Other than the guests of honor, Miss Louise Pinnell, Miss Mary Elliot, Mrs. Tom Culbertson and son, Howard Culbertson, were present at the delicious repast that was served the guests. Berean Class Party—

The Loyol Berean Class party held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Cole on North Main street, Friday evening was a very happy affair, with a good attendance.

The evening was spent in games and music. One of the games, a musical guessing game, proved of much interest and afforded an opportunity to exercise one's musical memory. Dr. Maude Hawley secured first honors and Mr. Frank Shaffer second, in the contest.

The hostess, Mrs. Lloyd Cole, assisted by Mrs. Inez Bryant and Mrs. Cozart served lovely refreshments at the close of the evening. It is planned to have these social meetings of the class each month, and the next one will be held at the Allison home.

Allison, Mr. Frank Shaffer, the president of the class, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hatcher, Dr. Maude Hawley, Mrs. Cozart, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Rice, Mr. J. H. Leggett, Mrs. Floyd Putman, Mrs. R. L. P. N. G. Club—of Mrs. W. L. Moore of Bellview with Mrs. Moore and Mrs. J. E. Gowland as hostesses. The earlier part of the afternoon was spent in a business meeting, with reports given and plans made. The report from the visit of a number of the members at the Rebekah bazaar at Central Point to which this club had contributed, was very interesting.

Ashland club women are very proud of the way in which Mrs. MacCracken presided over this tenth meeting of the District Federation and she, with her corps of assistants, are to be congratulated on its successful sessions.

Ashland was fortunate in having Prof. Parsons as the speaker, and it was unfortunate that more of Ashland's citizenry could not have heard the splendid lecture, on a subject of such vital interest to each and every one. It was a topic that appealed, for it is very pertinent just now when the need of community organization is so great and thoughtful citizens everywhere where are considering the question.

Missionary Society Meets—

The Missionary Society of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Putman on Friday afternoon. There had been an excellent program prepared and gratifying reports were read at the business meeting.

The ladies found that the fifty dollars that they had pledged to raise was in the treasury. There had been a contest on with Medford church in raising this Golden Jubilee Bond but results of the campaign in Medford had not been learned.

A nominating committee, Mrs. Grace Putman, Mrs. J. H. Leggett and Mrs. J. B. Cochran was appointed to report candidates for officers to be voted upon at the next meeting.

A duet by Mrs. J. V. Wright and Mrs. Alta Payne, with Mrs. Floyd Putman at the piano gave great pleasure to the audience.

An interesting questionnaire brought out the work of missions in an unusual way. Many topics of more than passing interest were mentioned but the thought of the afternoon centered on Tibet, where the church have a missionary, Miss Grace Young.

The afternoon closed with the social hour during which refreshments were served.

Those present were, the Mesdames J. V. Wright, Emma Rose, Delpha Bryant, Wm. Hedrick, Fannie Leggett, Alta Payne, Wm. Rice, John Cochran, Jas. Putman, Floyd Putman, W. A. Cooper, Dan Hatcher and Miss Benedict.

Will There Be Gasoline In Your Paint?

A Question Which Should Not Be Asked. Yet, It Should.

There should be honesty enough with every painter's native born conscience to do a job of painting with pure linseed oil and lead and color, and every property owner knowing this would not need to be asked the above question. Such a question, "Will There Be Gasoline In Your Paint," should not be asked, it should not be necessary.

But, under the practices of some painters, this is a perfectly natural and self-protective question for us and you to ask, and that's why it should be asked.

Sometimes the property owner invites this use of paint quality destroyer by demanding something for nothing, by asking for bids on the "cheapest" basis rather than on the quality basis. Learn your paint dealer, find out his reputation for honesty and fair dealing and the quality of his paints—also, the reputation of the painter who is to do the work—that he will give an honest hour's work without diluting the paint.

Fuller Paints and good painters well known.

—are the basic things on which we base our prices for a paint job whether asked for a bid or given the job without reference to a price—because our understanding first is, you want quality paint, quality time and quality labor.
