CATTLE REGISTRATION LAW BEING OBSERVED

PORTLAND, Sept. 18.—The dairy bull registration law has been very well observed by Oregon dairy breeders as a whole during the life of the law, reports H. N. Colman of the O. A. C., dairy staff, secretary of the registration board. Certain violations could not be prosecuted because of flaws in the original act which have now been amended and set right.

The measure provides that no person or firm in Oregon may sell, give away, or offer for public use, or buy or accept for use any dairy bull that is not registered, pure bred, and licensed to be sold. Public service is defined as breeding any cow in herds of five or more cows not owned by owner of bull.

The dairy department at the college constitutes the dairy registration board.

Responsibility and penalty for violation of the act was placed by the last legislature on the received as well as the purveyor of animals sold or used illegally. Permission to obtain a temporary license to sell animals meeting the registration requirements but not yet licensed, may be granted by the board, made up of P. M. Brandt, head of dairying at the college, and members of his staff.

Interpretations by the attorney-general's office permit much of the "red-tape" to be cut and the law more readily and effectively administered.

The board depends upon breeders, county agents, farm bureaus and others interested in raising the standard of dairy livestock, for information on violations or attempted violations of the law. Special information as to cases, names, dates and other legal points is essential.

GUIDE SAVED BY ROPE FREEZING IN GLACIER

Geneva, Sept. 19.—An extraordinary incident unique in the annals of alpine climbing is reported from the Bernese Oberland, where a woman climber and her guide were saved from certain death by their rope freezing into the glacier in which they were trapped.

The woman, Mme. Coninz, with a guide named Bischoff, was ascending the Monch when the guide slipped and fell into a deep crevasse. Mme. Coninz had the presence of mind to throw herself flat on the snow, saving herself from being dragged over, but she was unable to pull up the guide.

Thus they remained for several hours until finally the guide, despairing of help, decided to sacrifice himself to save the woman, and begged her to cut the rope.

She at first refused, but at last yielded to his entreaties and cut it. To the great astonishment of both it did not fall. The cord had cut deeply into the ice and had frozen to the glacier and the guide re-longer until help arrived when they were both got out by means of ropes.

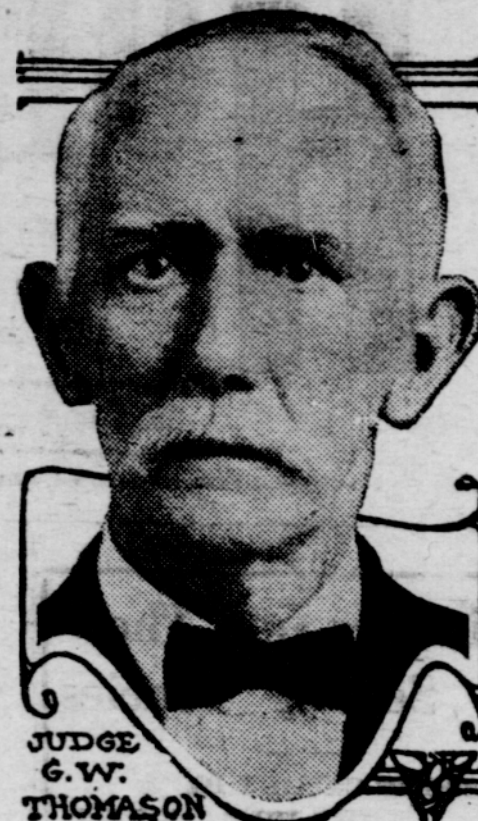

Where was Mrs. Place's Deer—Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kruggel Fred Kruggel accompanied by J. F. Place and H. W. Mitchell motored to the Klamath Lake region Saturday to be on the spot at the opening of the duck season. They report a good lot of ducks and Mr. Mitchell was able to bring home a few fish. Owing to the rough condition of the roads the party were tired when they returned to Ashland, however, a first class outing was experienced.

RENO MAN SHOTS SELF IN FOOT WHILE HUNTING

RENO, Cal., Sept. 19.—Dr. J. Le-Rue Robinson was painfully injured while hunting ducks near Washoe Lake when the shotgun was accidentally discharged. The charge entered the physician's left foot. First aid was given by Dr. S. K. Morrison, who was hunting with Dr. Robinson at the time.

Alabama Mayor Says Tanlac Restored His Health

JUDGE G. W. THOMASON

Judge G. W. Thomason, Mayor of Tarrant City, Alabama, widely known and highly esteemed pioneer citizen, recently gave his unqualified endorsement to the Tanlac treatment.

"Chronic indigestion brought me to the verge of a general breakdown three years ago," said Judge Thomason, "and nothing seemed to afford much relief. I was eating scarcely enough to keep going on and food stayed in my stomach like a rock, causing pain and extreme nervousness. Sleep was often impossible, and I gradually weakened so I could hardly attend to my office duties.

"The first bottle of Tanlac improved my appetite and digestion appeared and I rested better at night. Each successive bottle gave added impetus to my returning strength, and I felt ten years younger when I finished the sixth bottle a short time later. Tanlac gave me new zest in life that still remains with me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.
