

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

A Daily Chronicle of those who come and go, and events of local interest.

Move to Ashland—

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, formerly of Klamath Falls have moved to Ashland and are domiciled at 266 Third street. Mr. Smith is a mason and builder and has come to Ashland with Mrs. Smith for a rest and vacation.

First dance of year—Nat'l Guard benefit dance—to-night at Armory.

Recovering from Heart Attack—

J. K. Pigney of 323 Helman street is improving after a severe spell of heart trouble.

If you like good kraut, order some from the fresh barrel at Plaza Market.

In the South—

Mrs. Carrie Ryan of the Port Shasta Restaurant on A street, is in Sacramento and San Francisco combining business with pleasure and will remain away three weeks. Miss Mabel Peterson and Mrs. Chet Robinson are taking care of her business.

Your Sunday dinner will be as tasty and appealing as the meat. To be sure get your steaks and roasts from the Eagle Market.

Team Goes North—

Members of the Stanford football team passed through Ashland yesterday morning enroute to Portland to meet the University of Oregon on Multnomah field Saturday. No rousing demonstration was made at the depot by the young men. At Grants Pass they were stocked up with a crate of Rogue River Valley grapes from Stanford alumni. Probably a few football fans from here will go to Portland during the week-end to see the game that is attracting attention on the coast.

Support the home dances—first one of year at Armory tonight.

May Remain Here Definitely—

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Worthington, residents of Sheridan, Oregon since 1884, have come to Ashland in hope of improving Mrs. Worthington's health. Asthma, that has caused Mrs. Worthington sickness for many years, is being improved daily and Mr. Worthington declares they may remain in Ashland permanently. They are farm owners of the Willamette valley but are living at 253 Third street.

Loveland's dance orchestra makes the music for dance tonight at Armory.

Business Visitors—

Charles R. Cooley of the Three C's Lumber Company and who is supervising the construction of the lumber shed on the Ashland Lumber Companies yard, is in Ashland from Grants Pass. F. M. Havens, also of Grants Pass, is a guest at the Hotel Ashland as a business visitor.

Recent Arrivals—

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Ellis of Great Falls are among recent arrivals. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge and daughter of Salem, Ore. are recent arrivals. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fulmer of Port Angeles are out-of-town visitors. J. H. Hattan of Dunsmuir is among guests at the Hotel Columbia. Mrs. F. F. Dahlin, A. M. Reynolds and Perry Morris of Albany are recent arrivals in Ashland. W. J. McEnerney of Dunsmuir is a business visitor.

Good kraut is nourishing. Fresh barrel just opened at Plaza Market.

Like Ashland—

Emilie K. Sallentine and Ida M. Sallentine have completed a summer vacation at Cannon Beach and have come to Ashland to live this winter. The neither of the eastern women have been in Ashland before, they are delighted with its prospects as they have been with the northern part of the state. They have taken rooms at 217 North Main street.

Cannery Workers, Notice

The Ashland cannery will not start until Wednesday, November 14. 59-2

To Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goeller and Mrs. Jennie Hurn of Klamath Falls motored to Ashland this week and were joined after a short visit here with Mrs. Goeller's sister, Dr. Bertha Sawyer, for Portland where they will spend two weeks. Dr. Sawyer will resume her practice at the end of the vacation.

The Burnside Relief Corp will hold a food sale at Hardy Brothers Grocery—Enders Building, Saturday Nov. 10th. 58-2

Returns from Hospital—

Miss Imogene Wallace, piano instructor, was operated on at the Community Hospital this week and returned to her home yesterday on Granite Street.

Special Saturday Sales, fresh and cured meats, rabbit and chickens, at Eagle Market.

Cliff Payne makes tables.

Geese Are Flying—

Rain is predicted by those who proclaim themselves weather prophets. A band of geese was heard and seen yesterday afternoon and in early days their flight predicted falling weather. Not many geese have gone south yet but the fall migration is expected.

Baptist People Meet in Medford—

Sixteen members of the Baptist church motored to Medford last night to attend a fellowship meeting of county churches held in the Baptist church recently dedicated in Medford. Because of the absence of Rev. B. C. Miller, V. O. N. Smith responded with an address from Ashland. Musical numbers on the large pipe organ were given and a tour of inspection displayed attractive points of the churches construction. O. F. Carson, Howard Gear, H. P. Holmes and V. O. N. Smith took their machines with other members.
