

Ashland Daily Tidings

(Established in 1876)

Published Every Evening Except Sunday by
THE ASHLAND PRINTING CO

Bert R. Greer Editor

OFFICIAL CITY PAPER Telephone 39
Entered at the Ashland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

Subscription Price, Delivered in City
One Month $.65
Three Months 1.95
Six Months 3.75
One Year 7.50

By Mail and Rural Routes:
One Month $.65
Three Months 1.95
Six Months 3.50
One Year 6.50

DISPLAY ADVERTISING RATES:
Single insertion, per inch30
Yearly Contracts:
One insertion a week $.27 1/2
Two insertions a week25
Daily insertion20

Rates For Legal and Miscellaneous Advertising
First insertion, per 8 point line $.10
Each subsequent insertion, 8 point line05
Card of Thanks 1.00
Obituaries, per line02 1/2

WHAT CONSTITUTES ADVERTISING
"All future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection taken is Advertising.
No donations to charities or otherwise will be benevolent orders.

DONATIONS:

No discount will be allowed Religious or made in advertising, or job printing—our contributions will be in cash.

SEPTEMBER 13

HEAR, O ISRAEL:—The Lord our God is one Lord. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.—Deuteronomy 6:4, 5.

GOVERNMENT COSTS

It costs $8,500,000,000 a year to govern the people of this country, according to a computation made for the Budget, issued monthly by the Federal Budget Committee.

On the basis of forty million workers, whose gross income is $60,800,000,000 a year, this means that the burden of government on every man and woman in business or professional life, including the 2,000,000 persons who are on the public pay rolls in nation, states, cities, counties, would be about $220 annually. If they should contribute labor instead of dollars, every worker would give as his or her share more than seven weeks' labor every year. Every week one of us would work approximately one day without pay as our contribution to the cost of preserving life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness under our system of government.

We maintain in civil life and in the national defense full-time employees to the number of all the military forces we sent abroad during the World War. In the lists are more than 50,000 town and city firemen, 82,000 policemen, 115,000 guards, watchmen and door-keepers, 107,000 common laborers, 12,000 detectives and 10,000 sheriffs, 56,000 city and county inspectors of various kinds, 32,000 postmasters, 225,000 sailors, soldiers and marines, 2,300 life-savers, and so on down to snake doctors and star-gazers.

The census of 1920 gives the total number of workers within the United States as 41,614,248. One out of every twenty is, therefore, on a public pay roll.

The cost of maintaining the various forms of government that are a part of the United States is apportioned as follows: Federal government, $4,666,671,594; forty-eight state governments, $1,008,540,232; 253 municipal governments in cities of more than 30,000 inhabitants $1,638,296,052; municipal governments of towns and cities of from 2,500 to 30,000 population, $431,278,059; municipal governments of 12,905 incorporated communities of less than 2,500 population, $123,147,687; county governments of forty-eight states, $592,068,972; making the total cost of American government in 1921 $8,460,011,587.

HOME AGAIN

A frail little woman in black stepped into a train at Washington. It was Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, returning to Marion, O.

Other women, of course, have been called upon to tread the same solitary road, with heaviness of heart and a burden of grief. It is a sad chapter that has been written for Mrs. Harding, and the nation's heart will go out to her as she returns to the scenes of the happiest years of her life. One cannot entirely comprehend the emotions which rise to choke and overwhelm under such circumstances until one has actually passed through the experience involved in laying a loved one, a helpmate in life, into the silent tomb.

Mrs. Harding had grown to be very popular in the political life of Washington. Her intense interest in everything which was a part of the government, even the shrubbery and the white house squirrels and other pets, all spoke of a human nature which she possessed. Some called it a "Main Street" temperament, but all recognized in this fine quality which Mrs. Harding demonstrated, something very gentle and delightful—almost spiritual, if not quite all of that.

The task of collecting personal effects, superintending their assignment to proper boxes, and the hundred and one details which are a part of the experiences through which the former "First Lady of the Land" has just passed, all combine to form a very heavy load to carry at such a time. No doubt there are moments when the flesh does not seem capable of bearing up under the strain, but God in his infinite mercy always grants the adequate strength to perform necessary work.

Away from scenes of almost regal importance and splendor, Mrs. Harding will seek solitude and rest amid the quietness and wholesome atmosphere of a little Ohio town. Memory will keep alive the years that have fled; glorious years of comradeship, the one with the other. Now that the silver thread is broken, and a companionship severed, the nation will not forget, but in its prayers will seek the divine direction and support for the one who is left to bear her sorrows alone.

FAIR REACHING RESULTS OF JAPAN'S CALAMITY

The people of Japan seem duly sensible of the generous sympathy and aid extended them by foreign nations because of the disaster which has caused such frightful loss of life and tremendous destruction of homes and other property.

There was no need of an appeal for assistance, for news of the catastrophe had no sooner reached America and other countries than contributions of food and money began to go forward. This spontaneous help, in such liberal measure, was a fine manifestation of the sympathy which influences humanity under the circumstances, throughout the world.

Such proof of friendliness in time of need surely must affect favorably and permanently public sentiment in Japan, and tend in future to promote amicable relations between her people and those of other nations.

Moreover, the losses have been so enormous as to seriously cripple her military and naval resources, and to suspend or set aside for a long period all policies of imperialism and territorial expansion hitherto entertained.

"It will be twenty-five years before Japan can even think of war," says Captain Edward A. Salisbury, "of New York and California, in an interview published by the New York World. He is quoted as a world traveler, economist and student of social and political conditions who had recently returned from a visit to that country.

He emphasizes the fact that the Japanese government, as well as the people in the stricken cities, must have suffered heavily, as owner of railroads, bridges, buildings and other national property. Remarking that for four years past business has not been good in Japan, her exports being only half the value of her imports, Captain Salisbury further says:

In view of this catastrophe, I think there will be no need for the west coast of the United States to worry about war with Japan for at least a quarter of a century.

Meanwhile the Japanese must look to our Pacific Coast for the enormous supplies of lumber and other building materials needed for the rebuilding of Tokio, Yokohama and the cities shattered and burned. And no doubt much American and other foreign capital will be borrowed for reconstruction purposes.

It is predicted that the cities named will be rebuilt along modern lines, with broad streets and business structures of steel and concrete, on foundations made as resistant as possible to the severe shocks of earthquake which are virtually certain to recur again any age.—Sacramento Bee.

Fish stories are approaching the last chapter.

Autumn's drawback is that she is the come-on of winter.

Something impossible to explain—the man who lives in a town for thirty years who tells the new-comer that he had better move on. They are here, they are everywhere.

There is no law compelling an individual to remain in a place he dislikes, except the penitentiary and insane asylum "Move On" is good advice to the fellow who has nothing but knocks for his home town and community.

SOCIETY

MRS. GRACE E. ANDREWS, Editor
Phone items to her at 345-R, between 10 A. M. and 2 P. M. and evenings.

Neighbors have Picnic

Ashland Neighbors of Woodcraft entertained the Phoenix Neighbors at a six o'clock picnic dinner in Lithia Park, Friday evening of last week.

All the good things commensurate with picnic appetites were present to satisfy the inner man and jollity and neighborliness were very much in evidence at the feast.

The visit continued long after the supper was over and tables were cleared.

The officers of this organization are Mrs. Phillpott, Guardian Neighbor, Mrs. Abbott, Advisor, Mrs. Roberts, Clerk, Mrs. Prescott, Magician, Mrs. Hicks Capt., of the Guards, Past Guardian, Mrs. Baughman, Mrs. Shelton, Attendant, and Mr. Stenrett Outside, and Mr. L. A. Roberts Inside Guard.

Go To College

September marks the departure of many of our young people for their schools.

Some of them are taking regular courses and others are specializing in their chosen fields of endeavor.

Miss Margaret Johnson will continue to her work in Home Economics and Miss Margaret McCoy will take up that work at O. A. C.

Herbert Doran is beginning his preparation for the ministry and will enter the Occidental College at Los Angeles.

Miss Pauline Plummer will study Pipe Organ under Paul McConnell and Piano with Robert Harkness, the Australian who is accounted such a wonderful accompanist.

Miss Edith Robison takes a regular music course specializing in voice. Both Miss Plummer and Miss Robison will carry Bible studies.

Walter Miksch, Frederick and Paul Koehler are taking the regular college courses as are a number of others.

Miss Marguerita Moore is continuing her Normal training at Fresno and Mrs. Murphy is specializing in "Rural Work" at O. A. C.

Many others of Ashland's young people are leaving for their Colleges and Universities, a goodly number, as is seen, out of the state.

A Week-End in Dead Indian

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Costolo of Church Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Conner of Medford, went out Saturday evening to the Dead Indian country to spend the week-end as they have done a number of times lately.

They combined a restful outing and the effort to locate the elusive deer, which effort they hope will be successful this time; at any rate they will have a pleasant outing even if the prime object of the expedition is not accomplished.

Meetings at the Churches

The Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet at Mrs. Ralph Billings on Friday of this week. The W. C. T. U. also met at the M. E. church Tuesday for their election of officers.

The Missionary Society of the Christian church holds its meetings the first Friday of each month, and had their regular program at the church at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ritchie is the leader. They will have the missionary program as outlined.

The social organization of the Presbyterian church, the Wednesday club, had its initial meeting of the year Wednesday of this week.

The aid society also meets on Friday for work.

Meeting at Library

The ministerial union of the city met last week in the Library, and elected officers for the coming year. Rev. F. J. Chaney is the new president, Rev. F. C. Koehler, vice-president, and Miss Louise Pinnell, Past- of the Nazarene church Secy-Treas of that organization.

Pertinent and Pithy

This little jingle, from the pen of Mr. H. C. Gilmore of 283 Scenic Drive seems particularly apt and will strike responsive a chord in the minds of the delighted visitors to our city.

Sing a song of tourists—Don't know where to go. Searching for a perfect spot, Looking high and low. When they reach dear Ashland, This is their only woe; That they did not come here sooner—

Yes, many years ago. He adds, Lithia Park and Ashland Creek, should be visited at least: all the week.

A Pleasant Outing

Another of the pleasant outings planned by the Orres' for the pleasure of their guest, Mr. A. M. Steffen-son, was a trip to the Caves over the week-end. The returned Monday evening.

The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Orres and Edna, Miss Louise Lennart, and Mr. A. M. Steffen-son, the guest at the Orres' home. They camped at the Caves, and spent several hours in a most thorough exploration. They considered they had had a wonderful experience. It was the first visit for all the party.

There has been 13,000 visitors at the Caves so far, this season, but expect several thousand more before the season closes.

The discovery of a new and wonderful cave in Marble Mountain twelve miles out from Grants Pass, is creating considerable excitement.

The Gold Hill Cement Plant people made the discovery, while blasting. The room is filled with beautiful formations, although some were destroyed in the blasting. They expect to uncover others as they go farther into the mountain.

It seems the finding occurred just last week. Could the Orres' have spared the time they would have visited the new discovery.

Party at Mrs. George Robison's

Mrs. George Robison of Second St. was hostess, Friday evening, of last week at a pleasant little card party, for two tables.

This group of friends are having a series of these delightful evenings together and are contemplating a club organization.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Robison's hospitality were the Mesdames O. B. Turner, S. M. Rhodes, J. H. Sugg, Jennie Schwan, Mrs. Ida L. of Talent a sister of Mrs. Robison's, Crandall, Noyes and Mrs. Denham Little Jamie Sugg and Virginia Crandall were also there.

The hostess served most delightful refreshments at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders Sr. spent Sunday with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roy in Grants Pass.

It will be remembered that the Roy's are formerly of Ashland, people having lived here until a few years ago.

Mrs. Enders spent Tuesday as the Guest of Mrs. George Eubanks at her home on Wimer Street.

A Farewell Affair

Miss Edith Robison was the gracious young hostess at her home on Beach Street, Monday evening at a farewell party before the pleasant associations of the school years were broken by the separation incident to the attendance at College and University.

Fall Flowers added beauty to the rooms and gay voices and laughter indicated that happy hearts sped the passing hours.

Music, both piano and voice played its part in the evening's entertainment, but a hint of fun was afforded by a Trio, "The Eternal Triangle Trio" represented by the Misses Pauline Plummer, Margaret McCoy and Gertrude Brown, who put on a wonderful entertainment.

The initiation of the young men followed. Just the particular form and its particular purpose, history sayeth not.

Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by an attractive hostess, reluctant good byes were spoken.

Those who shared this happy evening with their young hostess were, the Misses Nellie Hake, Gertrude Brown, Margaret McCoy, Mabel Trott, Pauline Plummer, Katherine Parsons, and the Messrs, Frederick and Paul Koehler, Gleen Wilde, Ot- to Neidermeyer, Donald Wright, Ralph Robison and William Hunt.

First Meeting of the Art Club

The first meeting of the Art Club occurred at the Civic Club House, Monday evening of this week.

There was much business to attend to at this time; among other things, the appointment of a treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Shortridge, to fill the unexpired term left vacant by Mrs. Bush's going to Los Angeles to make her home.

Letter to friends report that she is nicely established and enjoying her new home very much.

After the business session closed, the hostess of the evening, Miss Hicks and Mrs. Semra Gray, served delicious refreshments during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller received a telegram this morning announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Umphrette at Corvallis, Tuesday, September the eleventh.

Mrs. Umphrette was formerly Miss Miller and an efficient and popular member of Ashland's teaching force and her friends are sending good wishes to the little daughter and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Umphrette in the acquisition of the new member of the household.

Reception for Teachers

Most elaborate plans are being made for the reception to be tendered the teachers on Sept. 25.

Committees whose success is presaged by the personnel, have been assigned the various duties incident such an elaborate function.

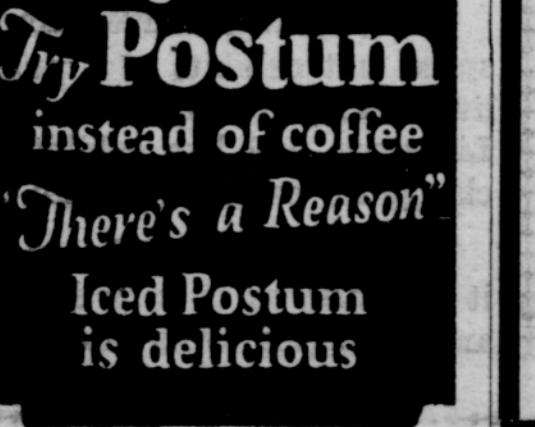

The Program Committee is under the efficient guidance of Mrs. A. E. Woods and Mrs. Whitney, the Social Committee has Mrs. Guy Good as chairman, and Mrs. Swednaburg is at the head of the refreshment Committee.

The personnel of the Reception Committee is from the P. T. A., the Civic Club and a representative from each school building.

The Committee follows:

Wishing for sleep is a poor way to get it.

Try Postum instead of coffee. There's a Reason! Iced Postum is delicious

Messrs and Mesdames Don Whitney, P. E. Provost, K. P. Nims, B. C. Forsythe, Louis Schwein, C. L. Spindler, Homer Billings, V. O. N. Smith, H. C. Galey, J. H. McGee, Guy Good, and Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Woods.

Mrs. L. M. Wright, Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Mrs. Emil Peil, and Mrs. A. J. E. Joy.

The Misses Allen and Meyers and Mr. George A. Briscoe.

There is a two-fold object to be attained at this gathering; that the teachers may meet each other and that the parents and all interested may meet the teachers.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested to attend the Reception on Sept. 28.

Spend Few Days at Lake of Woods Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Fridger and baby motored out to the Lake of the Woods on Friday last, they were accompanied by Mrs. Greene and her daughter Frances.

The party returned after a most pleasant outing at the Lake, on Monday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders Sr. spent Sunday with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roy in Grants Pass.

It will be remembered that the Roy's are formerly of Ashland, people having lived here until a few years ago.

Mrs. Enders spent Tuesday as the Guest of Mrs. George Eubanks at her home on Wimer Street.

A Farewell Affair Miss Edith Robison was the gracious young hostess at her home on Beach Street, Monday evening at a farewell party before the pleasant associations of the school years were broken by the separation incident to the attendance at College and University.

Fall Flowers added beauty to the rooms and gay voices and laughter indicated that happy hearts sped the passing hours.

Music, both piano and voice played its part in the evening's entertainment, but a hint of fun was afforded by a Trio, "The Eternal Triangle Trio" represented by the Misses Pauline Plummer, Margaret McCoy and Gertrude Brown, who put on a wonderful entertainment.

The initiation of the young men followed. Just the particular form and its particular purpose, history sayeth not.

Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by an attractive hostess, reluctant good byes were spoken.

Those who shared this happy evening with their young hostess were, the Misses Nellie Hake, Gertrude Brown, Margaret McCoy, Mabel Trott, Pauline Plummer, Katherine Parsons, and the Messrs, Frederick and Paul Koehler, Gleen Wilde, Ot- to Neidermeyer, Donald Wright, Ralph Robison and William Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller received a telegram this morning announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Umphrette at Corvallis, Tuesday, September the eleventh.

Mrs. Umphrette was formerly Miss Miller and an efficient and popular member of Ashland's teaching force and her friends are sending good wishes to the little daughter and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Umphrette in the acquisition of the new member of the household.

Reception for Teachers

Most elaborate plans are being made for the reception to be tendered the teachers on Sept. 25.

Committees whose success is presaged by the personnel, have been assigned the various duties incident such an elaborate function.

The Program Committee is under the efficient guidance of Mrs. A. E. Woods and Mrs. Whitney, the Social Committee has Mrs. Guy Good as chairman, and Mrs. Swednaburg is at the head of the refreshment Committee.

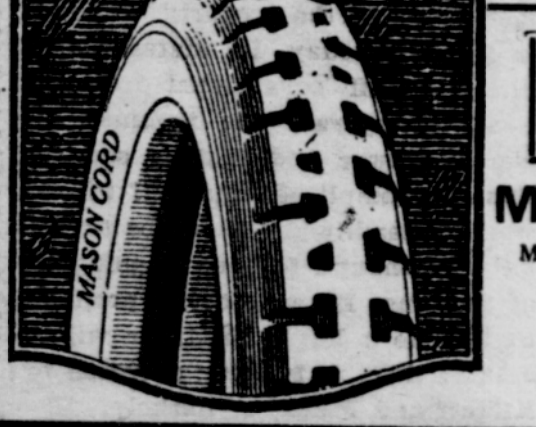

The personnel of the Reception Committee is from the P. T. A., the Civic Club and a representative from each school building.

The Committee follows:

COMPARE THESE PRICES

REMEMBER!! There Are No Finer Tires Than Mason Cords.

32x4 CL	10 55	34x4 SS	21 15
Maxi-Mile	Oversize
30x3 1/2 SS	11 80	32x4 1/2 SS	26 40
Maxi-Mile	Oversize
30x3 1/2 CL	13 50	33x4 1/2 SS	27 00
Oversize
30x3 1/2 SS	14 75	34x4 1/2 SS	27 80
Oversize
32x3 1/2 SS	17 95	35x4 1/2 SS	28 45
Oversize
31x4 SS	19 50	36x4 1/2 SS	29 20
Oversize
32x4 SS	19 95	35x5 SS	36 70
Oversize
33x4 SS	20 55	37x5 SS	38 55
Oversize

50 GOOD CIGARETTES 10¢ GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM TOBACCO

and the one whose birthday was the inspiration of the jolly party, Miss May Hadfield.

Something to See At the Library

Beginning this week, and lasting for a month, there is now being placed in the library, a beautiful exhibit of famous pictures.

They are shown in the colors of the original paintings and are a rare collection, that Miss Hicks has secured from the State Library.

These are accompanied by books that may be taken out by readers, who wish to know more of these works of art and theorists.

There are thirty four pictures under the head of British artists, and sixteen painted by famous Americans.

They are well worth a visit to the library to enjoy and study. The list of artists is too long to enumerate but you will find hung, well-known pictures from the hand of Reynolds, Gainsborough, Romney, Hoppner, Landseer, Turner, Millais, Burne-Jones, Lawrence, and from others perhaps equally famous.

Of Americans, Gilbert Stuart, Inness, Whistler, Alexander Wyant, Winslow Homer, Wm. M. Chase, John Lee Farge, Homer Martin, are the artists whose pictures it will be a pleasure to study.

Every one is invited to come to the Library, look at, study and enjoy these beautiful representations of famous paintings in their wonderful colorings.

Visitors at Mr. Porters

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haener and Eddie Schwahn motored down from Tacoma early in the week to visit for a time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Porter on Church St.

Mrs. Haener is a daughter of the Porters, and a sister of Mrs. Schwahn. Eddie Schwahn is Mrs. Schwahn's son.

THE HIGH COST OF LIFE AND LIMB

If you were injured by an automobile and had to go through life with a wooden leg, you would feel that you had a claim against the owner of that machine.

You may hit a man with your machine some day.

Such misfortunes happen to the most careful drivers.

Take out a Travelers Automobile Policy. Then if you should injure someone, you can settle up squarely with him without bankrupting yourself.

Billings Agency

Real Estate and Real Insurance. (Etab. 1883) Phone 211 41 East Main

COMPARE THESE PRICES

REMEMBER!! There Are No Finer Tires Than Mason Cords.

32x4 MASON	10 55	34x4 SS	21 15
Heavy Duty	Oversize
CORD
OVERSIZE
19 95
NFT
NO
WAR TAX

30x3 MAXI. 30x3 1/2 825 FABRICS 945 For Fords MASON CORDS Made by The Mason Tire & Rubber Co. Kent, Ohio Leedom's Tire Store Beaver Block