SOCIETY

MRS. GRACE E. ANDREWS, Editor Phone items to her at 345-R, between 10 A. M. and 2 P. M. and evenings.

Calendar of the Week— Tuesday, Jan. 29—French Club Mrs. F. D. Wagner, hostess.

Wednesday, Jan. 30—Ladies Aid, Baptist Church, 2:00 P. M. Friday, Feb. 1—M'issionary Society, M. E. Church, hostess, Mrs. A. Marske, Sherman street.

Friday, Feb. 1—P. N. G. Club, Hostess Mrs. H. O. Anderson. Friday, Feb. 1—Ladies Aid Presbyterian Church, Junior room Friday, Feb. 1—City Council Religious Education, Presbyterian Church, evening.

Civic Improvement Club— There will be no meeting of the Civic Club today, since there are five Tuesday in January. The date is February fifth instead.

It is with much regret that the announcement is made that Mrs. Ida Callahan, Director from Oregon in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will be unable to address next Tuesday's meeting.

However, since January 31st is "Scholarship Loan Fund Day" it has been planned to make February 5th a benefit day in behalf of that fund.

Everyone interested in being to come and anyone may help with this fund. There is a "Scholarship Loan Branch" of the State Federation and the money contributed by this Club and its friends go to swell that fund.

It is planned to make of this afternoon an informal social affair; one that will prove entertaining and pleasant for all who attend. Further plans will be announced later.

Missionary Society Meets— The Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Marske on Sherman street on Friday of this week, at two o'clock.

The subject under consideration is "Japan", and a good program is prepared.

All the membership plan to be present as the year's work is a continuous study and when one meeting is missed there is a link lost in the story.

The Home Mission study will be the second Friday in the month. The place of meeting announced later.

Silver Wedding Celebrated— The Silver Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ruger of North Main, was celebrated most delightfully on Friday evening of last week, January the twenty-fifth.

They were surprised by a number of their friends and an evening of thorough enjoyment had been planned. Music, Mah Jongg, and cards sped the hours, and delicious ice cream and cake and coffee were served at its close.

The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Ruger with a set of silver teaspoons in commemoration of this delightful occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruger were married in Monette, Ill., twenty-five years ago the 25th day of January. They have lived in Ashland for the past fifteen years and have made a host of friends. Here their children, seven in number, have grown up, a part of Ashland's school and social life.

To Mr. and Mrs. Ruger are offered the sincere congratulations of their many friends on this happy anniversary.

Those present to make this so pleasant an occasion were the Messrs. and Mesdames: Sam McNair, J. E. Thornton, Jack Dunn, N. H. Harrison, Fred Cushing, John Shortridge, C. G. Harkins, the Mesdames Selma Gray, Louis Schwein, and the Messrs. Hurst and Converse, and Miss Esther Rightner, sister of Mrs. Cushing.

Civic Improvement Club of Central Point Meet— The Central Point Civic Improvement Club met at the Library Friday afternoon in regular session. Some two weeks before, the club had asked that the Civic Club of Ashland send representatives down to meet with them, and to tell them of the work of this club, and, in general way, bring before this club something of the work accomplished by other clubs of similar aims.

Mrs. McCracken, President of the Southern Oregon District Federation, and Mrs. D. Peruzzi were appointed to meet with this club. However, Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson, Mrs. G. G. Eubanks, Mrs. J. H. Fuller also attended Friday's meeting at Central Point.

Mrs. McCracken brought a message from the District Federation to the Central Point Club, and the new club expects to become a part of the federation.

Mrs. Peruzzi discussed the work of one woman, "Helen Bartlett Crane," what she accomplished, and her work with Federated Clubs. Her achievements were an inspiration for all civic workers.

Mrs. Eubanks spoke of the active work of the Ashland Club; Mrs. J. H. Fuller of "Memories" and Mrs. Tomlinson brought the "Greetings" of Ashland's Civic Club to her sister Club down the valley.

Mrs. Seidel is the president of the Central Point Club, and after the program, a most enjoyable hour was spent in a social way.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church meets this week in the Junior room at the church, with an afternoon of work before them and it is requested that every member as well as any others that may be able to come be on hand to assist.

The box has been packed for the hospital but there is much else waiting to be done, and many hands are needed.

P. E. O. Luncheon— Chapter A. C. of P. E. O. were entertained at a very attractive one o'clock luncheon with Mrs. W. E. Blake hostess, on Saturday of last week.

The Sisterhood colors were carried out in the marguerites of the place cards, and dainty snapdragons in yellow for the table.

The business meeting followed, after which the program on Founder's Day, in charge of Mrs. Hammond was given.

Fourteen were present, with Mrs. Ira and Mrs. Bert Shouby and Mrs. L. N. Woodside as visiting members from other chapters.

Ladies Aid Meets— The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church have been having their meetings weekly on account of the press of work to be accomplished.

They will meet on Wednesday of this week at the church with much work before them.

Along with the regular work to be done, this organization has very pleasant things to do.

P. N. G. Club Meets— The Past Noble Grand Club will meet at the home of Mrs. H. O. Anderson on Manzanita Street on Friday of this week, (Feb. 1st). Mrs. Anderson will be assisted by Mrs. Leah Caldwell.

Mrs. Burke of Grants Pass, Past President of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, has been invited to be present at this meeting.

Aside from the social feature, there is a serious aim in the club's activities. Their plans include working for whatever is needed for the Odd Fellows Home.

Any Past Noble Grand is invited to the club meeting Friday, February first.

D. A. R. Delegates— The delegates to the State Conference of the D. A. R. have been announced. Five delegates and five alternates have been named by the Acting Regent.

As delegates, Mrs. J. P. Dodge, Mrs. August Schuerman, Mrs. W. E. Blake, Mrs. H. O. Anderson and Mrs. H. A. Stearns, officers of Mount Ashland Chapter, with Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, Mrs. Louis Dodge, Miss Blanche Hicks and Mrs. H. W. Andrews named as alternates.

It is hoped that as many as can plan to do so will attend the State Conference; by so doing the local Chapter is brought in closer touch with the state and national work.

Religious Council Meets— The City Council of Religious Education will have a meeting Friday evening at the Presbyterian church. It is a get-together meeting for the workers in the survey to be taken of the city. A large attendance at the banquet is expected, since workers from the various churches in Ashland will be present.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will be in charge of the supper which will probably be served at six-thirty.

FOR FATHER'S COUGH January is usually one of the coldest months, and brings its share of coughs, colds and hoarseness. Take FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND at the first sign of a cough or cold, as it loosens the phlegm and quickly brings relief to the inflamed membranes of the throat. "Your HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND has done wonders for my father, who had an awful cough. He is feeling fine now," writes Nicolaosa Gonzales, Cuero, Texas. Sold Everywhere.

That the stomachs that over-do their work outnumber those that under-do it is explained by the changes brought about by civilized life. Under crude conditions of savage life, and even among the laboring population in a civilized community, a greater power of digestion is required to maintain life than to sustain a brain-working population. For this reason most of us have inherited greater digestive powers and appetites than we need to maintain the less active life we now lead.

Natural instincts, if followed, should adjust our appetites and food intake to the changed condition of our activities; but civilized customs and eating habits all conspire to thwart these instincts, and we continue to eat "savory" meals in a civilized environment. The diseases of civilization are the result.

There is often a decline, also, in our activities from youth to middle age. Part of this reduction is due to the natural decline of vigor with advancing years, but it is largely due to the fact that the young man has made his living by hard physical labor, and with an increase of prosperity and brain power has worked into more sedentary occupations. Many American business men start life on the farm, or in the factory, and later remove to the city, or office. Proud of the strength and appetites of their youth, they continue eating habits adapted to strenuous activity. All goes well for a time, but at forty or fifty they suffer a breakdown which they lay to the worries and cares of business, when in reality it is due to catering to the strong appetite and ample eating habits developed in youth. A man driving an automobile up a steep hill opens the throttle to give the engine more fuel; if he then comes to a piece of smooth level ground and fails to shut off the surplus fuel, we call him a foolish driver. Yet that is the kind of driving that most business men do with their physical machines.

One of the greatest errors that can be made is to try to bolster up declining digestive powers with any of the so-called aids to digestion. It is foolish to tax a weakening digestive power with excessive quantities of food, or to eat foods known to be hard to digest.

ATHENS, Jan. 28.—One hundred and fifty persons are dead as the result of an unprecedented cold wave that is sweeping eastern Greece. Most of the victims are members of the Mussulman interment camp of North Salonika.

2 OUT OF EVERY 23 LOST FARMS IN 15 STATES

43,000 Farmers Lost Lands Purchased During Land Boom Period.

VALUES HIGH 1916 TO '20 Average Mortgage Debt Per Farm More Than Doubled Since Year 1910.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Two out of every nine owner-farmers in 15 corn and wheat producing states stood to lose their farms between 1920 and the spring of 1923, a survey conducted by the Department of Agriculture reveals. Two out of every 23 farmers did not lose their farms, with or without legal process, the others holding on through the leniency of creditors.

In the department's survey 69,000 farmers in representative sections were checked. Of this number 2,800 lost their farms through foreclosure or bankruptcy; 3,000 lost their farms without legal process, and 10,400 farmers held on through the leniency of creditors.

But while the farmer who filled his own acres was in a serious condition, the tenant-farmer was almost decry pressed. One out of every three tenant-farmers stood to lose his property during the same period and one out of seven actually did lose it, with or without legal process, while the others held on through creditor leniency.

Applying these figures to the 1920 census figures for owners and tenants in the states covered, the department's survey estimated that out of a total of 2,289,000 owner and tenant-farmers, more than 108,000 lost their farms or other property through foreclosure or bankruptcy; over 122,000 lost their property without legal proceedings, and 373,000 retained their property only through leniency of creditors.

The survey further disclosed that more than 43,000 of the farmers who lost their farms did so as a result of the purchase of farm land during the land boom period, while nearly 11,000 of all owners and tenant-farmers in the 15 states lost their property as the result of unwise investments in enterprises other than farming.

In Montana, North Dakota, Colorado and South Dakota the losses of farms by owners were relatively more numerous while they were less numerous in the east and north central states.

Surveys conducted by the Department of Agriculture show that about 15 per cent of the farms in the United States changed hands during the year 1916 to 1920 when land values were highest. Where the scale of farm operations and expenditures were expanded to meet the demand for increased production and reap the benefit of war prices many farmers, especially in many parts of the dry-land wheat regions, were caught by the extraordinary series of crop failures during the years 1917 to 1921, thereby piling up additional debts in place of profits.

The average mortgage debt per farm has more than doubled since the 1910 average of $1,960, the department's survey shows. Further illustration of the financial distress besetting farmers in various parts of the west is found also in the accumulation of delinquent farm taxes. Tax payments in some sections are in arrears from one to four years.

Friends and Neighbors in Ashland Will Show You a Way Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it. But won't cure it if the kidneys are weak. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it. Reach the cause; attack the pain. Are recommended by many Ashland people. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Sarah Boots, 333 B. St., Ashland, says: "I was in a bad condition with kidney and bladder trouble and became so weak and run down I could hardly walk a block. My back ached constantly and my kidneys acted too frequently. My limbs and feet were swollen and I had dizzy headaches and nervous spells. I used different remedies but didn't get any better until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon helped me and I felt like a different person."
