GEORGE FAWCETT IN PARAMOUNT PICTURES "ONLY 38" WITH GEORGE FAWCETT BE HERE SOON

One of the nicest and simple love stories of the silent screen is to be here soon at the Vining Theatre, in "Only 38." Further assurance of a good play is the fact that May McAvoy, Lois Wilson, Elliott Dexter and George Fawcett are the principals. You may think, and rightly so, that there will be some humor in connection with George Fawcett present. Fawcett, always giving a quizzical quirk to even the most serious of situations, is the father of a young woman, widow of a minister, who does things at "38" which her two children, boy and girl, consider to be very irrelevant and inharmonious to the teachings of their father. Lois Wilson is a beautiful mother and Elliott Dexter is the college professor who skillfully aids the widow's daughter out of an embarrassing situation, after having had a canoe accident. Its the story of a woman rebelling against the deadening idea that she is getting old. "Only 38" will be at the Vining Sunday and Monday, Friday and Saturday, an extravaganza of high life, and the lost sheep will be seen in the exciting story "The Ninety and Nine."

HARVEY RESIGNS POST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5—Ambassador George Harvey has resigned his post as ambassador to the Court of St. James, and is returning to America about the first of January. It was learned officially today at the state department. The resignation is said to be in line with an agreement between he and President Harding, prior to Harvey's return to England. No mention has been made of a probable successor. Reports have prevailed in Washington for some time that Harvey is slated to become one of the most important in its presidential campaign in 1924, managers of the Republican party.

FIND RANCHER ON ROAD UNCONCIOUS

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Oct. 5—Tom Cregan, aged 70, a rancher on the Rock Point road five miles from this city, is in the Klamath General hospital today in a dangerous condition following a fall from his wagon yesterday and a paralytic stroke. He was found by the roadside yesterday and his team was some distance away. Whether he suffered the stroke before or after falling from the wagon was not known. There were several abrasions about the head. He may not recover.

If you had to live your life over again the chances are you would take a different kind of a fool of yourself.
