EXCELLENT DISPLAY IS GUARANTEED
Exhibit by Ashland Stores Will Eclipse All Former Efforts.
LITTLE SPACE REMAINS
Only Few Booths for Merchant's Display Remain and Will Be Allotted Today.
H. H. Elhart, who heads the committees of merchants' displays, announced yesterday that unprecedented interest is being exhibited by the merchants of Ashland in the coming Winter Fair and that at least 23 firms will be represented with excellent exhibits. The displays to be installed by the merchants will portray varied lines of merchandise and will be featured by exceptionally attractive lines, in which will be found the latest fashions, designs and articles of interest to the buying public.
So great has been the demand for space in the merchants exhibit department that practically every booth has been assigned.
And, if, with our Winter Fair, we can spread the gospel of more and better cows, we will have accomplished one of the objects of holding this exhibition. An actual exhibit of choice dairy cows would be a welcome addition to the big show, but in lieu of this the most we can expect is to have one prize bossy take the stage and, through some good interpreter of the cow language, tell us what ought to be done for the immediate furtherance of this great industry, which means everything for the growth and prosperity of our Southern Oregon country."

DAIRYING INDUSTRY AND THE WINTER FAIR

"Affair is an Aid to Growing Industry," Says Secretary J. H. Fuller.

In commenting on the Winter Fair with respect to dairying and other industries, J. H. Fuller, secretary of the Fair says:
"If there is any one thing which the Winter Fair is intended to do, it is to set forth the various lines of agricultural and industrial opportunities which this section offers and invites. With the coming of irrigation and its extension to every section of the Rogue River valley from Ashland to Grants Pass, dairying offers perhaps the greatest opportunity of any place in the United States.
"Great crops of alfalfa, the one best balanced ration yet discovered for the dairy cow, combined with an agreeable climate and not too excessive rainfall, make conditions so ideal that it is no idle dream to expect in the very near future the establishment of great factories for the condensing and distribution of these great staple products."

Ford Trucks Are Bought On Performance Records

If you were to ask a hundred—or a thousand—Ford truck owners why they use Ford trucks, in preference to all others, they would likely say, "Because the Ford stands up."
They know that under the endless grind of daily service the Ford stays on the job month in and month out, with very little mechanical care, and with practically no expense for repairs or replacements.
They would emphasize the work this truck does, not its initial cost.

Ford Trucks can be bought through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

TOY DEPT ON THE BALCONY

Toyville is a joyous place; no wonder all the little folks like that section of ours, for there all their dreams come true. Boyish laughter rings out as dancing clowns and mechanical toys perform; little girls, faces grow wistful as their arms reach out to clasp the doll that looks "just like baby" and babies cry with delight at the cuddly teddy bears. Grown folk find a visit to Toyville the best way to decide just what the children like best.
