Remember the Story Hour

Attendance at the story hour held weekly at the library, under direction of Miss Katherine Parson, has lagged lately and kiddies complain of forgetting the date and the hour. There has been no change and none is contemplated as the story hour popularity has been marked until recently when other things have come in for their share of attention. Remember that Saturday afternoon at 2:30 is to be spent at the library as the guest of Miss Parson.

"IRENE" PROMISES ASHLAND SUPERIOR ENTERTAINMENT

The musical comedy "Irene", comes to the Vining theatre Monday night, Nov. 19, three days away. In "Irene" Ashland will get music which is good, music which is harmonious and tunes which are melodious, snappy and tingling. "Irene" is a rather peppy young woman, with lots of revolutions and thrills. As for comedy, it is well known as comical, which means fun and ridiculously impertinent situations that produce laughter. Folks in Ashland who have seen Irene are preparing to see it again here Monday night. This show probably will be the best road show of the season to make Ashland, and the opportunity of seeing its beautiful scenery and costumes, hearing its delightful music and enjoying unparalleled comedy should not be avoided. The price for the show is placed very reasonable for the size of the town in having the chance to see it without the expense of going farther. For a feature show it should produce an overflowing attendance.
