RHEUMATISM

Leaves You Forever

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. East Side Pharmacy can supply you. No. 1

Surprise Party

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season occurred at the Normal building last Monday night when between forty and fifty of the relatives and friends of Mrs. Australia Taylor surprised her at her home. The dear lady had been invited out to spend the day with a friend.

During her absence some of the ladies took possession of her home arranged chairs, and made all the necessary plans for entertaining a large crowd.

When her friends brought her home in the evening she opened the door to be greeted by such a host that her surprise was indeed great.

Since the occasion of this gathering was to help "Aunt Trill" as she is called by those who know and love her, celebrate her birthday, so the gifts brought were innumerable, useful and beautiful. The list included glass ware, crockery, aluminum ware and articles of clothing.

A very jolly evening was spent in visiting and dancing until midnight when a sumptuous repast was served from the well filled baskets brought by the guests.

Many good wishes were expressed as friends and relatives said goodnight to the honored guest.

Mah Jongg Party

Mrs. John Enders was hostess at a most delightful Mah Jongg evening, Saturday of last week, with Mrs. Charles Bourne as complimented guest.

There were three tables played, Mrs. Charles Bourne receiving the guest prize, and Miss Florence Hollmeyer attaining high score. The hours passed quickly in the entertaining game, at the close of which the gracious hostess served a dainty luncheon.

The guest list included Mrs. Ed. Dewes, Mrs. O. A. Paulsund, Mrs. John Finneran, Mrs. Domino Provoost, Mrs. V. V. Mills, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Mrs. Andrew McGee, Mrs. Andrew McCalain, Mrs. Charles Bourne, Mrs. Hal McNair, Mrs. Henry Enders Jr., Miss Hollmeyer, Mrs. Carter, and Mrs. G. B. Cozad of Klamath Falls, house guests of Mrs. Enders.

Dinner at Mrs. Elhart's

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Elhart were host and hostess at dinner Sunday evening with covers laid for the following guests: Mrs. Eva Kimball of Gold Hill, Mrs. Elhart's mother who has been visiting here; Mr. W. T. Newton of San Francisco, a brother; and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall of Portland, who with Mr. Newton stopped for a short visit enroute to Portland. The rooms and table were very pringlike with lovely narcissus ending dainty beauty to the perfect appointments of the table and the delicious viands served. Mr. Hall is the factory superintendent, and had been south on a business trip. Mrs. Elhart took her mother to Gold Hill the first of the week and remained for a few days visit with relatives there.

D. A. R. Conference

The Eleventh Annual State Conference of the Oregon Daughters of the Revolution convenes in Eugene March 13th, 14th and 15th. The preliminary meetings are held Thursday afternoon, March the 13th at the Woman's Building, University of Oregon. The Daughters of Oregon Lewis and Clark Chapter are hostesses at a Tea that afternoon.

The opening session of the Conference is this (Thursday) evening at the Methodist church. Four will attend from Mount Ashland Chapter; Mrs. W. E. Blake, First Vice Regent, Mrs. Emil Peil, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken and Miss Lydia McCall. They left Wednesday morning for Eugene.

Mrs. Paul McDonald Entertains

Mrs. Paul McDonald of Medford entertained at an elaborate dinner party, the following guests from Ashland: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Enders Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Enders and Mrs. Charles Bourne, who is visiting her mother Mrs. O. Whiter and other relatives and friends.

The guests planned to attend the Circus given by the American Legion that evening in Medford.

Shaffer-Wolcott

The marriage of Miss Harriet N. Wolcott and Mr. George H. Shaffer was solemnized at the Congregational Parsonage at four o'clock Monday, March the eleventh; the Rev. W. Judson Oldfield officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sugg were the attendants.

The bride is a well-known Ashland girl. Her people have lived here for years. She is a graduate of Ashland High, of the class of 22. Later a post graduate course was taken. For some time Mrs. Shaffer has held a position in Enders Wholesale Store.

Mr. Shaffer has a position in the Franklin Bakery. The young people will be at home at 160 North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mars entertained for the bridal couple Wednesday evening at a delightful dinner.

The best of wishes and hearty congratulations are extended the happy couple for years of happiness and prosperity.

Hard Times Party

The Hard Times Party, or Box Social promises to be a nescially jolly affair. The ladies are expected to wear porch or house dresses and the men may come in business suits.

It is said a number are planning to really carry out the idea of hard times in costume. In that case, no doubt some original ideas will be worked out.

Each lady is to bring a box containing lunch for two and the men have the privilege of buying the aforesaid box. Coffee will be served.

After supper the evening will be devoted to entertainment and amusement. It is understood that Madame Baronette is in the city this evening and has been secured to give one of her feature dances. Doubtless other plans are also made for the entertainment of the guests and those who attend may be assured of a very delightful evening. Members are privileged to invite guests.

W. C. T. U. Meet

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting at the Library on Tuesday of this week. Plans for their anniversary were discussed and a good bit of business came before the organization. The program planned for the anniversary will be announced later.

Rainbow Class Party

The Rainbow Class will have a party the evening of St. Patrick's Day, with the mothers of the class as honor guests.

A short business session will be held but the larger part of the evening will be spent in social fashion.

It is hoped that every member of the Rainbow Class will plan to attend. The affair is at the home of the teacher Mrs. H. W. Andrews, 122 Church street.

Corrected List of Names

To correct a mistake in the list of pupils named in the paper published in Monday's issue, the entire list is given herewith: 1. Elizabeth Anderson, 2. Nancy Anderson, 3. Llewellyn Colver, 4. Martha Colver, 5. Abi Colver, 6. Donna Colver, 7. Hiram Colver, 8. Solon Colver, 9. Thomas D. Reames, 10. Martha Reames, 11. James Reames, 12. Mary Scott, 13. Nancy Scott, 14. John Scott, 15. Robert A. Grey, 16. Mary Grey, 17. Daniel Grey, 18. and 19. John and William Grey (twins), 20. Joseph Robison, 21. Samuel Robison, 22. Robert Robison, 23. Calvin Wagner, 24. Welborn Beeson, 25. Theresa Stearns, 26. Oscar Stearns, 27. Orson Stearns, 28. Newell Stearns. It will be of interest to many to know that the Miss Mary Hoffman mentioned is Mrs. Vining who lives here in Ashland.

Mrs. Atkins Entertains

Mrs. Harold Atkins entertained on Saturday afternoon March the eighth, with a birthday party for her daughter Rose Marie.

After a happy time spent with music and in games the guests were invited into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served.

The table was prettily decorated in violet and yellow; the color scheme being borrowed from the seasonal flowers, violets and daffodils.

Those present were: Emily Taylor, Lydia Williams, Altadena Spencer, Virginia Rose, Margaret Churchman, Dolly Trask, Lydia Smith, Virginia Hooper, Mrs. Ruth Mitchell and the complimented guest Miss Rose Marie Atkins.

High School Circle Meets

The Parent Teacher Circle of the High School met at the Civic Club House Monday at 3:00 P. M. At the business meeting, the question of graduation dresses was briefly discussed by some of the mothers present. The weight of opinion seemed to be to let each mother handle the question with her own daughter and that three complete outfits of dresses were absolutely unnecessary.

It was also announced that the Y. M. C. A. boys had contributed $15, their entire proceeds from the Ashland-Grants Pass Game, toward the Play Shed Fund.

The musical program given by the pupils of Miss Berna Haight followed. A number of the younger members of her class gave piano selections, played most pleasingly and which showed the careful instruction they receive, and one little lad, James Baughman, too small for school sang very sweetly and clearly—"The Elf Man".

The crowning feature of the afternoon was the privilege afforded mothers and teachers of hearing Dean Esterly of our own U. of O. at Eugene.

This was not strictly an address but the rather a heart to heart talk about what our girls find when they go to college.

A few brief remarks were given regarding how new education is for women. One hundred years ago the education for women was about equal to the work of the Junior High.

At that time a girl was expelled if she did not keep her dresser drawers tidy. Less than a hundred years ago a high school was closed to women because education was thought bad for them. Now women have entered all professions of men.

After hearing this fine able woman, every mother must have gone home feeling a greater sense of assurance and safety about sending her daughter to such an institution and under such guardianship, as is maintained at U. of O., where four years of growth is afforded by every healthy and normal means for expression and development.

The whole underlying thought presented in this talk was the training for good citizenship, establishing standards of conduct; building up responsibility; upholding the high ideals of the state and education, that gives spiritual courage to face every circumstance with fineness and in a right and beautiful way.

There was a large attendance of teachers and some visitors from out of town were present to enjoy the splendid meeting.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. I. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. H. McGee and Mrs. G. F. Swedenburg.

At the close of the address tea was served. Mrs. Swedenburg and Mrs. Johnson poured.

We are indebted to Mrs. W. Clay Smith for this excellent account of the Monday's meeting.

Millinery Meeting

The Millinery Meeting held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Brown was an unqualified success. A large number took advantage of this opportunity to start the new spring hats, and others consulted Miss Grayce Teich who was present to give instruction and advice, in planning their hats for the summer.

It was an all day meeting and there was a goodly number in attendance. At noon there was a covered dish luncheon that everyone enjoyed very much. It has been planned to make this a part of these all-day meetings; perhaps planning before hand what is to be brought for the luncheon.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. L. Miksch, Mrs. W. E. Pearson and Mrs. J. H. Frohboes in serving.

The next regular meeting will be at Mrs. Lloyd Moore's, next Wednesday March the 19th. The topic for consideration: "Diet and Nutrition." Miss Teich will be present. All are invited to attend.

Everyone present at this meeting felt that it had been a wonderfully helpful one. Many of the hats were nearly finished and others well started. Others perfected their plans for the new bonnets so that they could go on with the making at home.

Those attending were the Mesdames Mary Day, L. Miksch, J. H. Frohboes, A. C. Joy, Homer Barron, Harbison, Fred York, W. E. Pearson, F. C. Homes, C. H. Chisholm, Joan-sh, Hayes, Burns, Mark True Channell, Ed Gowland, Walker, Morrison, Carl Goetze Bartlett and A. C. Brown and the Misses Pearson and Nice.

Anniversary Celebration

The forty-fourth anniversary of Alpha Chapter O. E. S. No. 1, was observed with a most elaborate program Tuesday evening.

It had been deemed fitting to carry out the entertainment and costume in vogue 44 years ago. All the Past Worthy Matrons, were dressed in gowns of the period. Many wedding dresses were in evidence; old chests were ransacked and those having appropriate ones lending them for the occasion.

The program took the form of the "Old fashioned country school" with Judge Dunn as teacher. There were twenty four pupils and right valiently did they throw themselves into the parts expected of them.

A Chorus from the school "Carry Me Back to Ole Virginia" opened the program. Mary Atkins' piano solo "Listen to the Mocking Bird" was well received. Members of the Primary Class, Class (Billy and Nancy Briggs representing two little Quaker children.) sang "Dost Thou Love Me Sister Ruth?" Lawrence Wagner's trumpet solo "Melody in F", followed by "Susannah Don't You Cry", played very feelingly, was the next number. A mixed quartette, S. A. Peters, Sr., Emma Ketting, Mazie Bates and R. L. Burdick sang "Juanita" and "Polly Wolly Doodle" to the great satisfaction of the audience.

A solo by Elbert Greer and two songs "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Last Rose of Summer" by Mrs. L. N. Woodside gave much pleasure. The Misses George Coffee and Gertrude Brown were the accompanists for the musical numbers.

The Boy's Quartette—R. L. Burdick, S. A. Peters, Sr., and S. A. Peters, Jr., and Billy Briggs gave a wonderful rendition of the "Old Oaken Bucket". A comic dialogue by Emma Murphy and Ruth Osburn brought down the house. A trombone solo by Joe Nell "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" followed by "Turkey in the Straw" with Orville Hall, Lawrence Wagner and Kenneth Hobson assisting with trumpets, was the next number. This music led to the Virginia Reel, in which everyone took part. A round and chorus from the school preceded the spelling contest in which Mrs. Day and Mr. L. N. Woodside led the sides to defeat or victory as the case might be, preceded dancing which eventually ended in a "Grand March" with the charter members, Mrs. E. H. Wagner and Mrs. Eugenia Atkinson, followed by the Past Worthy Matrons, leading the way to the dining room.

The dining room had been made very lovely and spring-like in yellow and white. Great masses of daffodils in cut glass bowls, and the birthday cake with its yellow candles added beauty and the dainty place cards seemed quite fairy like.

Mr. F. D. Wagner as toast master, announced the speakers. Mrs. E. V. Carter gave the history of Alpha Chapter No. 1; Mr. E. V. Carter talked on "Charter Members"; Rev. P. K. Hammond, spoke on "The Ladies"; Mrs. August Schuerman gave a "Phonopony" of Alpha Chapter forty-four years hence—1968; and Mrs. Hal McNair spoke on "Future Members." Mr. E. V. Carter closed his toast with "Mothers of Men" followed by all singing "Auld Lang Syne".

After Mrs. McNair's address those assembled sang "Home Sweet Home" after which all repaired to the lodge room, where the "Virginia Reel" and a "Community Sing" brought to a close one of the most successful functions in the history of Alpha Chapter.
