Christmas Eve, the children of the Nazarene Sunday school will have their Christmas program at the church.

Plans are made to make this a very happy affair and much thought has been given to the program and the plans for the entertainment.

Christmas song and story will be the theme of the evening and the program promises to be a most pleasing one.

No palms have been spared to make the church beautiful in its holiday decoration.

A Pre-Christmas Party— One of the merriest and most delightful of parties was given Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Edythe Stephenson on Second street.

A six o'clock pot luck dinner was the special feature of the evening and a Christmas tree with gay trappings and laden with the freight of Christmas time, shared in the interest of the guests.

The delightful dinner occupied the earlier evening and the tree, with its happy messages of Christmas and the fun that followed made guests oblivious to the flight of time for the remainder of the evening.

Those who planned and enjoyed the evening were the Misses Florence Allen, Lillian Reed, Buena Temple, Sarah Williamson, Vera Mannel, Ruth Sims, Mabel Anderson, Mabel Eby, Emma Kelting, Dahl and Miss Alice Heje.

Missionary Society Meets— The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Mathes on North Main, Wednesday of this week.

Considering the fact of the nearness of Christmas, there was a fairly good attendance.

The subject considered in the "Foreign" field, were Persia and Syria and wonderfully interesting facts were related concerning the work in those fields.

The "Home" topic was the work of the church in the South, and interest in our own endeavor in the Southland, was quickened by the discussion of the needs of the colored children in an educational way.

In Mrs. Lamkin's absence the vice-president, Mrs. Plummer will assume the duties as president of the society.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. W. McCoy on Oak street.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dodge Entertain— Mr. and Mrs. Will Dodge were gracious host and hostess at a most delightful dinner party given Wednesday evening, with covers laid for eight.

The Christmas thought was carried out in the general scheme of decoration; a beautiful Christmas tree, gay with candles and laden with dainty gifts was a feature that gave a happy surprise to the dinner guests.

The table and rooms were Christmas' indeed, in festal array, greenery, holly and mistletoe giving the true holiday touch.

After the charming three course dinner, the interest was centered about the Christmas tree, and the merry visit, that was prolonged till a late hour.

The guest list included the Misses Leona Marsters, Buena Temple, Vera Mannel, Zipora Blumenfeld, Sarah Williamson, and Grace Hawkyard.

The Misses Williamson and Hawkyard will remain in Ashland during the holidays but the others will go to their homes to spend the Christmas recess.

Miss Marsters will go to Salem, Miss Temple to Lebanon, Miss Mannel to Eugene and Miss Blumenfeld to Seattle.

Xmas at the Christian Church— The entertainment last night was essentially for the children of the Sunday school and was a very happy time indeed.

The music, the recitations, the plays, were all carried out in true Xmas spirit, and were well received by those who were privileged to listen to the little folks.

The tree and decorations were the entertainment, tree, and lovely and the youngsters enjoyed very much.

Sunday evening is given the "White Christmas" where others rather than self is considered. The program is planned to unfold the Christmas story and the offering taken is for the Board of Ministerial Relief.
