Patriotic Entertainment at M. E. Church—

The entertainment at the Methodist church on Tuesday of this week, given under the auspices of the Missionary society was a marked success. The program was altogether delightful and varied and there were at least 125 people in attendance to enjoy it.

Th program consisted of very pleasing musical numbers and a Pageant called the "World's Mother" that was wonderfully well enacted. Miss Berna Haight was heard in a piano number; a quartette, Mrs. Eric Weren, Dr. Gladys Crandall, Miss Jean Anderson and Mrs. E. O. Smith; a duet, Mrs. Eric Weren and Miss Jean Anderson; a solo, Mrs. E. O. Smith all in costume and Mrs. E. A. Woods gave a sketch of the life and work of Stephen Foster and played four of his pieces.

The Pageant was given by a number of ladies in appropriate costumes for the parts represented, and was a striking feature of the entertainment. The Mesdames Gregg, Ferris and daughter Sarah, Thompson, Harry Yeo, Homer Billings, Nutter, Coder, Patrick, Brower, Henry Carter and Miss Songer, with Mrs. Van Fossen at the piano presented the little drama.

As a fitting close Miss Edna Dougherty played "Stars and Stripes Forever" in spirited fashion.

Four ladies in costumes of the period received, Mrs. C. E. Pratt, Mrs. Warren Cook, Miss Carol Mitchell and Mrs. Tallman representing Mrs. U. S. Grant, Miss Todd, Mrs. Stanton and a "Society woman from Washington."

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the most entertaining afternoon.

The thought of the afternoon was one of helpfulness and patriotism and in the gifts each brought a penny for every star in the Flag. Seventy dollars were added to the fund as a result.

Because of the great interest evidenced in the presentation of the Pageant, "The World's Mother," it will be repeated at the Sunday evening service. Everyone interested is cordially invited to be present at this service.

Auxiliary Party Great Success—

The card party given by the Auxiliary to Trinity Guild was a very successful affair and there were at least seventy-five present to share in the enjoyment of the evening.

Seventeen tables of Five Hundred and Bridge were played and the recipients of the delicious bon bons were determined in very informal and happy fashion.

The rooms had been made very lovely in the Valentine colors and emblems—in red and green— and the hostesses were most attentive to the entertainment of the guests whether in program planned, amusement, or in the dainty refreshments that were served at a late hour.

The pleasure of the guests was augmented by two delightfully rendered solos by Miss Roberta Ward and Mr. Elwood Hedberg, both graciously responding to generous applause.

Those present at this pleasant affair felt that the evening had been a most delightful one and would be glad if the Auxiliary planned them oftener.

All Day Meeting at Baptist Church

Some time since it was planned to combine a number of the meetings at the Baptist church, or rather plan the meetings that they might occur on the same day. Wednesday's all-day session was the first of these meetings. The Ladies Aid, the White Cross and the Missionary societies met Wednesday morning at 9:30 A. M.

The feature of the morning's session was the making of muslin patterns, under the efficient leadership of Miss Grayce Teich, County Demonstration Agent, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Brown and Mrs. Pierson. Miss Tiech spent the day assisting all who wished help and imparting much valuable information. The organizations wish to express their appreciation for Miss Teich so generously giving her time and assistance, when her hours are so full.

At the lunch hour Mrs. Huxley kindly demonstrated her electric fireless cooker, and the results, both scalloped potatoes and cake, were part of the repast served.

At 2:45 business sessions were held and home work occupied the attention of the societies in the afternoon. Many plans were made for needed improvements in the furnishings of rooms at the church.

The next meeting will be the second Wednesday in March, when the Women's societies will meet and no doubt there will be something special as there was at this meeting.

In the evening Bible Study at 6:30 and Prayer meeting at 7:30 closed a day filled with much of interest and helpfulness.

A Lovely Surprise—

A very lovely surprise party occurred Thursday afternoon when the birthdays of both Mrs. Callie B. Shelton and Mrs. Hattie L. Moore were appropriately celebrated.

Mrs. Potter asked Mrs. Moore to go with her to call on Mrs. Shelton, unsuspectingly Mrs. Moore complied. The ladies had no more than established themselves for a cozy visit than the door opened and the membership of the Acorn Circle filed in, laden with baskets, whose contents proved most delicious and satisfying. The table fairly groaned under its weight of good things and guests lingered long over the delightful repast.

Two beautiful plants were presented the ones whose birthdays were being so happily celebrated. The afternoon, with jolly visit, fancy work and the birthday feast passed all too quickly, when good wishes and congratulations were spoken and good nights said.

Community Club Postponed—

The Upper Valley Community Club meeting scheduled for the 20th of February is postponed until the following week—the 27th of February. The meeting is at Mrs. Mark True's as was planned but there may be changes in the program, but all may be assured that an interesting afternoon is theirs, whether the program for this meeting is used or another planned.

The change is made to enable all who can, to attend the Economic Conference in Medford held on that date.

Social Circle Meets—

The Social Circle of the Christian church were entertained at the home of Mrs. O. W. Long 568 East Main on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in the Valentine colors in flowers, freesias and hyacinths, and emblems of February's saint carried out in green and gold. Hearts abounded and even in the delicious ice cream and cake the same happy thought was seen. The ice cream was in heart-shaped molds with red hearts and tiny cupids as adornment and the cakes bore the same dainty emblem.

A guessing game that proved intensely interesting and at which Mrs. Delia Hale and Mrs. Hattie Smith won first and second prizes occupied much of the afternoon. Many brought their needle work.

* * *

Those who enjoyed the pleasant afternoon were the Mesdames Mark W. Smith, Lloyd Cole, D. A. Hale, Mary Hale, Fannie Leggett, John Hassler, Frank Crowson, F. D. Swingle, Ed Kilgore, Delpha Bryant, John Cochran, Jessie Judkins, J. V. Wright, H. S. Newton, R. L. Burdic, Philpott, Kaegi, Trask, Hatcher and a number of children.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Cochran. Mrs. Long was assisted by Mrs. Mary Hale in serving the dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Prizes Offered—

Prizes were offered by the D. A. R. to the sixth grade pupils who write the best essays on the film "Columbus" that will be shown with "Boy of Mine" February 22 and 23rd in Ashland.

The first prize is two dollars, the second, one; and the third, seventy-five cents. These prizes are offered as an incentive to added interest in history.

"Columbus" is the first of the series of "Chronicles of America," films depicting American history. If sufficient interest is taken in the first, it will be possible to secure the others. Both the D. A. R. and P. T. A. approve this series.

The play shed fund will benefit to the amount of 5 cents on every ticket sold by the P. T. A. and helpers They are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce and at the Library, and by members of the P. T. A. It is hoped that a number will try for the prizes offered by the D. A. R.

Covered Dish Luncheon—

The ladies of the congregation of the Baptist church are invited a week from Thursday (Feb. 21) to meet with Mrs. H. O. Anderson. A "Covered dish luncheon" will be a pleasant feature of the occasion. Mrs. C. A. Brown will act as instructor in making lovely candies that will be placed on sale at the cooked food sale a week from today—Saturday, February 23rd. at Holmes Store.

Anyone wishing to learn, phone Mrs. Brown for the ingredients needed in the dainty confections. The Food sale is for the benefit of a fund to take care of the hospital expenses of Mrs. Rasor who lies so seriously ill the result of the wellnigh fatal automobile accident of a few days ago.

Juniors Meet—

The business meeting of the Presbyterian Juniors was held at the church February the 13th, with a good attendance.

An election of officers resulted in Harriet Prescott president; Marian Hitchcock, vice president; Marian McElvaney, secretary; Ruth Ashcraft and Wanda Schwein, treasurers and pianist Marporie Leer.

Among the plans discussed were how to earn more stars for their banner and also "Self Denial Week," which, comes Feb. 17 to Feb. 24, was considered.

The social hour followed the business meeting and was in the nature if a farewell for Catherine and John Rhodes who are leaving soon for their home in Mo. and also for the Misses Lillian Rhodes and Margaret Smith who have been assisting with the Junior work. Everyone present had a mighty good time and would not mind if business meetings came oftener.

Queen Esther Circle Entertains—

The Queen Esther Circle, a girl's missionary organization of the Methodist church was delightfully entertained at dinner and for the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carter of Alta avenue, last Friday.

This club have their own officers; Rosina Gallatin, president; Emma Cook, secretary and Rosetta McGee, organist. Mrs. Walter Herndon and Mrs. J. R. McCracken are the leaders.

The meetings are after school, and at this time only the business meeting was held, and the lesson given before the delightful dinner which was served at six. Great interest is taken in the course of lessons on missions that they are studying and in the practical work that these young girls are doing.

There were thirteen girls present with the leaders to enjoy the delicious dinner, after which they were all taken to the basket ball game, that occurred that evening.

* * *

Civic Club—

Tuesday's meeting of the Civic Club promises to be of considerable interest outside of the membership of the club.

Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar of Portland, State President of O. F. W. C. is to be the principal speaker at the afternoon and many have met her and will be glad of the opportunity to meet her again.

Everyone interested is cordially invited to be at the Club house to hear Mrs. Dunbar.

The hostesses of the afternoon are Mrs. E. D. Briggs, Mrs. E. V. Carter and Mrs. C. H. Vaupel.

* * *

C. E. Notes—

C. E. leader Sunday evening will be Donald Wright. He will announce his own topic. Meeting 6,30 sharp. Rev. Nelson will be present at this meeting. The usual collection.

The Crater Lake Union held an interesting and profitable executive meeting in Medford, at the First Presbyterian church. There were two delegates from Phoenix, three from Medford and four from Ashland: the Misses Mabel Trott, Gertrude Brown, Bertha Borrall and Ramona Wise.

Much was accomplished in work and plans for co-operative effort with Klamath Falls and Grants Pass societies.

A new society is to be started soon at Rogue River.

Shower Given for Mrs. Lawrence

The following was sent to the social column by a guest at the very attractive affair.

Mrs. Lyon L. Lawrence, formerly Miss Grace Leslie was married the 12th of January. The Leslie's were Ashland residents for many years and their friends welcome all news of them.

Mrs. Lawrence was a U. of O. student at the time of her marriage.

"A shower was given last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Leslie, 16th and Pearl, in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Lyon L. Lawrence. Among those present were Misses Lucille Perozzi, Ruth Eske, Lucy Davis, Kee Buchanan, Katie Buchanan, Veda Griffith, and Carrie May Briggs, of her Ashland friends and schoolmates.

Dainty refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Lyon L. Lawrence live in Albany where he is teaching."
