After the conclusion of the business session, Mrs. Louis Dodge gave a most comprehensive and interesting review of "The Covered Wagon", a book that appeals particularly to those who live in Oregon and know her history, and that has a peculiar interest to many in Ashland because some of their forefathers helped to make that history.

The story was given quite fully, with excerpts read of especially pertinent paragraphs.

At the close of the program, the hostess Mrs. E. V. Carter assisted by Mrs. W. E. Blake, Mrs. G. F. McConnell and Mrs. August Schuerman served very delicious refreshments.

The guests at this charming affair were neighbors that formerly lived in Albany, and, as old friends, would have many happy experiences and memories to recall during the afternoon.

This tea Friday was the last of a series of pleasant entertainments in Mrs. Thompson's honor given during her visit in Ashland and which added so much to the delight of that visit.

Lovely music during the afternoon contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the guests.

Bellevue P. T. A. Meet—

As is the habit in Bellevue, last Friday night saw the rooms filled to overflowing with parents and friends, gathered to enjoy the splendid program and the social time that is a very definite factor in these meetings.

The "Boys and Girls Club" work has attracted state wide attention and Bellevue district is in no way behind the rest of the county in its interest in this great movement, so at this meeting the principal feature was the presentation of this work by its very efficient leader, Mr. Lloyd Moss.

Keen attention was given, and the leader may feel that Bellevue is squarely behind this work, and the boys and girls, that brought so much honor to their county last year and will again.

Mrs. Edwin Dunn gave much pleasure by singing and graciously responding to generous applause. Kirmitt Frohboes recited very nicely and the upper grades sang "America the Beautiful" most pleasingly.

At the close of the program the entire assembly was organized as an old fashioned spelling school. Mr. Frohboes and Mr. Edwin Dunn were the leaders and right valiantly was the contest carried on to the victorious conclusion for Mr. Dunn's side, with three yet standing to attest their prowess.

The spelling contest, lasted half an hour and the losing side contested the ground in most spirited fashion. Mrs. Barnard and Mrs. Coffin being the last to surrender.

The hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tuttle and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gowan.

Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour by those in charge.

A committee was appointed to confer with the teachers to see what was the crying need and to use the money made at the recent entertainment, for that purpose.

Bellevue school has very definite plans made, that will be carried out as soon as spring opens, to beautify the grounds and to have a school garden.

Enthusiasm runs high and other plans there are for the benefit of the school that will be reported a little later, when more nearly worked out.

The meetings of Bellevue P. T. A. occur the third Friday evening of each month and are eagerly anticipated by the entire community.

When Will Ashland People Learn the Importance of It?
