King's Heralds Meet

The King's Heralds will meet on Saturday, December 1, at two-thirty p. m. at the home of Donald Vestal on North Main St.

Every member is urged to be there and to bring some one with him. Don't forget the date nor the hour.

Covered Dish Luncheon

A "Covered Dish" luncheon is a feature of the next meeting of the Civic club. It is planned for December the fourth at 12:30 and every member is asked to bear in mind the date and arrange to be there.

It will be a purely social affair and ladies may bring their needle work. There will be music to enliven the hours.

Social at the Congregational Church

Last Wednesday evening there was a delightful gathering of over one hundred at the Congregational church for a get-acquainted meeting.

Committees had been appointed to arrange for a program and for refreshments, and of course every one was a committee of one to visit with his neighbor and to see that that neighbor visited with his neighbor.

Music, both vocal and instrumental, made up a very enjoyable program. It was furnished largely by the young people of the church.

Mrs. Leggett gave two interesting readings, that were very much appreciated.

The hours were spent in a social way, at the close of the well arranged program.

Refreshments of a satisfying and satisfactory type were served by a committee, that were most attentive to their feature of the evening's enjoyment.

As a fitting close, Percy Stratton, led the company in a community sing, in which old songs and hymns that every one loved were used. Mrs. Gale was at the piano.

All present voiced their enjoyment in the pleasant evening.

A Delightful Luncheon

One of the most delightful functions of the season was given at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McGee on Vista street, Friday evening of last week.

A group of friends—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Homes, Prof. I. E. Vining and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McGee, at whose hospitable home the party was given, were the hosts and hostesses.

The complimented guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Gruelle and Mrs. Oeder.

A two course luncheon was served at seven, with covers laid for ten.

The table had been arranged most artistically. The flowers used were French marigolds, and the color scheme was a harmonious development of that motif.

Shiny satin ribbon in gleaming yellow depended from the chandelier, and were carried to the corners of the perfectly appointed table.

Candles in the deeper shade, lent their soft brightness at either end, and gay marigolds added their cheerful note in this harmony of happiness.

Games, the reminiscent visit of old friends who had enjoyed so many pleasant experiences together, music that naturally led to dancing as a finale, brought to a close this delightful affair.

Entertained at Dinner

Miss Florence Allen, Miss Edna Goheen and Miss Gertie Haan were dinner guests and spent the evening with Mrs. H. W. Andrews and her sister Mrs. F. H. Conner who is here for a few weeks' visit with Mrs. Andrews, before going to her new home in Elko Nevada.

P. E. O. Meets

Chapter AC of P. E. O. Sisterhood held its regular meeting on Saturday afternoon, November 24, at the home of Miss Evangeline Poley on B Street at which time plans were made for a sale of needlework to be held early in December. The proceeds from this sale will go toward the philanthropic work of the organization. Over fifty years ago, in Iowa Wesleyan College, at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, P. E. O. had its beginning. At first a college sorority, it has gone far afield, with a present membership of about 30,000, reaching from coast to coast. One of the chief purposes of this national organization of women is to aid young women who desire an education which they cannot obtain without assistance.

The regular meeting of the local Chapter of the P. E. O. Sisterhood are held the first Tuesday evening and the fourth Saturday afternoon each month, at the homes of the members.

Indoor Picnic

On account of the inclement weather Saturday, the Junior High school teachers were forced to take refuge in the cafeteria of the school building for their picnic lunch.

The latter part of the day however, was made very enjoyable indeed, by drives to Kingsbury Springs, Medford and other places of interest.

All voted to have these "Get-togethers" often, since this one had proved so enjoyable.

Mrs. Malmgren Entertains

Mrs. T. J. Malmgren was gracious hostess, in her pleasant home in Phoenix, Saturday for luncheon and dinner at which she entertained Mrs. W. H. Mowat, Mrs. Ella Mills and Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant of Ashland most charmingly. At a late hour, the guests departed reluctantly, having spent the entire day in a most delightful visit.

Upper Valley Community Meet

The Upper Valley Community club met last Wednesday at the pleasant home of Mrs. Ed. Gowland, who with Mrs. Avery were gracious hostesses on this occasion.

Much of interest to the organization was discussed at the business meeting and plans made for the next meeting.

Oregon laws were considered under three heads: "Laws for Women and General Laws," "School Laws" and "Juvenile Laws."

Mrs. F. C. Homes discussed the first subdivision, "Laws for Women and General Laws" in a very comprehensive way, and keen interest was felt in what Oregon does for its women citizenry.

"Oregon School Laws" was the subject of an interesting talk by Mrs. Lee Tuttle, which was followed by a full discussion.

"Juvenile Laws" the last topic discussed was the subject of a well written paper by Mrs. Joy.

This closed the formal program, and the rest of the afternoon was given over to the pleasant social hour that is always a feature of these meetings.

At the close of the happy afternoon, the hostesses served tea, with all the charming accompaniments of such a pleasing function.

The serving of the refreshments at these meetings now assume the guise of a silver tea, and the organization will rejoice in the added fund in the treasury.

The rehearsals for the entertainment planned as a dual performance of the P. T. A. and the Community club are in progress and they hope to have the play sometime in December. The date will be announced later. The money so raised, however, is to be given to the P. T. A. for its use.

Mrs. W. L. Moore is chairman of the entertainment committee which is assurance of the success of plans made.

The next meeting of the Club will be in January, with Mrs. Mary Homes-Tucker hostess assisted by Mrs. F. C. Homes.

LOGGERS DIES OF INJURIES

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 27.—Thomas M. Don, a Clemons camp logger, who was injured Thursday by the falling of a tree, died yesterday at an Aberdeen hospital. Funeral arrangements are waiting word from his mother, who lives in Nova Scotia.

NORTH BEND SUGGESTS RAINBOW FOR 'WEBFOOT'

NORTH BEND, Nov. 26.—Substitution of the word "Rainbow" for "Webfoot," in reference to Oregon, is asked in resolutions adopted by the North Bend chamber of commerce. The chamber petitions the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, and through it the state legislature, various commercial and civic organizations, lodges, clubs and churches of the state to abolish what the chamber declared is an odious name. "Webfoot," the resolutions declare, has led to unfavorable impressions of Oregon climate, and many in the east, it was said, believe that Oregon is a land of "perpetual rain, mist and fog, with long, dreary winters and little sunshine."

WEDNESDAY CLUB DEC. 12

The Wednesday Club have two treats in store for the public in the near future.

Since the last meeting there have been repeated calls for another demonstration of the dainty articles that skillful fingers contrived under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Ellis and she has kindly consented to repeat this instruction at the next meeting which is December 12th.

Later in the month the second treat is scheduled. Dr. Mattie B. Shaw has promised that she will give her dramatic recital of "The House of Rimmon" for the Wednesday Afternoon club. Those who have heard Dr. Shaw in her readings, will await the entertainment with much pleasurable interest. More will be said later Van Dyke's masterpiece and of Dr. Shaw's interpretation.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Ashland who suffers headaches or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Ashland woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Ashland resident can doubt.

Mrs. S. C. McDonald, 685 B. St., says: "I know from personal experience Doan's Kidney Pills cannot be equalled for kidney trouble. I have taken them on several occasions for a lameness through my kidneys and it only required a few to relieve me of the misery. Doan's have also proven a splendid remedy for another member of the family who had considerable trouble with his kidneys." (Statement given March 15, 1916.)

On March 19, 1920, Mrs. McDonald, said: "I seldom have any sign of kidney trouble and give Doan's the credit."
