The Poor FORD

Yes, really it is a pity the way some folks treat their Ford car, simply because it is a Ford and will take so much punishment.

Give Care

To a Ford, in the same proportion for its cost as you would faithfully do for a $10,000 car, and it will be more devoted to duty than ever.

W. R. C. Club—

Home Missionary Society Meets
The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church held its "annual mite box" opening at the church parlors on Friday afternoon last.

The opening of these boxes revealed the startling fact that around $140 were added to the treasury, with perhaps a little additional to be reported later.

The program was a splendid one; largely from the Home Missionary Magazine and in charge of the Mesdames Homer Billings and F. L. Nutter.

There was a large attendance at this important meeting, at which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Anguin, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Davis, with a number of others assisting whose names we failed to secure.

A delicious wedding breakfast was served the bridal party at the bride's home prior to leaving for Medford where the ceremony was performed.

Mr. and Mrs. Neidermeyer left Medford immediately in their car for an extended wedding trip that included Eugene, where they will meet Mr. Neidermeyer's people and visit a brother. At Corvallis they will call on friends, going from there to Portland and Pendleton, later to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Neidermeyer will be at home to their friends after June first at their own cozy ranch home, near Jacksonville, already prepared for their occupancy.

Miss Nellie Hake is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hake, and has been prominent in church and school and social circles. Her voice and efficient help will be greatly missed by the younger set with whom she was a general favorite. Miss Hake was a graduate of A. H. S. and taught very successfully a number of years in Jacksonville.

The groom, Mr. Otto Neidermeyer, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neidermeyer of Jacksonville and is a popular young rancher of that vicinity. He has many friends in Ashland.

To these fine young people the best of good wishes are extended. May much happiness be theirs and material prosperity in a long and useful life.

P. E. O. Reception—

The Social Circle will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. O. W. Long, on Wednesday of this week at 2:30 p. m. There is always entertainment provided at these meetings and a delightful afternoon is assured.

The ladies of the Sunday school are entertaining the men on Friday evening of this week. There will be a splendid program (a surprise) and refreshments will be a feature of the occasion. Mrs. Floyd Putman, Mrs. R. L. Burdick and Mrs. Edwin Dunn are members of the program committee.

Six cars filled with C. E.'s and many members of the church drove down to Central Point Monday evening to visit the church at that place, where a meeting is being held; the Rev. Howell of Medford and the resident pastor are conducting it.

Neidermeyer-Hake—
Miss Nellie Hake and Mr. Otto Neidermeyer were united in marriage Sunday morning May the eleventh at Medford, the Rev. R. W. Nelson officiating. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wandt.
