YOUNG "DAVIDS" SHOOT AT FARMER'S PUMPKINS

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio, Sept. 21—That local youngsters are "Just as good shots as was David," hero of Biblical days, is the claim made by Henry Richardson, who appealed to Mayor H. M. Davies for protection—not for himself, but for his pumpkins.

Richardson explained that, instead of aiming at Goliaths, the youngsters here used his pumpkins as targets for their sling-shots. He said nearly every one of the pumpkins in his garden were punctured and, he feared, ruined.

New Lamp Burns 94% Air

BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil). The inventor, V. M. Johnson 161 Union, Ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 day's FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and with out experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Mrs. Gottsche Entertains at Luncheon—

One of the most charming of luncheons was given by Mrs. Carl A. Gottsche, at Green Gables, their country home in Bellview, Wednesday of this week.

Covers were laid for ten guests and harmonious color and decorative arrangements made a most artistic setting for the delightful two-course luncheon, given in compliment to Miss Eleanor Moore.

Fragrant petunias, as a centerpiece, from which extended pink ribbons to the edge of the table gave the delicate pink and white color scheme, and beside the place cards there were the dearest little rice-boats, as favors, carrying the best of luck and happiness to each favored guest.

The afternoon was spent in an informal way. The guests, all close friends, spent the passing hours in happy reminiscence and dainty needle work occupied dainty fingers. All will treasure the afternoon as one of their very pleasant memories.

Glimpses Into The Season Fancies

A RESUME CAUGHT BY THE IDLE SHOPPER

(By Miss Lathia)

Keep Your Hair in Tow—

And be pretty! Dame Fashion has decreed big handkerchiefs to cover your curly locks and when you're out-of-doors you'll experience naught but delight on your hike and when the path is narrow and twigs may ruin your coiffure save them. Maybe you're dignified and love the somber grey and oriental patterns made for the blue-eyed and cream skinned girl.

There Was a Day—

When the wind rustled leaves in giddy whirl winds and created festoons of lovely mirages with early autumn leaves that some kiddy with its mother tottered thru a short cropped leave strewn path with willow trees bending to grotesque outlines along the horizon line. Make that same tot delighted with a brilliant yellow cape, knitted on long lines like mothers and tied close at the neck with a cord. Oh, what pleasure is there in the checked brush wool collar that shapes the tiny shoulder. For the hazel eyed miss there is a blue and white cape or still a brown one for the girl who goes to school. Ask to see some when you're weary and want refreshment.

Enchantment Springs from—

Mingled twilight and firelight. When you dream of burnished gold and crimson leaves that climb fire places with budding hydrangias sheltered on balustrades or fuchsia avenues bordering majestic swan ponds, maybe hidden glades of sea-shore lines flavored with salty breeze, don't you think of Maxfield Parish pictures? There's a store that keeps every print and one glorious harmony of modulated tone in color is made to fit your mood, room and most delightful of all, your pocket book. Everyone knows the assurance there is in good pictures. Have more of them in your shrine.

To Satisfy the Oriental Liking—Hasten to the store and purchase a sweater. The season's most complex sweater is sure to be the one you've been haunted by. Some of them resemble sun sets, others make you think of fat pink babies for their soft and precious, one sweater reminds a person of green grass powdered with dandelions early in the spring. If the husky tennis girl fails to meet the fast swerving ball it's because she's hampered with undue apparel. Jump into a slip-on and out-of-town doors.

For the Girl—Who makes her own sweaters there are abundant supplies of new yarns coming every day. Some are warm tones in silk and wool while some appear like camels hair, because of their firm softness. They aren't expensive and with the colors you'll find on your shopping tour many more than one garment can be yours for this season.

Something New, Something Different Is always the cry of modern clothes. To satisfy part of the demand is the introduction thru local merchants of sweaters in packages. Yarn complete in colors and quantity with directions and a model are at the command of the hasty knitter. The creations are individual and you are assured of individuality in yarn, weave and pattern when you buy. Any clerk will gladly show you their supply.

Once More the Baby—Scores a hit, Fancy layettes and robes are prepared already for some happy person to combine in knitting. Perhaps it will be apple green with blue and rose blossoms in embroidery, maybe a whole sky blue creation with a swerving sprig of Japanese pear or a baby horn is to be checked and dotted into being. Keep the baby warm and fuzzy when beauty awaits so near you.

What a Funny Feeling You Have—When you're in a hurry and dash for one clean handkerchief and you find not a dozen perky pieces gleaming at you, but a blankness mocking your indolence. The next time you're in town jot down the fact of "one dozen linen handkerchiefs, some pongee and others with daisy corners." Then place one in your tiniest pocket, it will serve lots of uses, maybe to shine a blushing apple you'll gather-oh never know.

To Vie with the More Expensive—Georgette is the softest and newest of satin for underwear. Decorate your desire with lace and much of it. Handwork always compels appreciation. All colors are found.

Novelty is the Word—In jewelry. Ear rings and bracelets match, also fancy cut work on belts are noted. Many bracelets are filled with rhinestones.

Complete Your Formal Dress—With a hand finished hair ornament. Pins can be purchased at any price and splendor is reflected in every angle. Massive color schemes are wonderfully achieved. These come from the jeweler.
