CHEERFUL WORDS

For Many an Ashland Household To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of Ashland readers.

Mrs. Jennie Hammond, 649 E. Main St., Ashland, says: "My kidneys troubled me for some time and I had such severe backaches it was hard for me to keep going. I was hardly ever free from dizziness and headaches and the action of my kidneys was irregular. Doan's Pills helped me more than any other remedy I ever tried and it was not long before I was free from the backaches and other signs of kidney complaint."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Hammond had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. No. 41

Mr. and Mrs. Coombe were gracious host and hostess at a beautiful Thanksgiving dinner served at four to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wallen and Junior and Mr. and Mrs. Detrick and Gene and Helen Detrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Swenning Entertain
Mr. and Mrs. Swenning on Church street had as guests for Thanksgiving, Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Bechtol of Portland.
A most elaborate Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving dinner a feast. The ones enjoying this pleasant hospitality were the Misses Allen, Stephenson, Reed, Anderson, Sims, Eby, Kelting. There were a number of other guests invited for the social evening that followed.

Entertain Junior High Teachers—
Miss Edna Goheen and Mrs. Weston Henry were hostesses at a "Juvenile" party given for the teachers of Junior High at Miss Goheen's pleasant apartment at Mrs. Van Sant's.

The guests came in youthful costume; the games carried out the not-so-long-ago childhood of the guests and the refreshments were quite in line; the first course of the deliciously dainty supper served, being bread and milk and animal crackers.

The favors were all-day suckers and these were dressed by the guests. The one doing it most artistically secured a reward of merit that would delight the heart of any child.

At a late hour the guests said reluctant goodnights.

Missionary Meeting at Christian Church—
On Friday of this week, Miss Goldie Wells returned missionary from Africa and Mrs. Swope the state president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Christian church will be present at open meetings held both afternoon and evening. Mrs. Swope will have the address of the afternoon, and Miss Goldie Wells will speak at 7:30 in the evening. Every one interested is invited to these meetings.

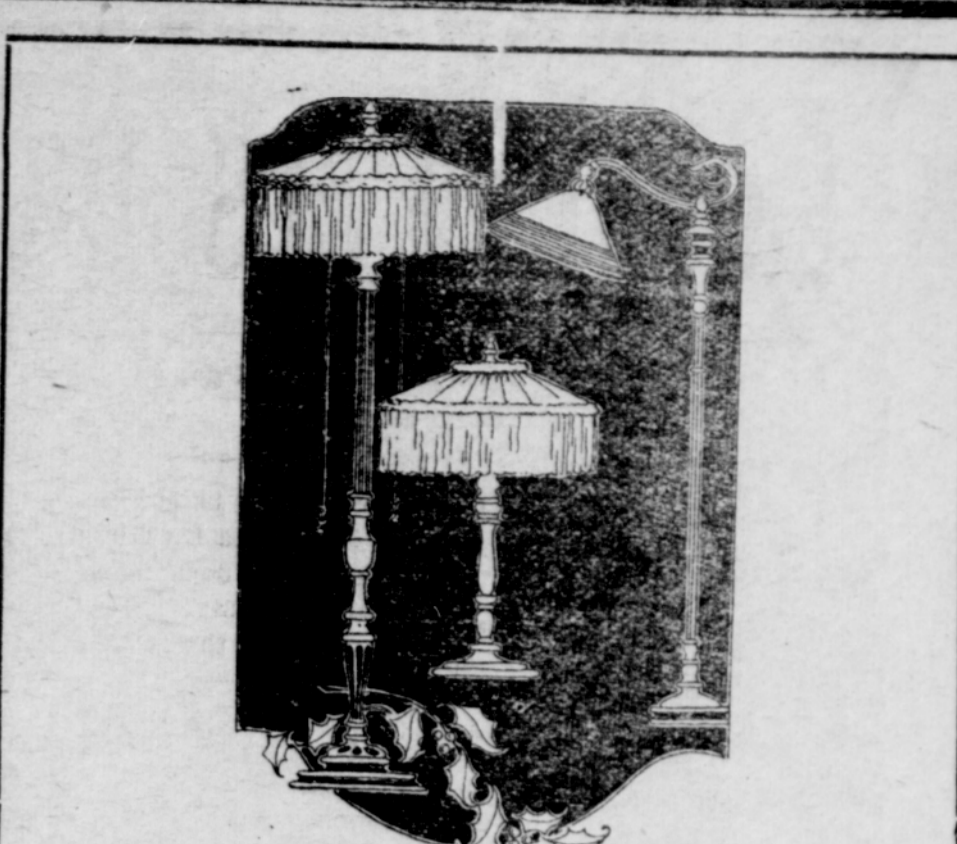

The school year opportunities arose whereby this same chapter was enabled to be of service to different high school students. It is in order to do this work on a somewhat larger scale that they will hold a bazaar on Thursday of this week at the J. P. Dodge & Sons Furniture store, where lovely gifts at all prices will be obtainable.

Do it now—get them later.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephens Entertain
Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stephens were host and hostess at a very elaborate Thanksgiving dinner to a large number of friends. A turkey, so large that it had to be prepared at a local restaurant and all the delicious things that go with a Thanksgiving feast were served at this hospitable board.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Entertain—
Mr. and Mrs. Lyman of Lincoln street had as their guests on Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Miksch of Bellview who spent the day there in a most delightful visit. Mr. and Mrs. Miksch had their Thanksgiving dinner on Friday for their son Walter Miksch, who arrived from McMinnville the night before.

Thanksgiving Dinner—
Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Anderson entertained as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Farlow, Mrs. Anderson's parents, at a delightful Thanksgiving dinner at high noon Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates Entertain on Thanksgiving—
Mrs. Selma Gray and Mr. Warner were complimented guests at a delicious six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Bates on Scenic Drive, Thanksgiving. The evening was spent in the pleasant visit of friends.

Thanksgiving at the Barber's—
Mr. and Mrs. Barber entertained Thanksgiving at a very delightful dinner, at which covers were laid for eleven. Those who enjoyed this bountiful repast were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fraley, the Messrs. Karl Rose, and David Jackson, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. F. E. Miller, Mr. Geo. Watson, and Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hazleton, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barber.

Dinner in Honor of Teachers—
The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schwein was the scene of a pleasant gathering Thanksgiving when covers were laid for nine at a four course six o'clock dinner, at which the complimented guests were Miss Hall Miss Black, Miss Ruth and Mr. Don Stephens. Those who shared this gracious hospitality enjoyed the home feeling and delightful dinner very much.

Guest at Dinner—
Mrs. Josephine D. Crocker was the special guest at a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner given by Mrs. and Mrs. M. Switzer at their cozy apartment in Mrs. Crocker's home, on Church. The dinner was at noon and the afternoon was spent in visiting.

The Pierce's Entertain—
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pierce and Mrs. Harrison entertained a number of relatives and friends.
Those who enjoyed the delightful Thanksgiving feast were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Harrison and baby, Mrs. Mosler and Miss Ruth L. Osmun.

Surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Reed—
A pleasant surprise was staged Thanksgiving evening, the occasion being the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Reed of Avery street. It was a neighborhood affair and only the immediate neighbors composed the guests. With baskets laden with delicious refreshments, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fifield, Mr. and Mrs. Gray and daughter Madge, and Mr. and Mrs. Marean proceeded to surprise most completely the host and hostess. The evening was pleasantly spent in stories told and friendly visit.

Teachers Entertained—
The Messes Temple, Manuel and Williams were hostesses at a Thanksgiving dinner, with the Hawthorne teachers as complimented guests, at the Merrill home on the Boulevard.
The dinner was served at five-thirty, Friday evening with turkey as the piece de resistance and all the other things that make of

Kiddies Will Have Xmas Cheer—
Thanks to the efforts of the W. C. T. U. in planning for the entertainment Friday night in which a number assisted, the little orphans at the Farm Home will have a Christmas.

In spite of counter attractions a large audience gathered at the Presbyterian church to enjoy the program given. This was made up of a number of interesting readings by the Rev. and Mrs. Leggett. The selections varied in sentiment—from grave to gay to suit the preferences of the listeners. Some, poems by well known authors, others clever bits of humor carrying a message.

The Quartette from the M. E. choir, Mr. Yeo, Mrs. Crews, Mrs. E. O. Smith and Miss Jean Anderson sang "I'd Like to Go Down South Once More" in their delightfully finished fashion. Miss Eva Poley and Mrs. Perry Ashcraft, sang a duet beautifully with Miss Marsters at the piano. Miss Jean Anderson and Mr. Yeo sang "Springtime" very feelingly. Mrs. Van Fosen at the piano. Mrs. E. O. Smith sang the Ward-Stephens arrangement of "There Little Girl Don't Cry" in her pleasing way. Miss Laura Prescott at the piano. A young lady whose name I did not learn accompanied Mrs. Leggett in her reading "A Far Country."

The proceeds were around $70 and the ladies of the W. C. T. U. feel especially appreciative for those who gave their time and talent to the cause of the helpless.

Guest at the Doran's Home—
Miss Dorothy Abbott, who is her from Minnesota teaching the fourth grade at the Junior high, was entertained for Sunday dinner at the home of Mrs. James A. Doran at 698 Ashland street. Dorothy Abbott and Alice Doran represent a third generation in the friendship of these two families. The grandparents of both girls were friends in the old days of pioneer life in Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Corey and daughter, Mildred, also Minnesota friends of the Dorans, drove over from Medford and were guests at the Doran home in the afternoon. Although Miss Abbott met the Corey's for the first time there was a tie of friendship which always unites these from the beginning.

Mrs. Doran likened the party to an old fashioned Minnesota jamboree.

Owing to the Winter Fair activities of this week and the Christmas rush which comes immediately after there will be no meeting of the Parent-Teacher Council in December. An important meeting is being planned early in January when all committees will either give reports of work accomplished or outlines of work to be carried on the rest of the year.

The P. E. O. Activities—
The P. E. O. Sisterhood is a philanthropic organization which is not so well known in Ashland as some other groups. While the main work of this society is to assist girls through school each chapter has its own local activities. Chapter AC last year gave baskets at the holiday season which contained food and clothing, to those who were not reached by other organizations. During
