertrude Brown; the last two named being there in spirit only.

Plans had been perfected for the entertainment of the young folks, and everyone had a most merry time. There was not one dull moment.

It might have been called a "Watermelon Party" for most toothsome watermelons were the piece de resistance of the feast. Those there were: the Rev. B. C. Miller, and Margaret and Nelson Miller, Mrs. Peterson, of Pioneer avenue and Mrs. Lillian Inman, Hugh Gilmore, and the Misses Cecile and Marguerita Moore, Lillian Elder, Opal Harver, Lucile Carson, Margaret Fowler, Esther Skagga, Maude Ray and Marjorie Payne.

For a goodnight, young voices blended happily in a song fest of familiar hymns. Those who made this delightful evening possible were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams and Mr. C. N. Gilmore and daughter, Morea Gilmore.

Tokio Girls Travel

Through the courtesy of a number of members of the Civic club, the "Girls from Tokio" were travelling yesterday—that is, they motored down the valley and their objective, our neighbor on the north. The object: to create interest in the pageant, "A Night in Dreamland," to be given Thursday evening. Five cars filled with merry "Eastern Maids" accompanied by a number of others of the cast of the pageant.

The "Maids" were easily distinguishable by the brilliancy of their costumes and no doubt occasioned more than a little curiosity and interest in the coming entertainment.

Mrs. Provost with her guest, and Mrs. Fracht, were of the party. Mrs. Provost is hostess in the garden party scene.

Those who made the trip possible by driving their cars were: Mrs. Clapp, Mrs. F. G. Swendenberg, Mrs. Emil Peil, Mrs. Maxey, and Mrs. Wing.

SUFFERED WITH BACK, RECOVERED

"I had a long spell of Typhoid Fever which played havoc with my kidneys and I suffered a good deal with my back, lower abdomen and bladder. I went on in this condition until I used Foley Kidney Pills. I have never been bothered with my kidneys since," writes Mrs. W. T. Clary, White Plains, Va. For quick relief from backache, dull headache, rheumatic pains and kidney and bladder trouble use Foley Kidney Pills. Sold everywhere.

WELL DIGGER IN CHICO DISCOVERS GOOD COLOR

CHICO, Cal., Aug. 23.—Gold was found last week within 100 yards of the city limits. A workman on the Morehead tract, a piece of land being subdivided noticed "color" in the soil while digging a well. An improvised pan was brought into use and the first shovelful revealed a fair showing. For the rest of the day workmen snatched spare moments for experiments in gold panning.

You will find this to be true That your automobile lubricated with Zerolene will run from 25% to 50% farther without needing to have its valves ground or cylinders rebored. This is so because Zerolene forms so little carbon. That you will get more mileage from your gasoline, because Zerolene, giving better lubrication continuously, permits the delivery of more engine power to the wheels on the ground. That Zerolene will reduce your repair expense to a minimum and give you greater satisfaction in driving. Therefore we say, "Insist on Zerolene—a better oil—even if it does cost less."
