MAY 13
THUS SAITH THE LORD, Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not.
Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.—Jeremiah 33:2, 3, 6.

LAMENTABLE PARTISANSHIP

When the news came of the conviction and sentence of Governor McCray, of Indiana, good citizens did not gloat over the punishment of a public malefactor. Instead, there was widespread regret that another public servant had betrayed his trust, that voters had misplaced their confidence.

When public officers go astray, as they sometimes do, being human, there is always the "somebody else" that suffers. With private citizens who err, it is the families and friends who suffer with them. With the holder of public office who defaults, it is the entire populace which suffers.

The voters are insistent that the corrupt politician and office holder be punished and to the full extent of the law, but better no citizen at all than one who for partisan reasons finds gratification in the exposure of malfeasance in office. It is to be lamented that there were many such citizens who welcomed the blowing-off of the lid of Teapot Dome, the indictment of the director of the veterans' bureau, the forced resignation of Attorney General Daugherty and the other recent eruptions of political corruption.

When voters for personal prejudice welcome misgovernment and misconduct in government it is not surprising that they should occasionally have their wish. These "hoppers-for-the-worst" are undoubtedly the same who condone and extenuate the deficiencies of those of their own political faith. Generally citizens who dread the exposure of graft and corruption are the first to demand punishment after guilt has been proven. It is the latter that are responsible for all the good government we have, and after all good government and honest officeholders are in the majority.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE

As long as amendment of our constitution is the style it seems strange that there is no concerted effort to displace that obsolete institution, the electoral college.

In strict fact the people do not elect the president and the vice-president. The electoral college performs that function. And the electoral college is composed of some five hundred individuals, whose names do not register on the minds of the electors who choose them.

Theoretically, there is no reason why these electors should not get together and elect as chief executive a man unheard of by the electorate. It would be possible for a score or more of these electors, by ignoring the candidate of their national convention, to defeat the candidate for president favored by a popular majority of some millions. These possibilities are far from probabilities; but an ordered government should not rely entirely on tradition in such things.

Under the electoral college system there would be nothing strange in the election of a president who ran second in the popular vote. In the Hayes-Tilden campaign that very thing occurred.

The less populous states would doubtless protest against any election of a president by a purely majority or plurality vote. Such a choice would mean that New York, Pennsylvania and a few other largely populated states would dominate the country. But this fact is not sufficient reason for the retention of the electoral college. The proportional votes for president could be cast as they are, simply on the official returns from the several states. The election, the assembling, the voting and the canvassing of the votes of presidential electors are all idle formalities. While the constitution is being changed in fundamental ways, it seems peculiar that it is not changed to make its form agree with fact.

Trouble with second-hand information is it has usually been misused.

The fine thing about being a farmer is you never have to leave home to go to the country.

The electrical iron is a great convenience for men also. When connected properly it cannot be thrown.

There was an article in a recent medical journal concerning a man who lived seventeen hours without a brain in his head, and for some reason or other it was treated as a sensation.

The free seed graft has finally been killed, but there is nothing in the law to prevent its seventy-six congressional supporters from buying seeds themselves and broadcasting them.

COUNTY CORONER
I am a republican candidate for reelection for Coroner of Jackson county, subject to primaries May 16.
Platform: Experience, personal attention, economic management. Being a substantial taxpayer I am interested in the economical management of all county offices.

CORONER
I hereby announce myself as a candidate on the republican ticket, for nomination at the coming primary for the office of coroner of Jackson county.

H. W. CONGER.

SHERIFF
As a candidate in the Republican primaries for the office of Sheriff, I desire to clearly define my position on the future conduct of that office if elected.
My experience as a deputy sheriff of Jackson County, and as a State Traffic Officer, has taught me that no peace officer can give satisfactory and efficient service to the public when his authority and responsibility are shared by another. The present unsatisfactory law enforcing conditions is largely attributable to divided authority between antagonistic peace officers, elements that are apt to produce conflict, inefficiency and useless expense.
If elected I shall insist upon and expect to maintain the right to perform all the duties of Sheriff in this county, and it follows that I will be uncompromisingly opposed to special officers except Federal Agents, with whom I pledge full and complete cooperation. I am in thorough accord with both the letter and spirit of the prohibition laws and pledge my active and untiring efforts in their enforcement.
J. J. McMAHON.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT
I hereby announce my candidacy for County Judge, subject to the decision of the Democratic primary, on the following platform:
Reduce taxes through an economical and business-like administration of county affairs. Stop needless expenditures and waste and give proper support and attention to good roads, public schools and other vital and public necessities. Enforce the prohibition law efficiently and properly through proper agencies and eliminate special law enforcing organizations which are now causing divided authority and needless expense. Give to all a fair, square deal and not be responsible to any political faction, clique or organization.
152tf* WILLIAM ULRICH.

SHERIFF
At the earnest solicitation of many friends who have importuned me, I have finally consented to place myself before the Republican voters for the office of Sheriff, believing that the efficient, orderly and economical manner in which my office has been, and is now, conducted warrants my re-election. If elected I promise to continue my present policies of law enforcement, efficiency, economy and strict attention to duty in the affairs pertaining to the office.
C. E. TERRILL.

CAMBERS FOR SHERIFF
To the Republican Electors of Jackson county, Oregon:
I hereby announce myself as candidate for the office of Sheriff of Jackson county, subject to the wishes of the Republican voters to be expressed at the primary election to be held on May 16, '24.
In announcing my candidacy I wish to state for the information of the voters that I have had four years clerical experience in the Auditor and Recorder's office of Churchill county, Nevada; that I also served four years as Sheriff of said county, and feel that I am eminently qualified to fill the position.
I strongly favor law enforcement, especially the liquor laws, the violation of which has become a great menace to the commonwealth. I also favor the enforcement of the motor vehicle law to the end that the lives of people and property may be protected from the acts of careless and reckless drivers.
I shall, if elected, bestow special attention to the matter of collecting taxes, and the executive duties of my office.
Adv.* J. J. CAMBERS

COUNTY CLERK
I am candidate for the office of County Clerk, on the republican ticket, subject to the primary on May 16.
If elected County Clerk I will give the office that high degree of efficiency which the people are justified in demanding of a public official.
CARL Y. TENGWALD
Adv. Medord.

FOR COUNTY CLERK
I am a candidate for the republican nomination at the May primaries for the office of county clerk. If nominated and elected, I promise the people a square deal. My principles are economy and strict adherence to the duties of the office. I will endeavor to keep the office up to its present high standard.
W. H. CRANDALL.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

VICTOR BURSSELL.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination of Sheriff of Jackson County on the republican ticket, subject to the voters of said county at the primaries in May. If nominated and elected I pledge myself and the deputies whom I shall appoint to enforce all laws including the 18th Amendment with efficiency and economy. If you do not want the laws enforced, do not vote for me.
D. A. LYONS, Central Point.

CRUCIFIED REMAINS?
FOLKSTONE, Eng., May 12.—Excavations undertaken on the site of the old Roman city here have resulted in the uncovering of the bone of a foot appearing to have been pierced by a nail. The theory is that it is the foot of some one who was crucified.

Review and Comparison of County Business
Relative to the administration of the business of Jackson County, during the term of Judge G. A. Gardner, who is seeking the Republican nomination for County Judge.
Although the cost of about all articles has greatly increased since 1913, the taxpayers of Jackson County should consider the fact that the raise in the County levy has been slight as compared to the levy of the year just prior to the World War as may be seen by the following compilation:

| | 1913 | 1923 | Increase per cent |
|--|---------------------|-----------------------|-------------------|
| County Levy | $410,931.17 | $449,361.34 | 9 % |
| State Levy | 149,429.52 | 206,891.12 | 39 % |
| Special School, City and Road District | 315,181.55 | 529,765.12 | 68 % |
| City liens, Fire patrol | | | |
| Irrigation license, | 20,392.14 | 191,483.99 | 841 % |
| Total | $895,934.38 | $1,377,501.57 | |

The above tabulation shows that the county taxes have not been raised in proportion to the taxes of the other tax agencies.
