The local health committee is headed by Mrs. C. F. Tilton and all those who wish to help in this very necessary work may do so by giving her the necessary fee of fifty cents for membership.

Music Club Meets—The Music club will meet on Monday evening of next week instead of this week as was planned.

The meeting will be held at the studio of Miss Imogene Wallace and as there are important matters to be considered all members of the organization are urged to make a special effort to be present.

Ashland is very interested in the success of this club as the work it hopes to accomplish is one that is of vital importance in the musical life of the community and of keen interest to every music lover.

Covered Dish Luncheon—"Covered Dish Luncheon" is the feature of the December the fourth meeting of the Civic club.

The luncheon will be at 12:30 and it is hoped that every member will keep the date in mind.

The afternoon is purely a social affair and there will be music to enliven the occasion.

Woman's Auxiliary Meets—The Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion will hold its first meeting in its new home at the Armory Friday evening of this week.

It was decided recently to arrange the room occupied by the G. A. R. for the regular meetings of the Auxiliary.

Arrangements are planned that will make it convenient for floor work and decorations will be provided that will give a home like air to the room.

Rebekahs Meet—Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 14 held its special meeting Tuesday evening, with a large attendance to welcome the distinguished visitors present.

Mrs. Edythe Kelley, the president of Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Mary D. Moss of Lakeview, vice president of the Assembly, and Brother G. W. Trefren, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Oregon attended this session at which the degree work was exemplified.

Mrs. Kelley made a splendid address, in which keen interest was manifested and Mrs. Moss gave a pleasing talk that was much appreciated.

After the business session, the chairman of the social committee Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, with her assistants served most delicious cake and coffee.

On Saturday of this week the district convention of the Rebekah Lodge will hold its sessions in Grants Pass, from ten a. m. all day; closing with the evening meeting and a banquet. Many expect to attend from Ashland.

While here, Mrs. Edythe Kelley was the guest of Mrs. J. Z. Wing and Mrs. Mary D. Moss was entertained in the homes of her relatives, the L. A. Moss and W. J. Moore families.

The Lodge feel that this was a very successful and most enjoyable meeting.

Aid Society Meets

The Aid Society of the Baptist church held an all day session on Wednesday of this week.

A feature of these meetings is the delightful lunch that the ladies prepare and which is served at noon.

The day is occupied in work, but with it is the social part, for while busy fingers fly, friends may have the happy visit.

The week is a full one at the Baptist church, for aside from the regular meetings, Rev. Otto Ole-son, a returned missionary from China is giving addresses every evening.

Fellowship Luncheon—Tuesday evening of this week a "Fellowship Luncheon" was the feature of the "Win My Chum Campaign" being put on by the Methodist church every where this week.

At the luncheon the speakers were: Mrs. Catherine Parsons, who spoke on "Witnessing for Christ in High School;" Oliver Anderson on "Witnessing for Christ in College;" J. O. Rigg, "Witnessing for Christ in Business;" Mrs. Ruth Mitchell, "Witnessing for Christ in Devotional Meeting," and Rev. Mr. Chaney on "Witnessing in the Home."

E. O. Smith was in charge. On Monday there were thirty visitors from the Medford Epworth League as special guests that evening.

There is something very special and very worth while every evening this week for the young people at the Methodist church, in line with this campaign that is being carried on in all the Methodist churches at this particular time.

O. E. S. Meeting—At the regular meeting of the Alpha Chapter, O. E. S. there were present as invited guests, fifty members of Reames Chapter No. 66 from Medford. Their officers exemplified the initiatory work.

The social committee whose personnel consisted of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Loosley, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock, Mrs. Everton, Mrs. Maxey, Mrs. Winne and Mrs. August Schuerman, had planned a delicious repast and had spared no pains to beautify the dining room and banquet tables.

Great baskets of fruit and nuts graced the tables, and autumn leaves and greenery brightened by the vivid scarlet of laurel berries, added delightful color to table and room.

At least one hundred and fifty friends, members and guests, enjoyed the most satisfying repast prepared for them by the efficient committee.

The social feature is never neglected and everyone had a most thoroughly good time and trust that many more of these delightful meetings are in store for them.

Guests of Phoenix Society—The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church were invited guests of the Phoenix Society at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Walter Fraser-Brown near Phoenix on Tuesday of this week.

A fine program had been prepared. Songs, duet and solos, and a delightful little Missionary Playlet with the work in India as the theme, made up this program, to which should be added a perfectly splendid report of the Synodical meeting at Albany by Mrs. Angel, who was a delegate to that assembly.

The most delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Brown.

Those who were privileged to enjoy this most enjoyable meeting were Mrs. J. W. McCoy, Mrs. Van Sant, Mrs. Nims, Mrs. C. B. Lamkin, Mrs. J. R. Robertson and Mrs. Plummer.

Entertained at Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Stanton were host and hostess at an elaborate three course dinner at their pleasant rooms in the Rosemont apartments.

Duck was the motif of the dinner, but with it were the most delicious accompaniments, that proved most satisfactory to the eye and satisfying to the palate.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose were the favored guests on this occasion.

Delightful Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Glenn were gracious host and hostess at a most delightful chicken dinner at their country home near Talent last Sunday.

There were fourteen present to enjoy the delicious repast. The afternoon was spent in the happy visit of close friends and relatives.

The fortunate guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Glenn, Mrs. Ida Neil, Miss Anna Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson, Glenn Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Carter and children.

A Complete Surprise—Mrs. Wm. Nelson of B. street plans soon to make her home in Klamath Falls.

Because of the nearness of her going, her closest friends to the number of forty five planned a very complete and delightful surprise party for her.

It was a costume party, and many and varied and most unusual were the costumes worn.

A program was planned that would have done credit to finished performers. Since they came disguised, the program was given in their assumed characters.

"Silas" and "Miranda" sang, touchingly "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet". "Sophronia Perkins" recited "Going to Grandfather's House on Thanksgiving Day."

"Matilda Hanks" sang a selection from the light opera, Martha. A particularly taking feature of the entertainment was the Cake Walk by the distinguished artists "Rastus" and "Johnnie Pumpkin."

"Sambo" gave a clog dance and an "Orchestra" composed of four artists rendered beautiful selections.

"Sis Hopkins" and "Prisella Peet," sang a duet and "Silas Jones" gave a reading as did "Peggy Harris."

During the evening a party of friends brought a lovely box of delicious candy for the guest of honor of her friends.

After the old fashioned Virginia reel in which all joined, the self constituted hostess served a lovely two course luncheon of the most delicious salads, sandwiches, cakes and coffee.

Before leaving, Mrs. Nelson was presented with a very beautiful silver cake basket, in token of the love and esteem in which she is held.

Mrs. Nelson goes to a pleasant new home soon in Klamath Falls, but she holds her friends very dear and will never forget the delightful surprise given her by them.
