Community Club Meet—

On Wednesday, the Upper Valley Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Homes Tucker for the all-day meeting scheduled at this time.

One of the important things that was done at the business session was the appointment of Mrs. Ed Gowland to fill the unexpired term as president of the club, taking the place of Mrs. Huxley, resigned. Mrs. Huxley has been the devoted and efficient president, and her resignation is on account of her moving from the community in the near future.

Mrs. Huxley has been an ardent supporter of the work of the club since its organization and she will be sorely missed. Her friends hope the new home may be very pleasant, but her interest and friendship, her support in every forward looking movement will be treasured as happy memories by all who knew her.

After the business session, the program was given; the first number, "A Bit of Optimism, for 1924" written by F. C. Homes and read by Mrs. Carl Goetze, was wonderfully well received.

The second number "A Prophecy" was given by Mrs. Homer Barron. This prophecy was written as the looking backward from 1954 and was certainly startling in its statements, and had a tonic effect on the listeners.

Mrs. Barron was costumed as befitting the period of which she wrote.

A dialogue given by Mrs. Butler Walker and Mrs. Ed Gowland was fun making and a humorous poem (original) "Election Time at Community Club" read by Mrs. Tuttle added much to the fun of a program planned to just make a bit of sunshine and jollity for the earnest women who make up this very efficient and effective club.

"Resolutions" read by Mrs. Frohboes, brought down the house and was a fitting close for the jolly program that had been given at this meeting.

"Rugs" occupied the attention of the club during the morning and Miss Teich was present with her help and council during the day.

The dinner was really a "covered dish" dinner and was a very delightful part of the altogether delightful day.

Those present were the Mesdames Bartlett, Tuttle, Gowland, Brown Huxley, True, Tucker, Fah, Joy, Walker, Garrett, Goetze, Barron, Fifield, Pierson, Frohboes Homes, Grant, Miss Grace Teich and Miss Frances Fah.

Hawthorne Circle Meets—

Wednesday of this week the Hawthorne Circle of P. T. A. met in regular session at the library at Hawthorne building.

Mrs. Frank Dean, as presiding officer had the meeting in charge. The usual routine of business was enacted at the business session. Much interest was manifest in the program which was a particularly interesting one.

The address of the afternoon was by Supt. Briscoe and dealt largely with the "Sterling Bill" now before Congress. His analysis of the bill and the clear presentation of the reasons for our support of the bill were of especial value at this time.

Miss Kelting sang two songs very pleasingly and Mrs. Foley gave two short readings that were particularly suitable for this occasion. Both readings and songs gave much pleasure to those privileged to be present.

Another number that added to the enjoyment of the afternoon were two songs, prettily rendered by the pupils from Miss Eby's room.

This Circle will meet on Wednesdays from now on, that a conflict of engagements may not prevent a good attendance.

All felt that this had been a meeting of exceptional value and bespeak for the next one a full attendance as excellent programs are always prepared.

An item that should have been mentioned when speaking of the business meeting, was that the report of the Ways and Means Committee was given and the plan it to give a number of entertainments, the first Feb. 8th. The fishing pond and grab bag booths will be taken care of by Hawthorne Circle.

The I. O. O. F. Dance given

Thursday evening for the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families was a very successful affair.

Invitations had been extended to all the I. O. O. F. lodges in the valley and there was a goodly representation for a number of them. There were doubtless well over a hundred in attendance.

Dickey's Orchestra furnished the music and delicious and satisfying refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests departed, feeling that the evening had been a very enjoyable one.

Patrons and Patronesses Chosen

Messrs. and Mesdames B. C. Forsythe, J. H. Fuller, Homer Billings, F. C. Homes, H. K. Tomlinson, Henry Enders Jr., V. D. Miller, Louis Dodge, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods and Supt. George A. Briscoe assume the responsibility as patrons and patronesses for the coming musical event of the season, the operetta, "In Old Louisiana" to be presented by the glee clubs and orchestra of the Ashland High School, under Miss Marsters' direction.

This will occur on Thursday evening, January the twenty-fourth at the High School auditorium, and is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest.

Miss Leona Marsters, Miss Wheeler and Miss Blumenfeld have charge of the different phases of the preparatory work.

Dinner Guests—

On Tuesday, Mrs. Katherine Morrison, entertained, most delightfully at dinner in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Lemmon who are here in Ashland conducting the revival services at the Christian church. Aside from the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Leggett and Manley shared this pleasant hospitality.

Mrs. Esson Entertained—

Mrs. Clara G. Esson of Portland was a dinner guest at the home of Miss May Benedict on Monday evening. Mrs. Esson had been in Klamath Falls, helping to conduct a series of institutes in the interest of Sunday school work. Mrs. Esson reports a number of meetings held in near by communities and much interest taken.

She will visit other points in the valley before returning to her home in Portland.

Auxiliary Meets—

The Auxiliary to Trinity Guild met Wednesday evening January the sixteenth, at the Parish House for their social meeting.

There was a full attendance of the membership and the evening passed most delightfully in cards and conversation.

The Auxiliary plan to meet twice each month; at the one meeting the business of the organization will be considered; at the other, entertainment of the members will be the chief concern, and those who were present Wednesday evening will attest that the efforts so directed were eminently successful.

The hostesses Mrs. J. R. Edwards and Miss Georgie Coffee served very delicious refreshments as the pleasant close of a very happy evening.

The next meeting, a business one will be the first Wednesday in February (the sixth).

G. A. R. Install Officers—

Burnside Post held installation ceremonies at the Armory last Saturday, with Comrades A. W. Thomas and E. G. Hall in charge of installation.

Those who will serve the Post as officers the coming year are: Senior Vice Commander, James Sayles, Junior Vice Commander G. O. Van Natta, Quartermaster G. W. Noble, Doorkeeper, J. L. Oxford, Adjutant, O. A. Stearns.

At the close of the ceremonies the W. R. C. brought in most delightful refreshments and a social hour for both organizations followed.

H. S. Circle of P. T. A. Meet—

The High School Circle of P. T. A. held its regular meeting in the High School auditorium on Thursday afternoon.

There was a good attendance and keen interest was felt in the program, which was a musical one.

Mrs. E. A. Woods, whose love and understanding of good music is so well known, presented to the student body and Circle, Scandinavian Music.

Appearing in full dress Scandinavian costume, Mrs. Woods' first number was a Folk Song "Spin-Spin". This she translated first, then sang in the Swedish.

The Dance Music of the Northern peoples was next discussed, particularly, two characteristic dances; the "Halling" and the "Spring" dance, (which does not refer to the season, spring). It resembles the Polish Mazurka.

After the interesting explanation of these Mrs. Woods played one of the "Spring" dances.

Many composers were mentioned, with brief sketch and something of their style of composition and place in the musical world.

Beginning with Grieg, the reat-est of Scandinavian composers, Norgack, Sliding, and Svenson of Norway, Gade and Hartmann, Danish composers, were dwelt upon at some length.

Old Bull Norway's violinist, "The Swedish Nightingale" Jenny Lind, and Christine Nilsson, as singers of world wide fame, received a tribute of praise, and the part of Mrs. Woods' discussion closed with a review of Julia Claussen, Marie Dundellus, and Sigrid Onegin, singers of today.

Ibsen's drama "Peer Gyn", was then reviewed and the music composed for the great drama, Grieg's "Peer Gyn Suite," and its place in the drama, was explained.

In illustration, Mrs. Woods played "Ase's Death" from the "Suite".

As a closing number, she played Trygve Torjussen's "To the Rising Sun," a composition from a modern composer.

The address was appreciated very deeply by the young people and the P. T. A. and visitors who were privileged to hear this musical treat.

At the business meeting that followed it was voted to take charge of the candy booth for the Junior High at the entertainment to be given on Feb. 8th, for the benefit of the play shed.

The membership campaign is to be carried forward at once. The class in H. S. receiving the highest number of members for P. T. A. will be the honor class and hosts at a reception to be given the student body.

Noble Grand Club Organized—

A most delightful surprise on Mrs. Emily Wing was planned by Mrs. Norma Reeder and Miss Eunice Grubb on Wednesday evening of this week. Mrs. Wing was expecting Mrs. Reeder at dinner but when she opened the door to admit her, about two dozen of her fellow lodge members, nearly all Past Noble Grands walked into the room.

It was a surprise "Covered Dish" dinner for the recently elected N. G. and also for the purpose of organizing a Past N. G. Club.

The dinner was a most delightful one, with the delicious viands and merry jest and clever stories.

A happy touch was the presentation to the Junior N. G., Mrs. Wing, a beautiful cyclamen, by Mrs. Meyer, who gave the presentation speech in humorous monologue. Mrs. Leah Caldwell as Senior N. G. present was given a lovely plant also. Mrs. Louise Perozzi, in graceful phrase, presented it in behalf of the new organization.

Mrs. Wing was elected president, Mrs. Caldwell vice president and Mrs. Crocker sec. and treas. of the club.

Mrs. Norma Reeder and Miss Eunice Grubb, N. G. and Vice N. G. were made honorary members of the club.

A committee to draft by laws was appointed: Mrs. Lena Nelson, Miss Mollie Songer and Mrs. Elda Anderson and this committee is to report at a meeting following the regular session of Rebekah Lodge next Tuesday night, Jan. 22nd.

During the evening Mrs. Wing and Mrs. Dunn sang with Mrs. Grace Ridley at the piano.

Those who enjoyed this pleasant evening were the Mesdames Louise Perozzi, Laura M. Love, Elda Anderson, Edythe Phipps, Dora Hubbard, Josephine D. Crocker, Leah Caldwell, Anne Walker, Cora Dodge, Anna Myer, Edna Story, Mary F. Trefren, Emma Worthington, Nellie Dunn.
