This New Treatment Never Fails To End Piles

Many sufferers from Piles or Hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them. To those people we say, "Go to your druggist and get an original box of MOAVA SUPPOSITORIES." One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, antiseptic action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles cause them to heal up and disappear forever.

It's simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments, marvelous results have been obtained.

East Side Pharmacy dispenses MOAVA SUPPOSITORIES in the original box or can get it for you on short notice. East Side Pharmacy will supply you. Mail orders accepted.

Monday, Feb. 25.—Ashland Study Club.

Civic Club Meets—

The Civic Club met Tuesday at 2:30 P. M., with Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, State President O. F. W. C., as principal speaker.

Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson, presided. Miss Tucker gave an explanation of the change in the flag salute, which is given at the opening of each meeting. Reports were read and bills submitted.

In response to request the date was set for the making of dress forms, which will be March the 17th. Miss Grayce Tiech can be present at that date. It will be an all day session, beginning at 9 A. M.

Call Mrs. J. M. Wagner for list of materials to get and all who wish to make the patterns are to phone Miss Blanche Hicks, giving her their names.

Mrs. Maxey reported that $20. was added to the treasury as a result of the party the evening of the 14th. A report from an opening group meeting of the Jackson County Agricultural Conference was also made by Mrs. Max Pracht.

The educational film "Columbus" was discussed and an effort is being put forth to encourage the sale of the tickets—that it may be possible to secure the rest of the series and also to help the play shed fund.

The Department of Americanization is to have a place in the work of the club and Mrs. A. C. Joy has charge of that. Some time will be devoted each meeting to that topic.

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Dunbar the speaker of the afternoon was introduced. A resume of that address was given in Wednesday's Tidings.

A well filled auditorium greeted the speaker. Representatives of other clubs were present as well as many who are not members of the Civic Club yet wished to hear Mrs. Dunbar's message.

At the close of the very interesting and thought-provoking address, questions were asked and answered, in a sort of informal round table.

After opportunity was given for those who were present to greet Mrs. Dunbar, tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. E. D. Briggs and Mrs. E. V. Carter poured.

Guests lingered long for the pleasant informal visit thus closed the afternoon.

A delightful feature of the social hour was the singing of Mrs. L. N. Woodside playing her own accompaniment, and responding with the brightest of encores. Later, graciously singing "Dawn" with Miss Leona Masters at the piano.

The hostesses of the afternoon was Mrs. E. D. Briggs, Mrs. E. V. Carter and Mrs. C. H. Vaupel.

Upper Valley Community Club Meets the 27th—

The Upper Valley Community Club whose time of meeting was changed from this Wednesday to next, the 27th of Feb., will have an "Exchange Meeting". This means a new idea, a short cut in work, or in any problem, or any helpful hint that will benefit another. All are asked to bring notebooks to the Club.

The business session will be called promptly at 2:00 so all are requested to make an extra effort to be on time.

Luncheon for Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar—

Prior to the afternoon meeting of the Civic Club Tuesday the Executive Board and members of the Standing Committees of the Civic Club were guests at a luncheon given for Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, State President of Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs and Mrs. Louis Ulrich, representative of the Greater Medford Club.

In the unavoidable absence of the president, Mrs. Tomlinson, Dr. Gladys Crandall presented the complimented guests.

The table looked very dainty and springlike with sprays of jasmine over it and gracefully arranged centerpiece. Merry quip and jest enlivened the time till at the close of the delicious two course luncheon, Mrs. Dunbar made a happy little speech—the central thought being publicity, the value and the need of it, and also added a strong plea for cooperation. Mrs. Ulrich brought greetings from the Greater Medford Club.

After luncheon all gathered in the cozy board room for an informal visit before the Club convened in regular session.

J. C.'s. Have Party—

The J. C.'s. had a very delightful Valentine party at the home of the teacher Mrs. W. M. Poley last Friday evening.

The mothers of the girls composing the class were invited guests. The decorations carried out the thought of the evening, red hearts and Valentine colors were in evidence and the lovely luncheon served was planned to harmonize with the decorative scheme.

Progressive games were played, and the happy evening was winged—so it seemed to the jolly girls who make up the roster of the J. C.'s.

Everyone, invited guests and class, felt that this was an evening long to be remembered in the annals of the class.

Annual Party of Ashland Study Club—

The party given by the Ashland Study Club was one of the most successful in its history and surely one of the most unusual.

The committee in charge of arrangements had seen fit to hold their deliberations behind closed doors so not even the husbands who were special guests, were aware either of the delights in store or of the conspiracy against their peace of mind.

Promptly at six-thirty three Fates greeted the club members and their guests at the Civic Club house.

Mysterious and solemn rites occupied the next hour, in which the honor guests were initiated into membership of the Study Club and given the symbol of fellowship. The men accepted blindly and in becoming humility the honors accorded them.

At a given signal, all followed the leader, in the utmost good faith, knowing that something pleasant awaited them; which it did at the Plaza, in the banquet room. There at the beautifully appointed tables, with the decorative feature indicative of the work of the club the earlier part of the year—were sprays from Oregon's conifers and replicas of Oregon's birds gracing the length of the long table, and unique cards, descriptive of characteristics or occupation placed the guests. These were all in clever rhyme.

An attractive four course luncheon was prolonged by the interspersing of a very cleverly planned entertainment. Limericks were distributed and read by the guests. Each club member had previously written one about each one to be present and much merriment ensued when these clever bits of persiflage were read.

The early history of the Ashland Study Club cleverly written by a charter member, Mrs. Mowat was read by another charter member Mrs. Eubanks. The history of the club extends over some years, since it is the oldest study club in southern Oregon.

A spirited debate on the question "Resolved that Women's Study Clubs Interfere with Woman in her Domestic Sphere," with the affirmative supported by Messrs. J. W. McCoy, Rev. P. K. Hammond, H. O. Anderson, F. S. Engle, Emil Peil, J. M. Wagner, G. G. Eubanks, W. H. Mowat, H. L. Sayles, Louis Dodge and the negative argument presented by Messrs. V. V. Mills, H. C. Galey, F. D. Wagner, C. W. Nims, Dr. E. A. Woods, Dr. T. J. Malmgren, Dr. W. E. Blake, W. M. Poley, and F. E. Watson. Dr. Burdick refused to be drawn into the fray. The argument presented by both sides (sometimes on both sides) was convincing, seemingly incontrovertible and so affecting that it brought tears (of merriment) to the eyes of the listeners. Gifts significant of the sides taken were presented to Mrs. Mills and Mrs. McCoy by the judges, who after due deliberation decided in favor of the negative.

At the close of the banquet the way was retraced to the Club house where good nights were said everyone feeling that felicitations should be extended the ones who planned and carried through so successfully this delightful affair.

Annual Chamber of Commerce—

The annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce at the Armory promises to be of unusual interest this year. Coming as it does on Washington's Birthday the plans will without doubt have the thought of the day in mind in decorations and discourse.

The program includes music by Loveland's Orchestra, songs from the Lithians, a vocal solo by Mrs. L. N. Woodside, and piano solo by Miss Imogene Wallace, of Central Point.

It is expected that addresses will be made by representative of both the D. A. R. and the Civic Club. It is understood that tables will be reserved for those who expect to attend from these organizations.

Ashland Music Study Club Meets—

The Ashland Music Study Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. R. Robertson on Almond Street, Monday evening, Feb. 25th. The time of meeting is now the fourth Monday evening of the month.

The subject for discussion will be Indian Music and much of value and interest will no doubt be brought out in music, papers, and general discussion.

Dinner Party for Mrs. Dunbar—

Tuesday evening Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar and Mrs. Louis Ulrich of Medford, were complimented guests at a very delightful dinner party given at the Plaza at six-thirty.

The guest list included the Messrs. and Mesdames H. K. Tomlinson, J. H. Fuller, E. V. Carter, Johnny Gruelle, Mrs. D. Perozzi, the Drs. Crandall, Mr. M. C. Reed and the compliment guests Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. Ulrich.

The evening was spent at the Club house in informal visit.

D. A. R. Luncheon—

Washington's birthday will be fittingly observed on Friday, by a one o'clock luncheon at which the Chapter, their daughters and those who are affiliated with other Chapters are guests.

A business session follows the luncheon. A short program has been planned, with a reading by Miss Carol Mitchell, piano solo by Miss Imogene Wallace, a paper on Education by Mrs. H. C. Galey and Miss Poley has been asked to sing.

The informal social hour will follow the program.

Aid Entertained—

The Baptist Ladies Aid is invited to the home of Mrs. H. O. Anderson to spend the day, Thursday. A covered dish luncheon is a feature of the occasion.

Candy is to be made for the Food Sale to be held at Holmes Grocery, Saturday for the benefit of the Razor hospital fund.

Auxiliary Meets—

The Auxiliary to the American Legion held its business meeting Monday evening at the Armory. The following officers were elected: Miss Mary Spencer, vice president; Mrs. Lynn Slack, Sergeant at Arms; Mrs. Bert Freeman, Historian; and Mrs. Mary Broker, Chaplain.

Reports of committees were read and a response read from Portland relative to cookies sent. The letter expressed their gratitude for the jams and cookies sent. The local officers wish to express their appreciation for the assistance of those who helped to make Cookie Day a success.

The Auxiliary plan a Children's Clothing Day for the benefit of the needy families of veterans, in the near future.

Mrs. Cecil Norton has been appointed chairman of a committee to make poppies in preparation for the coming year.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading streaked or gray.

Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and for "Poppy Day." The sale of the poppies is the means taken to raise money for the support of disabled veterans.

The redecoration of the club room begins next week.

It will be done in soft t and ivory, with hangings of old blue, making a very attractive room.

Attention was called to the Service Club started at Washington D. C. for the benefit of soldiers, seeing about their compensation or families visiting soldiers in the hospitals. This is supported by the various units: $5 each and $1 each year for five succeeding years.

The next meeting is a social one two weeks from Monday at the home of Mrs. Lynn Slack, 1023 E. Main—with Mrs. Cecil Norton, Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Ray Wolcott as assisting hostesses.

attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. PORTLAND IS HIGH IN SCHOOL COSTS

PORTLAND, Feb. 20.—Portland's total expenditures for maintenance and operation of its schools were higher than those of 49 of 52 cities considered in a report of the department of commerce covering costs from 1917 to 1922 and just issued. Only three other cities on the list spent more money in 1922 for the operation of their schools than did Portland with its total of $3,272,000. They were Denver with $3,515,000, Toledo, O., with $3,335,000 and Oakland, Cal., with $3,440,000. Three other cities had a smaller percentage of increase in their maintenance costs than did Portland. They were Scranton, Pa., 64; Cambridge, Mass., 67, and Elizabeth, N. J., 74.
