Thanksgiving Guests—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barrett were dinner guests in the pleasant Mowatt home on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Barrett came over for the holiday recess and was a guest of Mrs. W. H. Mowatt during the week just past.

Mrs. Barrett is teaching at Etina Mills, where she has held the position for a number of years. Her vacations are spent at her home in the week.

The week was a joy to these friends whose friendship dates back for many years.

Civic Club Party—Very Successful One of the strictly social affairs of the Civic Club occurred Tuesday of this week.

The afternoon's enjoyment opened with a most delightful "Covered Dish" luncheon, served at twelve thirty.

These luncheons are always pleasant, and always too there is an element of surprise; for no one knows what the other brings and always again there is delight, for results never fail to be all one could possibly wish.

Prior to the luncheon, the Club was favored with two beautiful duets, pleasingly rendered by Mrs. Perry Ashcraft and Miss Evangeline Poey, with Miss Marsters in sympathetic accompaniment.

As a delightful close Miss Laura Prescott played two solos in her finished fashion. The songs and solos added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

There were perhaps fifty of the membership present to enjoy the luncheon and the social afternoon that followed.

The hostesses on the occasion were the Mesdames P. K. Hammond, G. W. Loosley and C. W. Chattin. They were assisted by Mrs. B. R. Greer.

Thanksgiving at the J. N. Dennis Home—

A Thanksgiving celebration, that was also a family reunion was held at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dennison on the Boulevard during the holiday week.

The preface of this happy time was the Thanksgiving feast, served at two o'clock, at which Turkey was the center of attraction and around which all the delights of a Thanksgiving feast clustered.

Covers were laid for fourteen at dinner, and those who enjoyed it with their host and hostess were Mr. Jasper Dennis of Crawfordville, Ore., a brother of Mr. J. N. Dennis, Mrs. Lester Porter and sister Miss Bonnie Kitchen of Corvallis, Mrs. Whitley of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Childers of Yreka and three daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Oskar and son Dennis.

In the afternoon other guests arrived, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flock of Yreka and their small daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker and son Wilbur of Bell view.

Some of the relatives met for the first time at this pleasant reunion. Till the time of their departure, the time was spent in a round of gaiety: a theatre party Thursday night, a dance Friday night, and a drive around the valley Friday morning.

The guests from the north left Saturday, and those going south departed on Friday.

Mr. Jasper Dennis was delighted with Ashland and has returned home with the intention of disposing of his interests there and plans to locate in Ashland, with a view of going into business later if it suits him.

Slumber Party—During the Thanksgiving holiday recess there was a most delightful party given at the home of Miss Clara Costley of Talent. Miss Costley is home for a visit with her parents but returns soon to Portland.

The guests at this pleasant affair from Ashland were the Misses Marjorie and Ruth Fifield, and Miss Lucile Gilmore. Miss Ruth Bowman was a guest for the evening.

Only girls who have indulged in slumber parties know how delightfully the hours were passed. The next morning, after a delicious breakfast the Ashland guests returned to their homes.

A Fine Program—Sunday, December 2, was the day set apart in the Christian churches for their annual observance of "The Woman's Missionary Day." The First Christian church here, used the morning hour for a wonderfully interesting program.

Aside from the usual music, there were special numbers with violin and piano by the Misses Hagar, that were much appreciated.

A playlet, in which Mrs. Cooper Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Putman and Vera Wright, presented the thought of the hour (self-denial) in a very interesting and appealing way, was the feature of the morning's exercises.

No doubt those who heard this program will feel a keener interest in missions.

Has Successful Social—The Anderson creek school had a most successful box-social last week under the efficient management of Miss Mabel Trot, the teacher.

There was a fine attendance three cars driving out from Ashland.

The feature of the program was a play taken from "The Courtship of Miles Standish" and another playlet that was quite clever. Musical numbers added greatly to the interest.

The boxes sold well, the amount received being $41.50. This money will be expended where most needed. Lights for the building and for apparatus are some of the suggested plans for its use.

King's Heralds Meet—

The King's Heralds meeting on Saturday afternoon at the home of Donald Vestal was a success in every sense of the word.

There were nineteen present, in spite of other attractions, to enjoy the afternoon.

A feature that was very interesting was the delightful story told by Mrs. Coder as a part of the program.

Many and pleasant plans were made for their next meeting. Delicious refreshments that delighted the hearts of the partakers were served at the close of the afternoon.

Wednesday Club Doings—

Two treats are scheduled for the friends of the Wednesday Club this month.

The first is on next Wednesday when another demonstration of the dainty things manufactured under Mrs. Ellis' skilled direction will be held and later in the month a rare treat in store is the dramatic recital to be given by Dr. Mattie Shaw for the Wednesday Club; more about which will be said later.

Luncheon Friday—

At six o'clock Friday evening there will be a luncheon at the Christian church in honor of the state president of the Woman's Missionary society, Mrs. Swope, and Miss Goldie Wells the returned missionary from Africa, who will give an address that evening.

Mrs. Swope will give a lecture in the afternoon at two-thirty. Both these meetings are open to everyone interested and all are invited to be present at either or both of them.

A number of ladies from Medford are planning to attend. At this meeting Miss Wells will show many curios from her field, and young people are particularly invited to attend.

Pine C. E. Convention—

The C. E. convention was held in the Bethany Presbyterian church at Grants Pass; the sessions being held on Saturday afternoon and Sunday. The theme of the convention was "Opportunity" which was developed in various phases by the principal speakers and thru conferences. Those who gave addresses were Paul Brown, Pacific Coast field secretary from Los Angeles, Rev. F. Gordon Hart, of Grants Pass, Rev. Field of Grants Pass, and Rev. Oldfield of Ashland, Rev.

Hiram Smith and Rev. Robert McLean assisted in the devotional exercises, and Paul Brown, Mrs. Hart, Mary Spencer, and Ruth York conducted conferences.

Considerable important business was taken care of during the convention, new plans made, and a new group of officers elected. The entire convention was a most helpful and well attended; and the fun and fellowship at the Saturday evening banquet made all the delegates acquainted with each other in a very happy way.

The new officers are as follows—president, Miss Mabel Trot, Ashland; vice pres., James Henrikson, Grants Pass; vice pres., Evelyn Hulet, Merrill; secretary, Gladys Fry, Medford; treasurer, Ted Cramer, Grants Pass; pastor advisor, F. Gordon Hart, Grants Pass; alumni supt., Rev. W. Judson Oldfield, Ashland; junior supt., Dorothy Hussong, Medford; intermediate supt., Mary Spencer, Ashland; Quiet Hour supt., Emily Brown, Phoenix; Tenth Legion, Jeanette Gore, Phoenix; miss, and recruit, Della Steiner, Medford; Prayer meeting, Gale Williams, Grants Pass; social and recreation Neal Newland, Medford; educational, Gertrude Brown, Ashland; C. E. World supt., Pitt Penny, Rogue River; press correspondent, Ramona Wise, Ashland; extension supt., M. E. Olson, Medford.

Meets at Miss Songer's—The Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Miss Mollie Songer on Friday afternoon of this week.

The members are planning to bring their Christmas offering at this meeting. It is to be sent to Dr. Ferris in India for an ambulance fund.

The afternoon's program is in charge of Mrs. George Eubanks, and is planned from the book on Japan that the society is studying this year.

A social hour is always a part of these meetings and refreshments are served at the close.

Auxiliary Meeting—Plans for its renovation were discussed and also the much needed new home in the armory, was repaired of the Armory. This a most enthusiastic one. (Continued on page 4)

SOMETHING YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT WINTER LUBRICATION

If an oil solidifies in cold weather it can't lubricate your car

That's why we say—use Zerolene "cold-test" oil, — it remains fluid in cold weather and lubricates the bearings and cylinder walls at the first turn of the motor—and makes starting easier.

A poor "cold-test" oil often means scored cylinders, worn bearings and expensive repair bills.

You'll probably avoid trouble and expense by getting on the safe side, with Zerolene.

Be sure—use the grade of Zerolene recommended for the winter lubrication of your car. Consult the Zerolene Correct Lubrication Chart—wherever Zerolene is sold.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

Zerolene No. 1, No. 3 and No. 5 are all good "cold-test" oils. If you have trouble shifting gears, use Zerolene Transmission Lubricant "B"—it remains fluid at low temperatures and permits ready shifting of gears.
